

Cards Outscramble Redlegs 6-5 in 11 Innings Monday

United Press International
The St. Louis Cardinals may yet catch the Milwaukee Braves but Manager Frank Robinson wishes they'd stop trying to do it the hard way.

A 460 pace since May 7 has brought the Cardinals back from their 3-16 start into a tie for fourth place in the National league. That's the best pace of any NL team over the five-week period but it's been like pulling teeth all the way.

For one thing, the Cardinals' starting pitchers aren't winning. Only the erratic but surprisingly successful relief work of Morris Martin, Billy Muffett and Phil Paine, 3-2 combined, has saved the staff from buckling altogether.

Another One-Run Decision
And, for another, the Cardinals are next-to-last in scoring runs and in hitting homers. Yet the team stands 27-27 for the season with no less than 12 of the victories by one-run margins.

There was more of the "heart-stopping" for Hutchinson Monday night when the Cardinals outscrambled the Cincinnati Redlegs, 6-5, in 11 innings.

Cincinnati's Joe Nuxhall carried a 3-1 lead into the ninth but the Cardinals tied it on pinch-hitter Joe Cunningham's two-run single. Then the Redbirds pushed over three runs in the top of the 11th for an apparently easy victory only to have the Redlegs rally for two in the last of the 11th and force Hutchinson to go to the bull pen for the fourth time of the night.

Eddie Kasko, whose error helped the Redlegs take a 3-1 lead in the sixth, doubled in the final two St. Louis runs in the 11th. Don Rysingame broke the 3-3 tie with a single.

The three-run margin appeared to be more than enough for Morris Martin who did gain credit for his third win, but the ex-Brooklyn lefty never retired a batter in the 11th. Burgess singled and Gus Bell homered whereupon Hutchinson signalled for Jackson, who has won two of his five decisions in relief, retired the side in order.

Tom Acker, fourth Cincinnati pitcher, suffered his second defeat without a victory.

The Redleg-Cardinal game was the only one in the majors Monday but the Chicago Cubs got a brilliant performance from their newly signed bonus pitcher Dick Ellsworth in an exhibition game with the Chicago White Sox.

Ellsworth, an 18-year-old left-hander from Fresno High school, pitched a four-hitter. Pinch-hitter Walt Moryn singled home the winning run

Rainiers Bounce Up In League Standing

By United Press International
The Seattle Rainiers, who have been bouncing in and out of the Pacific Coast league cellar all season, bounced upward Monday night as they defeated Salt Lake City, 7-4, in the only game played in the loop.

The two teams met again tonight, while Vancouver opens at Portland, Phoenix plays Sacramento, and Spokane visits San Diego.

Seattle's victory Monday night moved the Rainiers into sixth place by a few percentage points over Portland, although they are still behind the Beavers by half a game.

Only one game separates the four teams of the second division but they are at least eight games behind the fourth place Salt Lake Bees.

Salt Lake's biggest crowd of the season, 6,627, was disappointed as Seattle got 3 hits off Bee pitching. Jimmy Dyck led the attack with a homer, double single and sacrifice fly

CONTRACT INKED
Pittsburgh —(UPI)—Art Davis, of Mississippi State, the Pittsburgh Steelers' No. 1 draft choice in 1956, has returned his signed 1958 contract to the National Football league club. Davis, hampered by injuries last season, currently is serving in the Army at Ft. Eustis, Va., but will be released in time to join the club in the fall.

for the Cubs after they filled the bases on walks to Cal Neeman, Ellsworth and Tony Taylor. Rookie Bob Shaw was the loser.

East goes west in the American league in tonight's all-night game schedule while the west invades east in the National league. In the AL it's Boston at Chicago, Washington at Detroit, New York at Cleveland, Baltimore at Kansas City. In the NL it's San Francisco at Pittsburgh, Los Angeles at Philadelphia, Chicago at Milwaukee and St. Louis at Cincinnati.

But the two races he won in the NCAA championships on the University of California track will remain indelible in my mind as long as I live.

First Effort
His first effort was the mile race where he was supposed to have a tough time with Don Bowden, the Californian who has been clocked in 3:57.7. Bowden took the lead in a bully, 14-man field, with Delany running as far back as 10th place at times, at least 30 yards behind the leader.

The California lad led for the first three quarters, with Delany making no apparent effort to narrow the gap. With 400 yards still to go Ron still was mired in the pack, far back.

Then, as if getting new power from some place, he started to turn on the heat with 300 yards to go. At that time Jim Grelle of Oregon and Gail Hodgson of Oklahoma were overtaking Bowden. But Delany came rushing down the outside, the roar of the crowd urging him on. He caught Grelle and Hodgson heading into the home stretch and won by 10 yards. His time of 4:03.5 was a new NCAA meet record.

Davis Sets Record
Right after that the world mark in the 440 was smashed by Glen Davis of Ohio State, but the hand he received was nothing compared with what Delany got after winning the half mile an hour later.

There were nine running in this event and for more than half the distance, Delany ran in last place. With 200 yards to go he called on that reserve power again, just as the announcer yelled: "And here comes Delany."

The pace was fast for a man who had just run a mile, but Ron was just that much better than the competition. Once again he collared his foes at the head of the stretch. Then his superior conditioning and stronger heart told the tale. He won again.

