

Lyncheon Honors Former Resident

Mrs. Harry E. (Lois) Young, formerly of Medford, was the house guest of Mrs. Effie Kurtz last week while attending the PEO convention.

Wednesday, Mrs. Kurtz entertained at a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Young at which two other former Medford friends of both were present. They are Mrs. Gray Thompson, Pendleton, Ore., and Mrs. Dorothy Gore Davis, Tacoma, Wash.

Other guests were Mesdames Herbert Sims, M. E. Olson, Wayne Troxell, Mable Sims, Arnold Bohnert, Eloise Winklebleck and Elenor Hamilton, and Miss Joe Kirtley. Mrs. Young returned to her home in Seattle Thursday. She will make a brief stop in Eugene to visit with her son Warren and father, the Rev. Frank Cook.

Texans Arrive For Oregon Stay

Mrs. D. A. Moran and her daughter, Mrs. Eunice Cockrell, Dallas, Tex., are in Medford to visit Mrs. Moran's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pruitt, 629 J street. They are also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pruitt, 1012 South Holly street, and will spend some time while in the west with another son, Glenn Pruitt, Yreka, Calif.

Mrs. Cockrell, the former Eunice Pruitt, attended school in Medford before her marriage.

Medford Nazarene Church Scene of Wedding Service

First Church of the Nazarene was the setting Thursday, June 12, for the 7:30 o'clock evening wedding of Miss Marie Johnson and Harry Maine. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Johnson, 1478 Morrow road, Medford. Mr. Maine is a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Maine, Parma, Idaho.

The Rev. Raymond Hurn officiated at the ceremony attended by 150 relatives and friends. Mrs. Arnold Kornstad played the traditional piano wedding music and accompanied Charles Gorr, George McUne and Mrs. William Brewster, who sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin floor length gown and lace veil. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Marion Anderson was honor attendant for the bride and Miss Marilyn Imelzenbach of South Africa was bridesmaid. They wore lime green nylon chiffon frocks with white accents and carried white Dutch irises. Little Shirley Hughes, Days Creek, was flower girl for her aunt. Candelighters were Rhoda Serry and Cheryl Stewart.

Terrel Samuels, Parma, Idaho, served as best man while Victor Maine, Wallace, Idaho, brother of the bridegroom; Jerry Anderson, Elwin Paulson, Gold Hill; and Don Mathias, brother-in-law of the bride, seated the guests.

Baskets of pink and white gladiolus decorated the church for the ceremony. The reception, given by the bride's parents, was also held in the church. Mrs. W. J. Warner headed the church committee which took charge of reception preparations and serving. Miss Merrilee Love was in charge of the guest book.

The couple are making their home in Idaho Falls, Idaho. For her traveling attire the bride wore a green taffeta dress.

The bride attended Northwest Nazarene college and is a school teacher with the Gold Hill school district. Mr. Maine is a student at Northwest Nazarene college and will also be employed at Arco, Idaho.

Miss Bates Wed To Robert Boyle In Home Service

Miss Sandra Yvonne Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Bates, 1260 Sunset avenue, Medford, became the bride of Robert Hershel Boyle, 422 South Riverside avenue, Medford, in a ceremony held Saturday, June 14, in Ashland.

The Rev. Leo Wine of Faith Tabernacle officiated at the 2:30 o'clock ceremony held at the church parsonage. Twelve relatives and friends of the couple attended.

The bride wore a pink suit with white accessories and rose corsage. She was attended by Mrs. Hubert E. Jones. Hubert E. Jones served as best man.

The bride attended Medford schools. Mr. Boyle attended Prospect schools and is employed by California Oregon Power company. They are making their home at 1260 Sunset avenue here.
