

ASSASSINATED — South Carolina State Sen. Paul A. Wallace was shot and killed as he watched primary election returns at the sheriff's office in Bennettsville, S.C. His killer, County Clerk of Courts Henry Rogers, a former associate of Wallace, was apprehended on the spot.

4-H CLUB NEWS

Talent 4-H Club
A Talent 4-H club meeting and executive meeting were held May 21 and June 11, respectively. Main topic of both meetings was the Talent fair on June 28.

General chairmen for the fair are: food, Mrs. Jo Howell; pop stand, Mrs. Ann James; set-up, Merle Cook; and publicity, Janet Zediker and Carolyn Tiegs. In charge of the entire fair is Stan Zapell, community chairman.

A workday has been set for Friday, June 27. Selection of judges has been completed. Lunch will be served. Taking care of announcing and distributing ribbons will be the job of President Dean Sommer and other older members.

The fair will start at 9:30 with sheep showmanship, followed by livestock and home economics judging contests. Poultry is next and just before lunch a steer weight guessing contest will be held. Beef fitting and showmanship and rabbits are right after lunch. The day will be completed with dairy showmanship.

SUICIDE IN JAPAN

Tokyo — (UPI) — A suicide occurred in Japan at the rate of one every 24 seconds last year, the Welfare Ministry on Population reported today. The announcement said 21,900 persons took their own lives during 1957 to make suicide the No. 10 killer in Japan. Nervous breakdowns, family troubles and boredom were listed as major causes, the report said.