When he walked off the track after trotting around to "cool out," he was given an ovation by the 16,000 fans that he'll have to remember the rest of his days, too. It lasted for a full three minutes and it kept growing and growing until it became a mighty roar.

Finally, with a bashful grin, Delany turned to the crowd and waved a fond farewell as he picked up his sweat suit and jogged off the field—a 100 per cent success in the final collegiate meet of a great career.

Champ Miler Runs Race Horse Style

By HAL WOOD

San Francisco —(UPI)—If pari-mutuel betting was allowed on the nation's mile runners (homo sapiens) the darling of the $2 plungers would have to be Ron Delany, the black-haired Irishman from Villanova.

Delany wound up a brilliant collegiate career at Berkeley Saturday by winning the mile and the half-mile events—one of the great "doubles" in track and field history—in the NCAA championships.

The Irishman, who has returned to his home, isn't sure he'll come back to this country again. But it is possible. But if he never returns, the fans around the track and field circuit won't forget him.

He has rightly been called the "Silky Sullivan of the Milers," the "Come From Behind Kid," etc.

It's very easy to tie up Delany with horse racing. He has a choppy stride, with big ham-hands swinging wildly. His head bobs up and down at every step, just like a jockey.

I've seen Delany in many races including his 1500-meter triumph in the Olympic games at Melbourne, where he came steaming up the outside with his usual finishing kick, to win going away.

Kid Gavilan, Bahama Vie Wednesday

New York —(UPI)—Betting is at "even money" for what shapes up as the fight of the week between ex-welterweight champion Kid Gavilan and Yama Baham, 25, at the Miami Beach Auditorium Wednesday night.

Their 10-rounder will be televised nationally by ABC. Cuban Gavilan, 32, is still campaigning for another shot at the 147-pound crown. In two bouts this year he lost a decision to middleweight Ralph (Tiger) Jones but beat him in a return engagement.

Bahama, from the island of Bimini, B.W.I., won three straight bouts this year on decisions over Amen Peck and Ray Sheppard and a technical knockout over Clarence Robinson.

Rated Sixth
Gavilan is rated sixth among contenders, Bahama is unranked. The Cuban 106-29-6 record includes 28 knockouts. Bahama's 48-8-2 includes 16 kayoes.

Friday night's TV-radio (NBC) 10-rounder brings together heavyweights Mike DeJohn and Bob Baker at Syracuse, N.Y. Each big fellow was formerly a ranking contender. DeJohn of Syracuse, 26, is favored at 7-5 because of his punch. Baker, 31, hasn't fought this year. In DeJohn's one start in 1958, he lost a split decision to seventh-ranked Nino Valdes.

DeJohn's 34-4-1 record includes 25 knockouts; Baker's 50-11-1 includes 19. The week's boxing schedule includes:

Tuesday — Richmond, Calif. — Willie Vaughn vs. Hank Casey; San Bernardino, Calif. — Dwight Hawkins vs. Nache Escalante; Chicago — Carlo Sarlo vs. Jerry Jordan; Boise, Idaho — Jimmy Martinez vs. Dale Manz.

Wednesday — Miami Beach, Fla. — Kid Gavilan vs. Yama Baham, TV; Thursday — Los Angeles — Davey Moore vs. Lauro Salas; Charleroi, Pa. — Charley Joseph vs. Bobby Gordon; Omaha, Neb. — Joey Parks vs. Danny Davis.

Friday — Syracuse, N.Y. — Mike DeJohn vs. Bob Baker, TV; Stockholm, Sweden — Ingemar Johansson vs. Heinz Nehaus.

Saturday — Hollywood, Calif. — Tomstone Smith vs. Armando Muniez; New York Parkway — Joe Torres vs. Joe Salvato.

USC Meets Holy Cross Today. In College World Series

Omaha, Neb. —(UPI)—A team that lost its top pitcher through an NCAA eligibility ruling, but won three straight College World Series baseball games on the strength of its pitching, goes against Western Michigan tonight.

Doug Gulick, who zoomed into the top pitching slot when Ernie Nevers was declared ineligible, was expected to start for Missouri. Dick Sosnowski, another second-stringer who suddenly found himself in the spotlight, takes the hill for the Broncos.

Power-hitting Southern California squares off with Holy Cross for the second time in the double elimination tournament.

Barudoni To Start
Jim Barudoni was tapped to start for the Trojans against Holy Cross' Hal Deitz, who blanked USC, 3-0, Saturday in the initial round. Barudoni pitched only the last frame in the opener.

Missouri's angular Elmer (Bud) Harbin spread five hits across five innings Monday night while the Tigers pounded out 11 hits and sailed to a 4-1 win.

Bill Winegar's two-run homer in the last of the ninth powered Western Michigan past Clemson out of the meet.

Southern California bounced Colorado State College out of the 12th annual college classic with a 15-hit attack for a 12-1 win.

Bob Blakeslee held Colorado State College to a pair of singles as the Trojans shelled two Bear pitchers for hits in every inning but the third.

Mike Blewett bounced two triples off the boards while Mike Costanon connected for a triple and two singles and Rex Johnston had three singles.

Johnston remained in the game although he smashed into the wire fence along the right-field foul line while making a brilliant catch.

The Cubs scored their lone run in the eighth inning off Bob Shaw, recently acquired by the White Sox from the Detroit Tigers.

Brazil's airports increased from 140 to 270 in five years.
