

Indians Take Two In Row Saturday; Beat Orioles 6-5

United Press International
The Cleveland Indians made it two victories in a row Saturday under new manager Joe Gordon and the guy he can thank for both wins is J. W. Porter.

Porter came through with the winning hit for the second time in as many days Saturday when he singled home Vic Power in the ninth inning to beat the Baltimore Orioles, 6-5. On Friday night, Porter also singled home the winning run in a 6-5 triumph over the Orioles.

Reliever George Zuverink was the victim of Porter's blow Saturday following a double by Vic Power. Don Mossi, Cleveland's third pitcher, was credited with his sixth victory and second in as many days.

The Chicago White Sox defeated the Washington Senators, 8-4, despite four home runs by the losers.

Homers Start Lead
A homer by Rocky Bridges in the third inning plus homers by Roy Sievers and Norm Zauchin in the fourth staked Senator starter Truman Cleveland to a 3-0 lead. Chicago tied the score in the bottom of the fourth, however, on Al

Smith's two-run triple and a single by Luis Aparicio. Sievers' second homer of the game and 17th of the season put Washington ahead again in the sixth but the White Sox routed Cleveland with four runs in the sixth on a double, four singles and an error. Reliever Bob Shaw scored his second straight victory for the White Sox since they obtained him from Detroit, June 15.

Pinch-hitter Ted Lepcio homered in the 12th inning to give the Boston Red Sox a 6-5 win over the Detroit Tigers in the other day game. Harvey Kuenn doubled to open the Detroit half of the 12th but relief pitcher Murray Wall protected the Red Sox' lead. Jackie Jensen knocked in four Boston runs with two homers, while Al Kaline sent the game into extra innings with a homer in the eighth for Detroit.

Whitey Ford pitched a three-hitter for the 100th win of his career, as the New York Yankees stretched their first-place lead to 9½ games with an 8-0 victory of the Kansas City A's in a night game that rounded out the A.L. schedule. Norm Siebern, Andy Carey and Yogi Berra homered for the Yankees.

Bolt Fined At Pepsi Tournament
East Norwich, N.Y.—(UPI) Golf took a swing at temperamental Tommy Bolt, the U.S. Open champion on Friday during the Pepsi tournament here.

Bolt, called "Thunder" by his touring mates, picked up at the end of nine holes in the second round and was fined $500. He was threatened with ultimate suspension from tournament play for "conduct detrimental to the game."

It was disclosed that the long-temperamental Bolt secretly had been placed on probation for a year last December and his case will be reviewed — with suspension indicated — during the PGA championship at Havertown, Pa., July 17-20.

Three Clubs Four Times
The 39-year-old Bolt, who has been insisting that he is a new man — completely reformed, — threw clubs four times Friday before withdrawing with a "nervous stomach." He claimed to have been ill ever since last week end's Flint, Mich., tournament.

Harvey Raynor, PGA tournament supervisor, said in announcing the fine that Bolt's abrupt withdrawal was "only the final straw" and charged that Bolt previously had been "abusive" to tournament director Frank Shields, the former tennis star, that other players had complained.

Frays of CLM Junior Legion Club Called Off
Scheduled tussles for the Medford Crater Lake Motors American Legion junior baseball nines Friday and Saturday were called off.

A non-league fuss billed with Myrtle Creek for the Glendale field on Friday evening was rained out.

Also off was the district hassle with Lakeview set for last night. Lakeview representatives phoned word that they could not get a team together for a trip to Medford for a night game. It was not learned whether the tilt will be forfeited or made up.

Class To Open On Monday in Baseball School
Attendance in the Medford public school's summer baseball program is expected to increase considerably this week when boys of the sandblower ages, nine and ten, report for classes.

The regular program of instruction in base ball fundamentals begins on Monday. Last week the concentration was on organizing the better players among the older boys into pee wee, intermediate and club teams for play in the Southern Oregon Junior League.

Classes will be Monday through Thursday from 8:30 a.m. through noon through the next six weeks. Boys over nine years of age up through those still in high school, who live in the school district, may attend. There is a $1 registration fee. Some sandblowers registered last Monday.

John Kovenz is director of the school and other coaches are Alex McDonald, Frank Roelandt and Howard Gang.

Trash Can Fire Causes $9,000 Damage Friday
Silverton—(UPI)—A fire that started from a trash can caused about $9,000 worth of damage Friday at the Schnorenberg Feed and Seed store here.

