

Milwaukee Bounces Cubs 6-3 For Fifth Win in Six Games

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
The Milwaukee Braves, who weren't hurt while they marked time for a month, appear to be making a big move to crack open the National League race.

Only 13-14 from May 10 to June 10, the Braves reeled off their fifth victory in six games Tuesday night when they beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-3 and went 2½ games ahead of the fading San Francisco Giants. With 20 more games at home before they hit the road again, the defending world champions suddenly have stepped into a spot to take command of the race.

And perhaps it's no coincidence, that Lew Burdette, the World Series hero who discovered the rubber chicken circuit can be tougher than pitching against the New York Yankees, went the distance for the win. It was Burdette's fifth win of the year and his first since May 22.

The Giants, dropping fast after their early-season heroics, were beaten, 6-1, by the Pittsburgh Pirates, the St. Louis Cardinals topped the Cincinnati Redlegs, 10-4, with six runs in the ninth inning and the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Los Angeles Dodgers 9-6 in the other NL tilts.

Yanks Win
In the American league the New York Yankees snapped their four-game losing streak as Whitey Ford beat the Cleveland Indians, 4-0, the Detroit Tigers made it seven of eight under Bill Norman with a 9-2 triumph over the Washington Senators. The Chicago White Sox downed the Boston Red Sox, 4-0 and the Baltimore Orioles scored a 4-1 victory over the Kansas City A's.

Burdette was tagged for nine hits and in trouble most of the way but the Braves ran up an early lead as Frank Torre, Harry Hembink and Johnny Logan knocked in two runs each. The defeat went to Moe Drabowski, who lost his fourth straight decision of the season to the world champions.

Triples by Ted Kluszewski, Roman Mejias, and Bill Viron sparked a five-run second-inning rally that carried the Pirates to their sixth win in nine games. Curt Raydon went eight innings for his second victory while Johnny Antonelli lost his fifth decision.

Redlegs Lose
Joe Cunningham and Stan Musial tripled in a six-run ninth as the Cardinals beat the Redlegs for the second straight time. Relief pitcher Phil Paine won his third straight game for the Cardinals while ex-Redbird Willard Schmidt suffered his second defeat for Cincinnati. Ken Boyer hit two homers and Curt Flood one for St. Louis. The Phillies staged a six-run rally in the eighth to hand relief ace Clem Labine his second loss and return Jack Sanford the winner although Dick Farrell pitched the ninth.

Ford restored the Yankees lead to eight games as he won his seventh straight decision and eighth of the year with the help of a three-run homer by Bill Skowron.

Ossie Virgil, first Negro to play for the Tigers, had a double and four singles in his five trips to the plate to lead Detroit's 17-hit attack. Billy Hoelt fanned six and walked only one to win his sixth game for the Tigers who climbed to within one game of the 500-mark. Frank Bolling and Al Kaline homered.

Billy Pierce ran the White Sox' string of shutout innings to 33 with a five-hitter that handed the Red Sox their third straight loss. Jim Landis had a triple and single and Ray Boone singled home one run for Chicago.

Billy O'Dell pitched a five-hitter for his seventh victory for the Orioles whose attack was paced by Gus Triandos' three hits. Ray Herbert lost his second game for the A's.

Beavers Show Spark By Nipping Mounties

BY JAMES J. HEALY
United Press International

The Portland Beavers, last year's Pacific Coast league doormats, showed a spark of life Tuesday night as they struggled into fifth place by whipping Vancouver, 6-5, in a game which was remarkable only for the 22 hits it produced.

Portland scored in the first frame when Willy Moore tripled and came home on a single. But that lead was short-lived as the Mounties tied it up in the next inning, then surged ahead in the third on a three run homer by Joe Durham and three singles, the last of which brought in George Bamberger.

The Beavers tied it up in the fourth, however, with two homers of their own. George Freese banged out the first one with none on and Jack Littrell collected a round tripper with Luis Marquez on first. The Beavers sewed it up in the sixth frame on a walk, a sacrifice and two singles that brought in Freese. The hit total, Portland 22, Vancouver 10.

Wenatchee Hurler Has Win No. 10

United Press International

One pitching gem, one hitting binge and one last-ditch rally highlighted Tuesday night's Northwest league baseball action.

At Wenatchee, lefty Claude Osteen notched his 10th victory of the year with a four-hitter as Wenatchee clipped league-leading Lewiston, 6-1. Osteen fanned 10 to run his total for the season to 123. He retired 20 men in order from the third inning on until Bruce McIntosh broke the string with a single with two out in the ninth.

Wenatchee sewed it up early with three runs in the first frame with the big blow a two-run homer by Red Helms.

Tri-City went on the hitting spree, collecting 19 bingles as the Braves swamped Salem 15-1. The Braves collected 10 runs in the fourth frame and it was all over for the Oregonians.

Yakima pulled the ninth inning heroics with Rufus Johnson belting a two-run homer good for a 4-3 victory over Eugene.

Eugene broke a 2-2 tie with a single run in the ninth but in the Yakima half of the inning, Herm Lewis singled, moved to second on a sacrifice and the ball game was in the bag when Johnson unloaded his home run over the center field fence.

Bob Cleboski, who came on in relief in the ninth, was the Yakima winner.

In San Diego, the Padres kept their toehold on third place while collecting their 10th straight win in a 10-inning game.

San Diego grabbed an early two run lead with two walks and two singles. The Indians' Jim Baxes evened things out in the fourth with his two run homer. But despite another run in the final inning San Diego steamed back with two singles and a double to ice the contest.

Wildlife Group In Favor of 2 Game Agencies

Bend—(UPI)—The Oregon Wildlife Federation, at its semi-annual convention here Saturday and Sunday, voted in favor of separate fish and game commissions in Oregon and reaffirmed its support of "the general principle of defining" Oregon steelhead as a game fish.

Delegates turned down a resolution for merger of the state fish and game commissions into a single organization.

T. S. Sandoz, president of the Columbia River Packers association, told the group that efforts to make Oregon steelhead a game fish was a "direct blow aimed at the commercial fishing industry."

The industry, he said, is a resource "valuable not only to us but to all the people of the state and nation."

Joint Committee
Acting upon a Sandoz proposal, delegates called for the formation of a joint committee of the Wildlife Federation and representatives of commercial fishing interests to arbitrate issues of conflict.

Phil Schneider, director of the Oregon Game Department, told the convention in a banquet address that the No. 1 issues facing wildlife conservators is "the existing and pending" hydroelectric developments in the Northwest.

Charles S. Collins, Roseburg, was installed as new Federation president, succeeding Bruce Yeager, also of Roseburg. Roshal Groves was reinstalled as treasurer and Jack Williams was installed as the new secretary. The officers were elected at the January meeting.

New York state law requires that all boats powered by inboard or outboard motors be registered and that they display the assigned identification numbers.

Two of the 26 seats in the Senate of Northern Ireland are held for the Lord Mayor of Belfast and the Mayor of Londonderry.

In San Diego, the Padres kept their toehold on third place while collecting their 10th straight win in a 10-inning game.

San Diego grabbed an early two run lead with two walks and two singles. The Indians' Jim Baxes evened things out in the fourth with his two run homer. But despite another run in the final inning San Diego steamed back with two singles and a double to ice the contest.
