PEO Convention Opens Monday

Delegates and guests from Oregon's 103 PEO chapters will register Monday, June 16, at the First Methodist church here for the 47th annual state convention of the Sisterhood.

Presiding at the convention will be Mrs. Ralph Day, Portland, president of Oregon state chapter. Mrs. Day's father was the late Dr. Charles T. Sweeney, who practiced here for 35 years. A member of the state board is Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew, treasurer, Medford.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Arthur E. Welch, Portland, corresponding secretary of the supreme chapter of the PEO Sisterhood, will be principal speaker. She will speak on "Face to Face."

Monday night Mrs. E. E. Vehrs of Grants Pass, first vice president of the Oregon state chapter, will preside at the educational hour at 8 p.m. at the church. The meeting is open to the public and all interested in education projects of PEO are invited to attend.

Dinner Planned
At the dinner to be held at Hedrick Junior High school prior to her talk, Chapter BE, Medford, will be host. Theme for the dinner will be "Evening in Paris." Mrs. W. E. Holmes is chairman.

PEO maintains a revolving loan fund for girls totaling nearly $1,000,000, and since 1907 has helped some 11,000 girls with loans for education advancement. Of these girls, 330 have been from Oregon.

At the present time Chapter BN, Ashland, is sponsoring Miss Arieta Knowles who is attending Southern Oregon college. Miss Knowles will be introduced by Mrs. Vehrs. The student is known in the valley as one of Shakespearean strolling musicians at the Shakespearean Festival in Ashland.

Another phase of the Sisterhood's educational program is its peace scholarship for young women from foreign countries to study in the United States and Canada. Miss Akemi Hatakeyama, Japan, who is studying on an international peace scholarship at the Portland Art Museum school will appear on Monday's program.

Owns College
PEO also maintains its own junior college for women, Cottey college in Nevada. Mo. Miss Mary Elise Unrath, Roseburg, who recently completed her freshman year at the college, will speak on the Monday program. Also telling of the college will be another student, Miss Sally Stearns, Bend.

Miss Audrey Hite, Medford, who is attending Southern Oregon college on a PEO scholarship, also will be on the program.

Miss Marjorie Brainerd, Grants Pass, will be soloist for the evening program and Mrs. Norma Bazett, Miss Esther Bristol, Miss Rigmor Holm and Miss Brainerd will sing several Cottey songs. Mrs. Bazett will also play two cello numbers.

Mrs. Vehrs will announce the winners of the $450 Veda Jones scholarship, $450 Mary McFadden scholarship and three composite scholarships of $400 each. The scholarships are to Cottey college. Two scholarships of $250 each will be awarded for study in Oregon colleges.

Following the evening's program at First Methodist church an informal reception will be held for distinguished guests.

Dinner at Club
The convention will continue through Wednesday. Tuesday evening a banquet will be held at the Rogue Valley Country club with Chapter AA, Medford, Mrs.

Requefort Dressing Good With Hot Rolls

New York — (UPI) — Give the family a treat that's easy to fix — brown and serve rolls with a Requefort topping.

Brush 1½ tablespoons melted butter or margarine over the tops of 9 rolls. Make a lengthwise shallow cut in the top of each roll. Combine 2 tablespoons cream cheese, 2 teaspoons Requefort or Bleu cheese spread, 1 teaspoon milk, ½ teaspoon chopped pimiento, and ½ teaspoon finely chopped chives. Insert 1 teaspoon cheese mixture in each cut. Bake in a greased, shallow pan in a hot oven (400 degrees) for 12 minutes.

C. E. Hedberg, chairman, in charge. Theme for the evening will be "Stardust Interlude."

Convention officials include Mrs. S. J. Lacey, Chapter AA, and Miss Alice Harris, Chapter BE, Medford, who will be soloists. A 20-voice choral group from the Medford chapters will entertain during the session.

In charge of the convention are Chapters BE, AA, both Medford; Chapter BD, Portland, and Chapter BF, The Dalles.

Temperance Union To Hear Speaker
