Walsh-Corliss Marriage Ceremony Held at Church

A nuptial mass Thursday, June 5, in Sacred Heart Catholic church, married Miss Phyllis Corliss to Thomas Michael Walsh III. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Corliss, 938 South Holly street and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Thomas M. Walsh, Duluth, Minn., and the late Mr. Walsh.

The marriage ceremony and mass were celebrated at 10:30 o'clock in the morning by the Rev. John Ilg, with David Young and David Taft serving as acolytes. About 250 guests were present. June 5 was chosen as the wedding date since it was the Feast of Corpus Christi.

Mr. Corliss escorted his daughter to the altar. Her wedding gown was of white brocade with fitted floor-length skirt and bodice with square neckline and short sleeves. Her net veil was held by a satin pillbox hat trimmed with seed pearl design and her long fingerless gloves were of satin to match the gown. She carried a white satin prayer book with a white orchid and stephanotis streamers.

In keeping with a tradition of graduates of Maryhurst college, the bride's bouquet was sent to the college to be placed on the altar in the chapel dedicated to the Blessed Mother.

Mrs. Robert H. Corliss was honor attendant for her sister-in-law and bridesmaids were Mrs. C. Lind McBeth, Jacksonville, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Daniel A. Hull, Mrs. Corliss wore a shell pink brocade silk frock of sheath design with short sleeves and matching overskirt of chiffon. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white sweetpeas and her headband was of pink feathers. The bridesmaids' gowns were of lavender brocade satin, sheath style, with matching chiffon overskirts. Their feather headresses were lavender and they carried lavender and white sweetpeas. All three attendants wore pearl earrings which were gifts from the bride.

Patricia McBeth, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Kenneth R. Corliss, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Guy D. W. Corliss and Robert H. Corliss, brothers of the bride, and C. Lind McBeth, her brother-in-law.

Bruno Pellegrini played the wedding music and Miss Frances Thrun and John P. Cooney sang.

White stock and roses in varied shades of pink decorated the church.

The bride's mother wore an ensemble of rose and silver grey brocade silk with pastel pink accessories. Her flowers were gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a dark blue brocade silk ensemble with white accessories and gardenia corsage.

The reception was given by the bride's parents and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Hull at the Hull home on Eastwood drive. The guest book was attended by Mrs. Effie Kurtz and Mrs. O. D. Frazee, aunt of the bride, poured coffee. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. McBeth, the bride's sister. The cake was cut with an heirloom knife and server loaned by Mrs. Z. N. Agee.

The flower arrangements in the Hull home were the work of Phillip Henselman, and he also played piano background music during the reception. Mr. Henselman, formerly of Medford, is now living in Mexico City.

The newlyweds spent a few days on the California coast and then left for Duluth. For traveling the bride wore a suit of beige raw silk with aquamarine accessories.

The bride, born and reared in Jackson county, was educated at St. Mary's school here and is a graduate of Maryhurst college in Oregon. For two years she lived in Japan and served as a program director for the Special Services of the United States Armed Forces. In recent months she has been on the staff of Swen's store in the record department. Miss Corliss, a soprano, was featured as a soloist and with choral groups during her school days here and at Maryhurst, and gave concerts during her stay in Japan.

Mr. Walsh attended Cathedral high school in Duluth and Marquette university in Milwaukee, Wis. He is now with General Electric Credit corporation in Duluth.

One of the pre-nuptial parties given for the bride was a buffet dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bulkin were hosts in their home near Shady Cove. About 25 guests attended.

In Medford for the wedding were the bridegroom's mother, his sister, Miss Mary Ann
