Vancouver Widens Spread To 3 Games

By MIKE HUDSON
United Press International

Vancouver moved three full games ahead of Phoenix in the Pacific Coast league scramble as Salt Lake pounded out a pair of victories over the Arizonans while the Mounties split a pair with Seattle.

Last week's play saw both fourth-place Salt Lake and the second-place Giants hurt themselves in a homer-spattered series which the Bees captured four to three.

Meanwhile, the Mounties defeated Seattle five times out of seven and third-place San Diego gained the most ground of all by sweeping a seven-game series from the hapless Sacramentot Solons.

Padres On Move

The Padres are now a mere four and one-half games off the top.

Salt Lake outfielder Jim McDaniel drove in eight runs as the Bees took the Giants 7-3 and 9-8. He battered three home runs while erratic Dick Stuart bombed his 26th homer in the second game.

Fred Green and Eddie O'Brien picked up the wins for the Bees. Thirteen round-trippers were hit in the two games between a pair of the most colorful clubs the Coast loop has seen in recent years.

Pitching dominated the Mountie-Ranier twin bill. Veteran Max Surkont stopped the loop leaders in the first game with a five-hitter. Seattle won 4 to 2. Mountie ace Erv Palica receipted for his second loss against six wins.

Out At Home

Mel Held won the second contest for Vancouver. The final score was 3 to 1 and left Held with five wins against three losses. Turning point came in the third inning when the Rainiers' Vida Pinson tripled in a run, but was thrown out trying to score himself.

Barry Shetrone homered for the winners.

San Diego steamrolled Sacramento 3-2 and 7-2. Bud Podbelian won the opener in the ninth inning, Nippy Jones and Clayton Dalrymple connected for successive solo round-trippers for Sacramento, but it was too little and too late.

Lary Coasts To Win

Gene Lary coasted to a win in the second contest after the Padres scored five runs in the fourth inning. Stu Locklin's double did the heaviest damage during the frame.

Spokane banged out 11 hits in downing Portland 4-2 in a single contest. Jim Gentile and Norm Sherry collected two hits each. Reliever Bob Millikan was the winner. The victory moved Spokane into fifth and dropped Portland to sixth.

Camp Whiters Slap Kubs, Butte Falls

Lopsided scores marked the opening of the Rogue Valley Baseball league slate yesterday.

Camp White drubbed Butte Falls 27 to 0 and Cave Junction trounced Prospect 25 to 1.

The Camp Whiters posted another victory over the week end, beating the Klamath Kubs at Klamath Falls on Saturday 8 to 6.

Yesterday afternoon at Butte Falls, the Veterans Administration domiciliary team took advantage of 20 hits and 11 walks from home team hurlers. Jim Eggers and Jim Smith pitched a six-hitter between them and struck out 12 for Camp White, which had six, five and eight-run innings.

For the victors Pete Hale had four safe blows, Wayne Allen three and Ron Peery, Don Wendt, Vern Parent, Chuck Mairchant and Jim Curry each two. Hale smacked two doubles and Wendt and Parent tripled.

Runs Bunched

Camp White bunched most of its markers in the second and fifth innings, with four and three tallies, to top the Kubs. Don Sanford, Whiter chucker, was hit hard in the first inning when he gave up a triple, double and single, but was tougher over the rest of a nine-hitter job. He struck out 13 and walked just one over the nine frames.

Bob Smith with three hits and Pete Hale, Clyde Smith and Don Sanford each with three safeties paced the Veterans Administration domiciliary-sponsored club's offensive.

The second inning Camp White markers were on singles by Wayne Allen, Hale and Chuck Mairchant, a walk and three errors. In the fifth Hale and Sanford each two-baggered and there were four bases on balls.

Three Kub runs tallied in the first inning when Scott Hartley singled, Fran Miller three-based and Dorm Martin two - baggered. Hanson had three safeties for Klamath and Hartley two.

Cheney Baseballers Smother Lakeview

When the Central Point Cheney Studs American Legion junior baseball team opposed Medford Crater Lake Motors on Tuesday evening at Cheney field here, they expect much tougher opposition than they encountered at the local park on Saturday.

While Pete Stemple was twirling a nine-strikeout no-hit no-run effort, Lakeview pitchers, five of them, had bushels of trouble finding the plate. They walked 24 batters and hit three others in four innings. Central Point collected eight hits and the overall result was a 29 to 0 Cheney Stud verdict.

Nineteen of the CP runs crossed the plate in the second inning on six hits, 12 bases on balls, two hit batters and three errors. Seven runs went on the board in the first frame on one hit, five walks, a hit batter, two errors and a sacrifice.

Three on Base

Only three runners reached the basepaths against Stemple, all on walks. Two of them got as far as second base, on a stolen base and an error. Another was caught by Catcher Phil Tucker on a try to swipe second.

Harley Dickerson doubled and tripled for the Studs in two official batting turns and Stemple helped the cause with two for two.

Andy McDonald issued 11 of the walks to Cheney players in two innings.

Tuesday's game will be at 8 p.m. and Central Point will be host for the tussle. It will be the first district encounter between the two aggregations. They met in a non-counter more than a week ago, with Medford winning 8 to 4.

Von McDaniel Dropped To B

St. Louis — (UPI) — Von McDaniel has dropped another rung on the baseball ladder — one year after he made his major league debut with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Optioned to Houston of the Texas league last month by the Cardinals, the 19-year-old right-hander was transferred Friday to Winston-Salem of the Class B Carolina league.

