Zachary's Shell Station Plans Grand Opening

Zachary's Shell service station is planning a grand opening at its Second st. and Central ave. location Thursday, Friday and Saturday, according to Scott Zachary, proprietor.

Zachary, who operates the station with his two sons, Chuck and Carroll, said the station will give away five pounds of sugar with each 10 gallons of gas.

Libby orange glassware will be given with each five quarts of oil. The station is also selling by the case lot during the three days, Zachary said.

Lollipops and balloons will be given children and a certain number of free hams will be awarded as prizes.

The new station, which has been open for two weeks, will feature 24-hour service at its four pumps. It has the latest wheel blanding and overhead lubrication equipment, Zachary said.

Three other boys, a 17-year-old Phoenix youth and 16 and 15 year old Medford teen agers, also were questioned by city police regarding the entry.
