

Darland-Beeler Ceremony Held at Catholic Church

Maria Melita Beeler became the bride of E. Gerald Darland in a nuptial mass Saturday, June 14, in Sacred Heart Catholic church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beeler, 610 Whitman place, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Darland, 922 Park street.

The Rev. William McLeod celebrated the marriage ceremony and mass at 11 o'clock in the morning. Tom and Tim Darland, brothers of the bridegroom, were acolytes. About 200 relatives and friends attended.

Mr. Beeler escorted his daughter to the altar. Her wedding gown was bluish pink nylon tulle designed by Cahill and fashioned with scalloped neckline and very full skirt with insets of imported lace. Her veil was held by a crown of shell pink sequins and pearls. She carried a heirloom lace handkerchief loaned by Mrs. B. L. Hunter. The bride's bouquets was a cascade of gardenias. The bouquet was presented to Mrs. Floyd Vogel, close family friend who is ill in Rogue Valley hospital.

Miss Peggy Schnack was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Montgomery, Miss Jeri Callahan and Miss Ann Marie Darland, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Shack wore a bouffant gown of aquamarine taffeta with cummerbund of paler shade. Her headdress was of white braid threaded with pink Ester Reed daisies and she carried a nosegay of white daisies with pink elf roses.

The bridesmaids gowns were of pale aquamarine taffeta with cummerbunds of a darker shade. They also wore the white bridal hats with pink Ester Reed daisies and carried pink daisy nosegays. Little Nancy Tomjack, flower girl, wore a white nylon dress over pink net and taffeta with a coronet of pink tulle and rosebuds. Her miniature bouquet was a duplicate of that carried by the maid of honor.

John Walsh was best man and ushers were Richard Clark, Paul Newcombe and Gregory Beeler, brother of the bride.

Bruno Pellegrini played the wedding music. White gladiolus and daisies decorated the church.

The bride's mother wore a chemise dress of pink lace over pink taffeta with pink accessories and white rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a mint green sheer cotton bolero dress with white accessories and her flowers were pink rosebuds.

The reception was given by the bride's parents at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Harris, 707 South Oakdale avenue.

The guest book was attended by Miss Mary Kay Harris, cousin of the bride. Coffee was poured by Mrs. W. J. Callahan and Mrs. R. B. Montgomery, punch was served by Miss Jo Whitman and Mrs. Ronald Hotchkiss and the wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. E. J. Lindstrom and Mrs. William Barnes. The cake was cut with a heirloom knife loaned by Mrs. Gordon Warner. Mrs. Lester Harris and Mrs. Richard Randolph were hostesses.

The newlyweds spent a few days on the Oregon coast and then left for Los Angeles, where they will make their home. For traveling the bride wore a beige linen suit with white accessories and gardenia corsage.

The bride attended St. Mary's school and Southern Oregon college. In recent months she has been on the staff of Mann's Department store.

The bridegroom, born in Medford, attended St. Mary's school and Southern Oregon college. He is employed by Mobile Service stations, Los Angeles, and plans to attend Los Angeles State college in the fall.

Pre-nuptial parties given for the bride included a shower for which Miss Callahan and Miss Montgomery were hostesses, a luncheon given by Miss Schnack and Miss Darland, a mailing shower and a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. William Barnes and a luncheon by the bridegroom's aunt and her mother, Mrs. Louis Lemire and Mrs. E. R. Hoppe.

In Medford for the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Barbara Anderson, Seattle; the bridegroom's grandmothers, Mrs. Emma Dandland Murphy and Mrs. Eveline M. Lemire, Chico, Calif.; Kenneth and Eugene Hezel, Seattle, cousins of the bride; William A. Kellogg, Hollywood; Mr. and Mrs. Murray Anderson, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lemire, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, Chico; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parents, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Sura and family, Tullake, Calif., all cousins of the bridegroom and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Corey and family, Cottage Grove, Ore., his uncle and aunt.

Gustafson-Taylor Rites Held at Church

Central Point—Miss Phyllis Jean Taylor became the bride of Richard Karl Gustafson in a ceremony held Saturday June 7, at Zion Lutheran church. The Rev. John Hamme of Klamath Falls officiated at the two o'clock afternoon double ring ceremony attended by 125 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, route 1, box 233, Central Point. Mr. Gustafson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gustafson, route 1, Central Point.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white brocade ballerina length frock fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her veil was held by a tiara that had been worn by the bride's mother at her wedding in 1937. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid.