McDaniel, signed to a $50,000 bonus contract by the Cardinals, made his major league debut against the Philadelphia Phillies on June 13, 1957. He won his first game three days later against the Dodgers and finished his rookie year with a 7-5 record.

BOLT HITS SUNNY SKIES

Ruidodo, N. M.—(UPI)—Veterinarians said today that all will be well with Sunny Skies, a thoroughbred who didn't get to run in the seventh race here Sunday. Sunny Skies was hit by a bolt of lightning.

New York—(UPI)—Frankie Ryff, speedy New York lightweight, is favored at 13-5 to beat stubby Tommy Tibbs of Boston tonight in their 10-round TV fight at St. Nicholas arena.

LA Dodgers Trade Newcombe to Reds

Los Angeles — (UPI) — The Los Angeles Dodgers came up with a major deal only 62 minutes before the deadline on the West Coast when they sent pitcher Don Newcombe to the Cincinnati Redlegs for first-baseman Steve Bilko, pitcher Johnny Klippstein and cash.

Newcombe, a 27-game winner in 1956 hadn't won a single game this year for the Dodgers.

Report that Newcombe was trade bait have recurred frequently since the Dodgers picked up and moved to the West Coast.

As part of the deal, Cincinnati optioned pitcher Charlie Rabe to the Dodgers' Montreal club of the International league.

Pitcher Don Bessen was placed on Los Angeles' disabled list at the same time. He has a sore arm.

In other trades which included reshuffling of 19 players before the trading deadline, the Yankees acquired Duke Maas and veteran right-hander Virgil Trucks from the Kansas City Athletics for reliever Bob Grim and first baseman - outfielder Harry (Suitcase) Simpson.

Yankees Strengthen

American Leogue observers generally agreed the Yankees strengthened their bullpen appreciably with the addition of Maas, a 10-game winner with Detroit last year, and Trucks, who won nine.

In addition, the Yankees recalled pitcher Zack Monroe from Denver of the American association.

In addition to their swap with the Yanks, the A's also obtained outfielder Roger Maris, first baseman Preston Ward and pitcher Dick Tomanek from Cleveland for first baseman Vic Power and outfielder Woody Held.

The White Sox, looking high and low for a third baseman now that Bubba Phillips is sidelined with a leg injury, got one from the Tigers Sunday with the acquisition of 34-year-old Ray Boone plus pitcher Bob Shaw in exchange for outfielder Tito Francona and pitcher Bill Fischer.

Pittsburgh sent Gene Freese and Johnny O'Brien to St. Louis for former bonus player Dick Schofield, who will serve as understudy for Dick Groat at shortstop.

Moyer Opposes Peter Mueller

Portand—(UPI)—Phil Moyer, unbeaten Portland middleweight, goes after his 11th straight professional ring victory tonight when he battles Germany's Peter Mueller in a 10-rounder here.

Medfordites Divide KF Legion Tangles; Play Studs Tuesday

Medford Crater Lake Motors dropped its district American Legion junior baseball opener to Klamath Falls 7 to 2 on the Klamath field yesterday but came back to salvage a 4 to 2 in the five-inning non-counter second tussle.

The Motormen in the opener collected nine hits off KF pitcher Blake Griggs but couldn't make use of them except in the second inning for run production. Griggs fanned 11 Medfordites and walked two. Klamath ran up three runs each in the fourth and fifth innings to cop its first league hassle.

Herb Wheeler, who has moved to Medford from Prospect, was pitcher for Crater Lake in the second hassle. He whiffed just one batter and walked two but limited the Pelican city club to three hits. Medford had a three-run inning to take the game.

Grants Pass pounded Lakeview yesterday to take top place in district standings with a 2-0 record. Central Point whipped Lakeview by 29 to 0 on Saturday night in league play.

Studs Hosts

Medford and Central Point continue league play on Tuesday night at Cheney field at the south edge of town. The CP Studs will be home team for the game set for 8 p.m.

The Motor team got its two runs in the game on Sunday on singles by Ken Durkee, Wayne Thompson and Ray Konopasek. Klamath's three in the fourth were on a triple by Bill Worlein two walks, a single by Rich Moore, a double steal, a single stolen base and an error. In the fifth the Klamath gained markers on hits by Griggs, Worlein and Dunson, a triple by Tigard, a fielder's option, a wild pitch and steal.

Durkee, Thompson and Bob Quinney had two hits for Medford and Worlein two for KF with Thompson among those three-bagging. Dennis pitching five innings for Medford, walked two and struck out nine.

In the finale Medford's three-run inning was on singles by Dick Ragsdale and Garland Lowery, two walks, a stolen base. Double steal by Herb Wheeler and Ragsdale, and Ragsdale and Konopasek and a squeeze bunt by Quinney. The other run was in the fifth inning when Ragsdale and Quinney each doubled.

Klamath used a single by Paul Bishop, a fielders option, a twin-steal and an error for two runs in the third inning.

Ragsdale hit two for two.

International First Division Increases Gap

United Press International

The gap between the first and second divisions in the International league is growing bigger as the clubs near the halfway mark of the season.

In Sunday's action, league-leading Montreal won a doubleheader from Miami, 7-2 and 9-4; second-place Toronto took two from Havana, 7-3, and 91; third-place Rochester swept Richmond, 6-2 and 5-1; and Buffalo defeated Columbus, 4-1, in the nightcap after the Jets took the opener, 6-2.

Columbus, which occupies the fourth and last playoff spot, now owns a four and a half game lead over fifth-place Havana.
