

Simpson Brothers Garner High Honors in State Trapshoot Here

Woodside Champion in Handicap

Rolf and Frank Simpson, brothers from Cornelius, wrapped up a good share of laurels between them yesterday, final day of the Oregon State shoot here of the Pacific International Trapshooting association.

Rolf had the state high over - all championship and Frank the all-around man at the conclusion of three spirited days of titular gunning of the Oregon State Trapshooting association at Medford Gun club. Earlier in the day Rolf was crowned state 16-yard singles champion with 200 straight and brother Frank was runner-up, one target behind.

Final event of the tourney was the Oregon State handicap. Winner's trophy went to Vern Woodside, Maupin.

A 675 out of 700 tabulation was compiled by Rolf Simpson in the over-all. Charles Collins, Roseburg, was a shade back with 674. Frank Simpson had 673 and Orley Milligan, Roseburg, 672.

Orlich High Gun

Dan Orlich, Reno, Nev., one of the nation's standout shooters, actually was high gun in all-around with 387 out of a possible 400. He was not eligible for Oregon honors but claimed a guest trophy. Another Reno shooter, Dan Ohnstead was next with 385.

Frank Simpson's state winning score was 383. Milligan had 381 and Rolf Simpson, Collins, Martin Clogston, Medford, and Ken Jones, Condon, 380 each. George Ross, Fontana, Calif., fired 381. All-around title was based on scores in Friday doubles, Saturday and Sunday singles, and Sunday handicap. High over-all was on all targets Friday through Sunday.

In the singles, first half shot Saturday and second half Sunday, Paul Maylor, Oak Harbor, Wash., amateur, and William McCrady, Carmichael Calif., pro, had 1995 along with Frank Simpson and Maylor was awarded a guest trophy.

Mrs. Blake Wins
Ladies' prize went to Mrs. Corrine Blake, Portland. She and Mrs. Donna Wooley, Drain, each smashed 182 pigeons and Mrs. Blake won the shoot-off 24 to 22.

Frank Windolph, Portland, edged George Jantzer, Medford, 25 to 24 in the 65 to 70 years of age veterans' class after each recorded 194s. R. S. Smith, Sandy, took the extra from Henry Shirlcliffe, Myrtle Creek, and Dean Bubar, Roseburg, in the over 70 bracket. They also had 194s in regular competition. Run-off counts were Smith 25 and Shirlcliffe and Bubar each 23.

Junior singles champion, based on Sunday firing, was Ken Jones, Condon, with a 98. Dean Culbertson, Medford, followed with 95. Louis Hunt, Medford, was repeat champ in sub-junior with 99. Runner-up was Phillip Yasui, Hood River with 90.

Don Wiemer, Portland, clipped 194 for high Oregon pro score.

There were 139 shooters at 16 yards yesterday.

Breaks 99 Birds
Woodside's score for the Oregon title in the handicap was 99. An out-of-stater, E. J. Jylha, Tieton, Wash., duplicated that figure. The two had top guns in a field of 154.

Carl Bennett, Philomath, was state runner-up in the handicap but had to survive a shoot-off which put Laurence Jones Sr., Condon in third place. The two tied with 98s. Bennett's shoot-off margin was 25 to 23.

Harry Abernathy, Welches, came out in front in a seven-year shoot for fourth prize by splashing 50 straight extra targets. In the regular handicap he broke 97 along with Clogston, Frank Simpson, Collins, Dick Gridley, Portland, E. G. Henselman, Medford, Harvey Smith, Ione, and H. E. Hanson, Eugene.

198 Scores Shot
Simpson was not on hand for the run-off and all but Abernathy and Collins were eliminated on the first round of 25. Collins dropped two birds for a 23 on the second 25.

Scores of 198 each in singles were fired by Laurence Jones, Sr., Condon, Dan Orlich, Reno, Nev., Orley Milligan, Roseburg, E. J. Jylha, Tieton, Wash., and Harry Luper, Drain. Among those busting 100 straight on Sunday were John Willener, Eugene, McCrady, Maylor, Milligan, Wiemer, Floyd Simpson, Jylha, and Sam Samson, Medford.

