

Censorship Charges Traded In TV Interview

New York—(UPI)—Charges of censorship were exchanged today between the American Broadcasting company and The Fund for the Republic over ABC's cancellation of a television interview with Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

The network Sunday night cancelled a filmed television show in which Lodge, interviewed by Mike Wallace, said the U.S. should give up the idea of being popular abroad and concentrate instead on achieving international respect.

Insisted on Deletions

John Daly, ABC vice president in charge of news and public affairs, said the program was cancelled because Lodge insisted on deletions which would have constituted "editorial censorship."

Robert M. Hutchins, president of the Fund for the Republic, which co-sponsors the "Survival and Freedom" series in which Lodge was to have appeared, in turn called the cancellation "arbitrary" and an "experiment in censorship."

Violation Charged

He also accused the network of violating an agreement which, he said, permitted guests on the show to make deletions in advance of the show's presentation on Sunday nights.

"Upon reading over the transcription," Hutchins said, "Mr. Lodge felt there were certain statements he did not wish to make publicly at this time. In view of our understanding with him and the nature of the program, we did not feel that we—or ABC—should attempt to compel him to say things he did not wish to say."

Boat Parade Ends Rose Festival

Portland—(UPI)—A parade of pleasure craft on the Willamette river Sunday marked the end of Portland's Golden Anniversary Rose Festival.

Bright sunshine marked the final day of the week-long event as Queen Ruth Parrett and her court led the water parade aboard the yacht, Groote Beer, which was originally built for Herman Goering of Germany during World War II.

Police estimated Saturday's crowd at the Rose Festival parade at 300,000.

The Ruch Dairy 4-H club met at Fossen's June 5. The meeting was called to order by Romelle Fossen, president. Fred Straube, our leader, told us to start grooming and training our cows and calves, and said if we did good work he would take us to the state fair. We discussed different breeds of cattle.

The next meeting will be held at Robert Ziegler's July 1, and everyone is to give a special report. We also will talk about judging animals. We plan to swim and go to a show in the evening.
