

Ceremony Held For Sorority

A ritual of jewels ceremony and installation of officers of Alpha Beta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was held June 10 at the Medford hotel in the Rogue Room, with dinner following.

Mrs. Thomas Cardona and Mrs. O. A. Eden assisted the president, Miss Jean Cardona, with the ceremony.

The ritual table was covered with the traditional white satin cloth, bearing the gold crest. White chrysanthemums and yellow roses adorned the table. The mirrored wall in the Rogue Room reflected the candle light ceremony.

Pledges receiving the ritual of jewels degree were Mrs. Floyd Eastwood, Mrs. Ernest Flakus, Mrs. Ted Neilson and Mrs. Ron Hall.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. I. V. Mitchell, Mrs. C. C. Holmes, Mrs. H. D. Manning, Mrs. J. A. Westensee, Alpha Beta's past presidents, Mrs. Nick DeWitt and Mrs. Austin Murry, and the chapter's sponsor, Mrs. Eden and director, Mrs. Cardona.

Sixteen of Alpha Beta's members and a group of husbands plan to attend first aid classes consisting of 10 hours of training at the Red Cross building, starting Thursday, June 19, at 7:30 p.m.

Honor Graduates Listed For Fathers' Day Page

Today is Father's day, and in past years The Medford Mail Tribune has carried pictures of Medford and Jackson county fathers on the front page of the society section. Today we honor fathers indirectly by printing pictures of their sons and daughters who won honors, awards and scholarships during graduation week at Medford High school. Since space on the page prevents naming the parents, we take this opportunity to list their names.

Class officers were David Frohnmayer, president, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Frohnmayer, 1656 Spring street;