It was reported that only one squad during the tourney managed to break all 125 of their targets during one round of 25 birds per man. This happened in 16-yard singles and in the squad of five were Vern Solomon, Winchester, E. W. Pease, Medford, Gordon Ryals, Albany, Dr. J. Martin Adams, Klamath Falls, and Charles Bendell, Medford.

Lind Florists Trip Rogue Dairy Maids

Memorial Stadium, Camp White — Portland's classy Erv Lind Florists, playing a steady ball game, scored single unearned markers in three separate innings here last night to tip the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids 3 to 0 in a girls' softball game.

The Florists managed just three hits off the offerings of Maid tosser Pat Barron but turned in some stylish fielding and throwing to hold down the southern Oregon team.

Hanson Two Hits
Shirley Hanson smacked two of the Maid hits. On her second she went on to second base on a Florist outfield muff but that was the only time a Rogue Valley player got that far in the game. Miss Hanson got on base on her other hit in the second panel and the other Maid to get to first sack was Diane Wall on a safety in the third inning.

Doris Hickson's flyout to end the game was the only ball other than Miss Hanson's two singles to be hit out of infield range by the Dairy Maids. Mrs. Wall's sock was a rap too steamy for Florist third baseman Dobbie to get.

Some of the pre-game advertised names of the Florists were not in the line-up but the Portlanders had some capable talent just the same. Pitcher Marion Kozak whiffed four batters and did not walk a one.

Miss Barron of the Maids recorded two strikeouts and issued four bases on balls. In their next action against women foes the Maids play at Chico, Calif., Saturday, June 21, and at Samsuir, Calif., on Sunday.

Dragsters Capture Main Race Prizes; Cycle Reaches Final

Enthusiastic drag racers from throughout Oregon and Northern California pitted their cars and their driving skill against local contestants in Southern Oregon Timing association's competition yesterday at the Camp White strip and, in all but a few cases, lost to the local entries.

Rogue Valley participants took home fourteen of the nineteen trophies given to those who reached the winners circle. This was certainly not the case two weeks ago when more than half of the hardware was awarded to contestants representing cities outside the Rogue River valley.

Medford's Noel Black with his dragster once again edged out Jack White's Triumph motorcycle for Top elimination honors, although not by the substantial margin he had hoped for. Noel probably would not have reached the winner's circle had it not been for his very efficient pit crew. Their speedy work in helping him change a clutch in record time allowed Noel to run against Jack White, who had eliminated every other vehicle.

For the second consecutive time the Roberts-Wiltze-Mickle dragster was plagued with troubles and was not able to run in the eliminations, although it did have top time of the day by posting a speed of 116.58 miles per hour. All three of the dragsters present showed that they have what it takes to really get down the strip in a hurry once the owners work out all the bugs.

Had a trophy been given for the most beautiful entry of the day Monty Wray of Ashland would certainly have won with his immaculate "A" street roadster. Monty's beauty had more than just good looks because he went on to win his class by edging out Gary Shaffer of Medford and setting a new class record of 96.35 miles per hour. The old record of 91 miles per hour was held by Shaffer brothers of Medford.

SOTA officials stated that the association has cancelled their next meet, scheduled for June 29, in order that they can participate in the Northern California championships being held in Redding over that week-end. The next SOTA race will be held Sunday, July 13. The cancelled meet date has been moved forward to September 21, 1938.

Following are the winners of Sunday's drag races and the top speeds and times.

Ray Wilson, Ran Smith Nab 2-Ball

Ray Wilson and Ranny Smith won the men's two-ball partnership golf championship in a Saturday finale.

They defeated Harry Millette and Ken Knapp 5 and 4, climaxing several weeks of tourney play.

The victors had a 40 on the back nine which was played first and Millette and Knapp a 42. Wilson and Smith were three over par as far as the match went on the front side and their rivals were six over.

The match started on the No. 10 hole. Wilson began the march for the winning two-some with a 30-foot putt on No. 11 and then on No. 12 shot from a bunker two within three feet of the pin to set up an easy put for 2 up. Knapp's approach duplicated this effort on No. 13 and Millette hit the green on 14 to help out the cause but Smith and Wilson were 2 up at the turn.

Smith sank a 10 foot putt on No. 1 to win the hole and he and Wilson went 2 up on No. 2. Wilson hit the green for a two-putt set-up on No. 4 and No. 5 was tied to close out the match.