The fire was noticed by a neighbor who turned in the alarm. Owner of the store is Maurice Schnorenberg.

Billy Pierce Comes Close To Perfect Game; Tigers Win for Gordon's Debut

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
Everything turned out perfect for Joe Gordon and it might have for Billy Pierce, too, except for a perfectly normal impulse by pinch-hitter Ed FitzGerald.

Gordon, in his first game as Cleveland manager, came up with a tactical move that helped the Indians to a 6-5 victory over the Baltimore Orioles Friday night.

Pierce hurled his third straight shutout for the Chicago White Sox in beating the Washington Senators, 3-0, but there was a bit of heart-break for the 31-year-old southpaw even though he gained his seventh victory.

For eight and two-thirds innings, Pierce pitched perfect ball. All he had to do was retire one more batter to become the first left-hander in modern major league history to pitch a perfect game.

Washington manager Cookie Lavagetto sent up FitzGerald to hit for pitcher Russ Kemmerer. The crowd of 11,300 at Comiskey Park exhorted Pierce to nail down that 27th out, but FitzGerald had other ideas. He lined Pierce's first pitch inside the right field line for a double that broke the spell and was the Senator's first and last hit of the game.

Cleveland's victory over Baltimore, Gordon made what proved to be the winning move when he installed J. W. Porter behind the plate after Porter batted for Russ Nixon in the fifth inning.

Given a chance to hit again in the seventh, Porter singled home Rocky Colavito with the deciding run of the ball game. Colavito had just doubled to score Vic Power with the tying run.

Net Instruction Proves Popular
Medford city schools' tennis instruction program is the biggest ever this year, Coach Warren Brenner has reported.

He said that a total of 126 school-age boys and girls have registered for the program. Six sessions each an hour long from 6 a.m. until noon are being conducted. The program will continue four more weeks each morning through Friday.

Forehand and backhand strokes were taught last week. Backhand work will continue next week and instruction on the volley will begin. Other strokes to be taught are the lob and the service.

Addition of two courts at the high school this spring makes a total of five. It was thought the addition of the courts would alleviate the crowded situation of past years but the popularity of the classes keeps the courts through each morning.

Portland Firm Low On Airport Runway
Portland—(UPI)—Frank Lyons and company, Portland, has submitted the apparent low bid of $158,106 for preliminary construction on a new 8,800-foot runway at Portland International Airport.

In other airport contract biddings, Warren Northwest Inc., Portland, was low bidder on construction of a short taxiway at International airport with $59,714; and Oregon Asphalt Paving company, $24,264 or $26,064 for taxiway and auto parking lot at Troutdale airport.

Biff Lovett JC Junior Golf Champ

Ontario, Ore.—(UPI)—Biff Lovett of Portland blazed around the Ontario Country Club course in 69 Friday to win the Oregon State Jaycee Golf tournament and a spot in the National Jaycee Junior tourney at Tucson, Ariz., August.

Lovett's three-under-par performance Friday, added to his 71 Thursday, gave the Portland junior golf whiz a total of 140 in the two-day 36-hole tourney.

Lynn Yturri of Ontario carded a 70 Friday for a 142 total and second place.

Dave Munro of Beaverton fired a 74 both days for a 148 and third place, while Mickey Shaw of Portland had a 76 Friday for a 153 total.

These four all qualified for the national tournament at Tucson, Aug. 18-23.

Dennis Soran of Portland, with a 154 total, won the alternate position in a sudden death playoff with Jerry Foster of Portland on the 20th hole.

Insulting Name Helps Dodgers

Milwaukee, Wis.—(UPI)—Anger over "prima donna" charges against them by a Braves coach might be helping the Los Angeles Dodgers keep their victory "w h a m m y" against the world champions, Coach Charlie Dressen believes.

"I don't know if that is the reason, but we play very well against the Braves," said Dressen after the Dodgers had beaten the Braves for the seventh straight time Friday.

Braves coach Billy Herman, a former Dodger himself, made the "prima donna" charges against the last place club before the season started. He said they had grown complacent.

Manager Walt Alton didn't commit himself definitely on that theory, saying it's "hard to say if a player is giving more than usual in a particular game."

"But it could be, I suppose," he said. One thing he was certain of, however, his team was "coming alive" in the National league race.

All-Star Tussle Considered Puzzler in Coast League

Vancouver—(UPI)—The battle of the Pacific Coast League All-Stars coming up at Capilano stadium Monday is the most unpredictable tussle of the year.

