

Dinner Honors Medford Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Goodrich, 2414 Spring street, were honored Tuesday evening at dinner in the Candlelight room of the Medford hotel by their son, Hartwell Goodrich of Salt Lake City. The occasion was their 50th wedding anniversary.

Also present for the dinner were two of the couple's grandchildren, Tanya and Paula Goodrich of Salt Lake City, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strayer, 2587 Merriman road, Medford, and Mrs. Irene Bryant, Everett, Wash. The women attending the dinner were presented carnation corsages.

The Goodriches were married in Wisconsin June 10, 1908, and moved to Medford from Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, in 1945.

Earlier in the day the couple were honored at breakfast by three of their grandchildren, Judith, Jimmie, and Tanya.

Showers Given For Bride-Elect

Miss Linda Morton, whose wedding to Kenneth L. Myers is set for June 21, has been honored at a number of parties. Miss Morton's two sisters, Mrs. Charles F. Shinn and Mrs. Jack Mace, were hostesses for a bridal shower in her honor at the Shinn home, Route 2, Box 442C.

The guests numbered 14, and they presented Miss Morton gifts for her new home. The hostesses converted their present for the honored guest, an ironing board, into a sail boat which the guests sailed with presents. The sail held a sign which said "Smooth Sailing."

Miss Bernice Froehrich was also hostess for a party which honored the bride-elect, and members of her club, the Ivy Arts club, gave a party in her honor. Miss Froehrich's party was held at her home, 33 North Orange street, and was planned as a surprise for the honored guest.

The gifts were heaped at the feet of a bride figure arranged by the hostess, and games were played.

Miss Morton is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver O. Morton, Old Military road, and Mr. Myers' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Myers, 1101 Woodrow lane.

The Myers-Morton wedding is set for 10 o'clock in the morning at First Methodist church, with the reception to follow in Wesley hall.