Baylor To Play For Laker Five

Minneapolis—(UPI)—Minneapolis of the National Basketball association announced that Elgin Baylor, all-American from Seattle, has signed a contract for pro basketball, giving up his final year of eligibility.

STATE TRAPSHOOT CHAMPIONS—Here are five of the scattergunners who grabbed championships in the Oregon State shoot of the Pacific International Trapshooting association over the week end at Medford Gun club. From left they are Rolf Simpson, state high over-all and 16-yard singles winner; Frank Simpson, all-around Oregon champ and runner-up to brother Rolf in singles; Mrs. Corrine Blake, ladies singles

Gil Hodges On Bench

Los Angeles—(UPI)—Manager Walt Alston, seeking some solution for the Dodgers' lack of hitting in the clutches, today announced he was benching veteran first baseman Gil Hodges temporarily in the hope the rest will restore his batting power.

The proposed change was disclosed by Alston as the Dodgers left for Philadelphia and an eastern road swing that lasts until July 3.

"I haven't lost confidence in Hodges," Alston stressed, "but even he knows he's not hitting and I thought a little rest might help him regain the hitting that has helped the Dodgers for so many years."

While Hodges is resting, his place will probably be taken by Steve Bilko, just acquired from Cincinnati.

17-Year-Old In Big Upset

Wimbledon, England—(UPI)—Christine Truman, gangling, 17-year-old English tennis prodigy, scored a stunning 2-6, 6-3, 6-4 upset over Wimbledon champion Althea Gibson Saturday and led Britain to its first Wightman cup victory over the United States since 1930.

Ann Haydon achieved the clincher for England when she defeated Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif., 6-3, 5-7, 6-3 before an overjoyed crowd of 5,000 which watched the matches on the famed center court at Wimbledon.

An anti-climatic 6-4, 3-6, 6-3 doubles victory by Miss Gibson and Janet Hopp of Seattle, Wash., over Ann Shilcock and Pat Ward in the finale of the 1958 series simply set the final margin of Britain's victory at 4 matches to 3.

Bonus Baby Hits Top Pay

San Francisco—(UPI)—Rich Berry, the most sought after high school baseball player in the west, Saturday signed a New York Yankee contract for a bonus "between $50,000 and $60,000."

Berry, who graduated from Berkeley high school Friday night, is a 6 foot 4 inch right-handed first baseman. He is 17-year-old and weighs 190 pounds.

He was signed by Scout Tony Robello and will be sent to the Modesto club of the Class C California league.

Bonus Baby Hits Top Pay

Portland—(UPI)—Second baseman Alex Cosmidis of Rochester of the International league was acquired by the Portland Beavers in a straight trade for second baseman Wally Lammers. Cosmidis hit .277 for Dallas in the Texas league last year, driving in 59 runs. He also participated in 114 double plays.

Detroit Blanks Yanks Twice On Sunday; 1st Twin Shutout Of New York in 11 Seasons

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press International
Look out they warned rookie manager Bill Norman of the Detroit Tigers — the Yankees will getcha if you don't watch out.

But Norman, a crusty gent who doesn't scare easily, defiantly led his tattered team into Yankee Stadium for a four-game series and now he has the rest of the American league wondering how he does it—because the Tigers swept all four games, including 2-0 and 3-0 shutouts on Sunday.

That's merely the first time that the Yankees were shut out twice in one day in 11 years—since the A's did it on Memorial Day, 1947. They were blanked only twice all last season.

The Yankees still lead the league by a comfortable seven games, but it's plain that they would be out of sight altogether if it weren't for the Tigers. Pitcher Frank Lary, who finds the mighty Yankees usually just a bunch of pin-striped pushovers, tied up the league leaders on just four hits in the opening game. Jim Bunning followed right up in the nightcap with a five-hitter, fanning eight batters.

Chief victims of the double humiliation were the ace Yankee righthanders, Don Larsen and Bob Turley.

Sox Take Two
But this wasn't the only double-shutout performance in the majors Sunday. It was matched at Baltimore where Jim Wilson of the Chicago White Sox beat the Orioles in a two-hitter 3-0 and Dick Donovan followed with a 4-0 seven-hitter.

