

Dominica Rejects U.S. Aid, Right To Operate Bases

Ciudad Trujillo, D.R.—(UPI) The Dominican Congress, irked by American criticism, has voted to reject $600,000 worth of U.S. military aid and to revoke America's right to operate missile-tracking and radio-navigation stations in the Republic.

Both houses of the Legislature adopted a resolution urging these actions on the government Wednesday, about 24 hours after it had ordered 30 Dominicans attending U.S. military schools to return home.

The anti-American gesture was a reaction to recent criticism inspired by reports of free spending by Lt. Gen. Rafael Trujillo Jr., son of the strongman who has dominated Dominican politics for 28 years.

Some U.S. congressmen, noting that the $600,000 annual allowance from which young Trujillo bought sports cars and fur coats for such Hollywood beauties as Zsa Zsa Gabor and Kim Novak exactly equalled the sum earmarked as military aid for the Dominican Republic, had suggested a review of the program.

Dominican leaders were incensed in particular by the announcement that young Trujillo had flunked out of the U.S. Command and General Staff college.

The resolution adopted by Congress charged that the equipment this country was to have received under the military-aid program would have been used "exclusively for U.S. interests and its collective security plans."

It is evident that, if the Dominican Republic had not signed a military assistance agreement with the United States, no U.S. congressman would have attacked the Dominican Republic in terms of offensive to the national dignity . . ." the resolution said.

War-time Death Testimony Given

Los Angeles—(UPI)—Thousands of murders in wartime Yugoslavia laid to Andrija Artukovic, 57, really were committed by Communists, according to Tonia Mesic, 46, editor of a Catholic Croatian newspaper of Gary, Ind.

Mesic testified Wednesday at the extradition hearing for Artukovic, accused by Yugoslavia of ordering the death of 200,000 Serbs and Jews while serving as the interior minister of Croatia, a puppet state set up by the Nazis.

The editor produced a 160-page book, showing pictures of what he described as Communist atrocities. Mesic claimed he had proof of the slayings.

Artukovic, father of six now living in Seal Beach near Long Beach, Calif., has fought extradition to Yugoslavia for nearly seven years. He claims he will be killed if sent back.

The hearing was interrupted Wednesday when witnesses refused to testify. They said they were afraid relatives still living in Yugoslavia would be harmed if they did.

State Republicans Critical of Adams

Portland—(UPI)—Oregon Republican leaders continued today to be critical of White House Aide Sherman Adams for his relations with Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine.

Robert T. Mautz, GOP national committeeman for Oregon, and former Gov. Elmo Smith said Adams should resign.

Mautz said that he considered the so-called imprudence of Adams "no different from the influence-peddling of the Truman administration."

Smith said that "in the mind of the public Adams is going to be a liability from now on . . ."

Earlier, State Treasurer Sig Unander said he would move that the GOP State Central Committee censure Adams. Smith said he would not favor such a move. The censure should come from President Eisenhower, he said.

Mautz said he had no way of knowing how the Adams incident would affect the November election. But he said he believed "he should relinquish his position, whether it will affect the election or not."