Miss Margaret Taylor was maid of honor for her sister and Miss Carol von der Hellen was bridesmaid. Miss Taylor wore a blue brocade frock and carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses. Miss von der Hellen was in yellow and carried yellow roses.

Candlelighters were Stephen Gustafson, brother of the bridegroom, and David Straus, cousin of the bride.

Thomas Robertson served as best man and Richard Ralls and Leon Evans seated the guests.

Pink roses, white Japanese iris, and pink peonies decorated the church for the wedding. Richard Evans played the traditional organ wedding music.

Many of the articles used at the ceremony had first been used at the wedding of the bride's mother. These included the handkerchief, also carried by Mrs. Olen Arnsperger, grandmother of the bride, in 1909; the bridal dolls on the wedding cake, and the cake knife of the late Mrs. William Warner.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the A. L. Straus home. A white organdy table cloth from France over a pink cloth was on the bridal table and pink and white roses in antique glass goblets were on the various tables in the rooms.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Taylor wore a pale green lace embroidered nylon dress with white accessories and pink rose corsage. Mrs. Gustafson wore a beige linen frock with red accessories and a red corsage.

The bridegroom's mother and Miss Joan Drobot cut the wedding cake and pouring were Misses Jean Bonney and Carolee Brantley. Miss Roberts Willett took charge of the guest book and Miss Katherine Straus the gifts.

The newlywed couple are making their home at 14 Amy street, Central Point, following their return from a wedding trip to Brookings, Ore. For her traveling attire the bride wore a blue Cupioni dress with navy blue duster.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High school. The bridegroom is employed by Eads Transfer company.

Out of town guests at the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bolds and daughter, Margaret, and son Edward, from Vancouver, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. George Hendt, Kalama, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Fred William, all Klamath Falls.

Golden Wedding To Be Observed

Butte Falls—Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Green, Butte Falls, will be honored at a golden wedding reception June 29, Sunday. The event will be held at Community Bible church between two and four o'clock, and friends of the couple are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Green have lived in Jackson county for the past 30 years. The couple's daughter, Mrs. Robert Pechner, will arrive in the valley this week from Salih, Turkey, to be with her parents on the anniversary.

August Wedding Planned by Pair

McIntire - Stacey Rites Held in Medford Church

An event of Sunday, June 15, was the wedding of Miss Florence Harriett Stacey to Terry Eugene McIntire held at First Presbyterian church in Medford. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stacey, East Fairview drive and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McIntire, Salem.

The Rev. John Reynolds officiated for the double-ring ceremony held at three o'clock in the afternoon. About 175 guests attended the wedding ceremony and the reception which followed in the garden of the Stacey home.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon organdy designed on princess lines with lace bodice. The skirt was fashioned with a back bow and chapel length train. The bride carried a cascade of red and pink roses.

Miss Pamela Stacey was honor attendant for her sister and other attendants were Miss Patricia Rukovina, Mrs. Fred Van Beber, cousin of the bride who came from Kansas City, Mo., for the wedding, Miss Joyce Bowen, a sorority sister from Palo Alto, Calif., and Miss Jerri Riedlinger, Milwaukie, Ore.

They wore pink lace sheath frocks with taffeta floating back panels and carried nosegays of red roses.

Robert Bagley, Salem, was best man and ushers were Raymond Terhune, William Cole and William Donaldson, all Salem, and Robert Elfers, Portland, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Stanley Dowson, cousin of the bride, and Scott McIntire, brother of the bridegroom, lighted the candles.

Larry Gentry was soloist. The church was decorated with pink gladiolus for the ceremony.

For the reception Mrs. Dorothy Dowson aunt of the bride and Mrs. William Gibbs cut the wedding cake. Pouring and assisting were Mrs. John Watkins, Mrs. Wilbur McCune, Salem, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Leonard Odem, cousin of the bridegroom from Salem, Miss Sara Hart and Mrs. Darrel Guellette.

Mrs. Stacey wore for her daughter's wedding a gown of aquamarine chiffon, and white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a champagne lace sheath, green hat and green orchid corsage. For traveling the bride wore a blue silk print with black accessories.

Mr. McIntire and his bride motored down the California coast for their honeymoon and will live in San Francisco. The bride was graduated from Medford High school and received her degree from Oregon State college earlier this month. The bridegroom is a graduate of Salem High school and also received his degree from OSC this month. He is employed at the Emporium in San Francisco under the store's executive training program.

The bride is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, and Mr. McIntire's fraternity is Pi Kappa Phi.