In other Sunday games Cleveland swept two from Washington, 5-3, 4-2; Kansas City drubbed Boston twice 17-6, 9-4; Cincinnati swept the Chicago Cubs 7-0, 4-2; Milwaukee nipped St. Louis, 4-2; San Francisco downed Philadelphia, 3-1; and Pittsburgh crushed Los Angeles, 12-1.

Both Baltimore hits yielded by Wilson were singles and he issued no walks. Since both runners were cut down on the basepaths, the much-travelled Wilson faced only the minimum 27 batters. A solo homer by Jim Landis and a two-run blast by Jim Rivera gave him all the runs he needed. Sherman Lollar supplied Donovan's chief support in the nightcap by driving in three runs with a bases-loaded double.

Reliever Hoyt Wilhelm saved both wins for the Indians, appearing in the ninth inning of the opener and the seventh inning of the nightcap. Mickey Vernon, who had two other hits, produced the winning margin in the first game with a two-run homer. Homers by Preston Ward and Rocky Colavito led the Cleveland attack in the nightcap.

A's Get 29 Hits
The A's, beaten by Boston six straight times, exploded with 29 hits in sweeping their first doubleheader of the year as Bob Cerv set the pace with a homer, his 17th, and three triples. Chico Carrasquel had five hits in the opener and two more in the nightcap. Ralph Terry won the opening game and Duke Maas, later traded to the Yankees, took the second.

Harvey Haddix pitched a seven-hitter to give the Redlegs their opening game shut-out win at Chicago as Pete Whisenant led his support by driving in five runs with a homer and a double. Johnny Klippstein saved the nightcap with two-hit pitching over the last four innings.

The Braves, trailing 2-0 after Joe Cunningham's two-run homer for the Cards, scored a single run in the eighth inning and then won with three in the ninth, the last two coming on a homer by .169 hitter Harry Hanebrink.

Al Worthington, making his first start in nearly two months, pitched a complete eight-hitter for the Giants, yielding just one unearned run. In his support, Jim Daventport twice singled to drive in Felipe Alou and Alou drove in the other run with a double.

The Pirates scored five runs in the second inning and six in the fifth in routing the Dodgers. They socked three homers off Don Newcombe in the second inning, including Frank Thomas' 20th, and also one by winning pitcher Vernon Law.

Suggs Cops Golf Toga

Marblehead, Mass.—(UPI)—Louise Suggs called on the prowess which gave her two goldfom crowns 11 years ago to surge from behind and capture the second of her Triangle Round Robin tournaments.

Miss Suggs, a 32-year-old links veteran from Sea Island, Ga., became the first woman Sunday to grab two Round Robin titles. She collected 21 points in the fifth and final round at Tedesco country club to pass Marlene Hage of Dallas, Tex.

A flashing 35-stroke last-nine stretch gave Miss Suggs a final 18-hole 76 and a total of 51 points for the five rounds, two better than Mrs. Hage, who had the lowest stroke total of 370. Miss Suggs' stroke 71, 74, 79, and two 76's for a 376 total over the five rounds.

Jerry Mowlds, Smith Deadlock

Vancouver, Wash.—(UPI)—Jerry Mowlds of the University of Portland and Bob Smith, Waverly Country club, Portland, tied at 217 strokes to share first place honors in the windup of the 5-hole Royal Oaks Invitational golf tournament here Sunday. Both scores were one-over-par for the Royal Oaks course.

The two will meet in a playoff next Sunday to decide the winner.

Inglewood—(UPI)—Hillsdale, the colt brought west to catch the fast tracks he likes, came up with his second straight stakes win Saturday, capturing the $27,450 El Dorado handicap for three-year-olds at Hollywood park by better than a length.

Women's Golf

Twenty-four women from Rogue Valley Country club are entered in the Willamette Valley-Southern Oregon Women's Golf association tournament on Wednesday, June 18, at Grants Pass Country club.

The 18-hole affair will be duplicated at Bend in July and at Medford in August.

Participating clubs this week end are Eugene, Laurelwood of Eugene, Coos, Roseburg, Reames of Klamath Falls, Corvallis, Bend, Grants Pass and Rogue Valley.