Northern Manager Charlie Metro has the cream of Vancouver, Seattle, Portland and Spokane backing up his bid for the second Northern win in a row, but the John Davis' Southern stars from Phoenix, Sacramento, Salt Lake City and San Diego aren't any slouches either.

In fact, going on the league standings, the South would have to get the nod — Southern teams hold three of the top four spots on the league ladder, with Vancouver the only Northern representative getting a nose into the upper zone.

Redwood City Player Leads in Wimbledon

Wimbledon, England—(UPI) Mimi Arnold, Redwood City, Calif., led the American advance Saturday at the Wimbledon Tennis Championships by ousting second-seeded Christine Truman of England, 10-8, 6-3, in one of the biggest upsets in the history of the tournament.

It has been many years since an unseeded player defeated a seeded performer so early in the world's No. 1 tennis tournament. Miss Truman, a six-foot "Amazon" who upset Miss Gibson recently in Wightman Cup play, was favored to reach the final.

Barry Mackay, Dayton, Ohio, Althea Gibson of New York, Gardner Mulloy, Denver, Colo., Budge Patty of Los Angeles, and Margaret Osborne DuPont, Wilmington, Del., also advanced. Mike Green, Miami Beach, Fla., and Karol Fageros, the Miami blonde who was seeded eighth in women's singles, were eliminated as more than 20,000 spectators swarmed over the grounds of the all-England

Mackay, America's top hope in the men's singles, rallied to oust Australia's Bob Mark, 4-6, 10-8, 6-4, and joined Mulloy and Patty in the fourth round.

Mackay, seeded eighth, lost the first set to the unseeded Mark Friday and the second set was deadlocked at 8-8 when rain halted play. But Mackay, who is hampered by a blistered hand, took charge from the start today and tamed the 21-year-old Aussie before a standing-room court crowd of 15,000.

Mulloy and Patty followed the same pattern while winning third round matches halted Friday by rain. Mulloy, 44, split the first sets with Mike Green of Miami Beach, Fla., Friday but made short work of his 21-year-old Yankee countryman today. The scores were 3-6, 6-4, 6-2.

When his match with Torben Ulrich was resumed today, Patty needed only 15 minutes and seven games to oust the bearded Dane, 4-6, 7-5, 6-1, 6-2. Patty led, two sets to one, and Ulrich held a 1-0 advantage in the fourth set when play was halted Friday.

The five-year-old mare was kept on the rail by jockey Willie Skuse and came out in the stretch to run down Ballet Khal and finish about a length and a half in front of the wire. Summer Story, the Cinderella horse of the meeting, was third and Sally Lee was fourth as the favored Born Rich finished out of the money.

Annie-Lu-San ran the mile and an eighth in the good time of 1:50 and she returned $8.20, $5.00 and $3.40 across the board. Ballet Khal paid $15.00 and $7.20 for place and show and Summer Story returned $3.60 for show.

The victory was worth $22,400 to the winner's owners, Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Rogers of Los Angeles who bred Annie-Lu-San, a daughter of imported Khaled. It was the mare's first win of the year, although she had finished second twice and third once as trainer Ralph West pointed her for a repeat win in Saturday's race.

Legal, an Alberta village 33 miles north of Edmonton, is named after the first Roman Catholic Archbishop of Edmonton, Emile Joseph Legal.

North to a 3-1 win in the game played at Los Angeles last year, and he thinks he's got a better squad this year.

No matter what the scoreboard reads, the All-Star game is a special feature of Vancouver's cap—a top feature of a great sports year sparked by the province's Centennial celebrations.

Combine Business, Pleasure
The league directors will combine business and pleasure Monday. They will hold a league meeting Monday morning and part of the afternoon, then take in the game.

The Northern starting lineup chosen by the fans is loaded with Mounties — seven out of 10 to be exact. One player from each of the three Pacific Northwest teams fill out the roster.

Seattle, Spokane and Portland got more of a look-in when Metro added eight other players, three each from Spokane and Seattle, two from Portland.

Honors are more evenly divided up on the Southern team. The fans picked three players from Salt Lake and Phoenix, two each from San Diego and Sacramento. Davis added two more from each team.

The starting battery includes Don Urquhart of Salt Lake the right-handed pitcher Earl Averill of San Diego. Hal Woodshick of San Diego was picked as the left-handed pitcher, but was replaced by Marshall Bridges because of illness in Woodshick's family.
