A KISS FOR THEODOR—Barbara Gutscher, 14, a German-born resident of San Francisco, greets German President Theodor Heuss with flowers and a kiss after his arrival in that city. Over-zealous officials had tried to make Barbara get rid of her flowers, a bouquet of carnations, but she retrieved them in time for presentation to President Heuss. At left is San Francisco's Mayor George Christopher.

GRANDVIEW-LONE PINE

New Station Opens

By LILLIAN KNIGHT

Grandview-Lone Pine—John Mansfield is operating the new Chevron Service station at 600 East Jackson, located near the new proposed East Side shopping center. Saturday was grand opening day.

Saturday also Mansfield gave a free lubrication job and oil change with each full tank of gas.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Spencer and daughter, Jackie, returned home last Thursday from Garibaldi, Ore. They were gone two weeks, being called there by the death of Spencer's stepmother.

John Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kerr of Beaverton, Ore., was a week end guest at the John Mansfield home last week. The Kerrs are former Medford residents and John visited other friends while here.

The girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Norris recently, weighing 6½ pounds, has been named Patricia Ann.

Mrs. Eloise Hayden and son, John Alan, of Klamath Falls were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Knight and Gerald last Sunday. They came over with Martin Lehman of Richmond, Calif., and Beverly Wise of Klamath Falls, who visited in Central Point.

Last Thursday Jim Dow of Central Point and his brother, Elmer, of Muskegon, Mich., were visitors at the Dick Knight home.

Memorial week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Marrs Jr. and family were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Skelly of Chico, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Kennard of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Young on Stewart ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewie Breazeale, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Marrs Jr., are now living in San Diego, Calif., where they are both working.

A LA NAPOLEON—Hand in jacket, Napoleon style, French Premier de Gaulle arrives at the Elysee Palace in Paris for a cabinet meeting. De Gaulle is faced with almost outright defiance by fighting leaders in Algeria.

STA-OFF
CORN REMOVER
