

Month of Brides

June, 1958, has lived up to the tradition of being "the month of brides," and wedding news fills the social columns. Many ceremonies of interest have been held in valley churches, while others were solemnized in near-by or distant cities. Among the June newbrides are Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Morris, who were married June 21 in First Congregational church, Eugene. The bride is the former Jayne Teague, Roseburg. The couple will live in Los Angeles where the bridegroom, widely known high school and college athlete, will play football for the Los Angeles Rams. (Fehly photo)

A ceremony at Highland Congregational church in Portland June 15 married Viola May Russell to Thomas John Harrison of Cascade Locks, Ore. The newlyweds will live in Portland while the bride completes her senior year at Lewis and Clark college and Mr. Harrison continues his studies at the University of Oregon Medical school. (Camera Art photo)

One of Seattle's large June weddings was that of Miss Jill Runstad to John Parsons Day of Medford, and the bride is pictured here with two of her seven attendants, Miss Ann Easter (at left), honor attendant, and Mrs. Myron Law Jr. Mrs. Day is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johan Runstad, Seattle, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart Day, Gold Rey, Medford. The ceremony was held Friday, June 20, in Mount Baker Presbyterian church, Seattle, with reception following at the Rainier club. The newlyweds will spend the summer in Medford and will return to Seattle in the fall to continue their studies at the University of Washington.

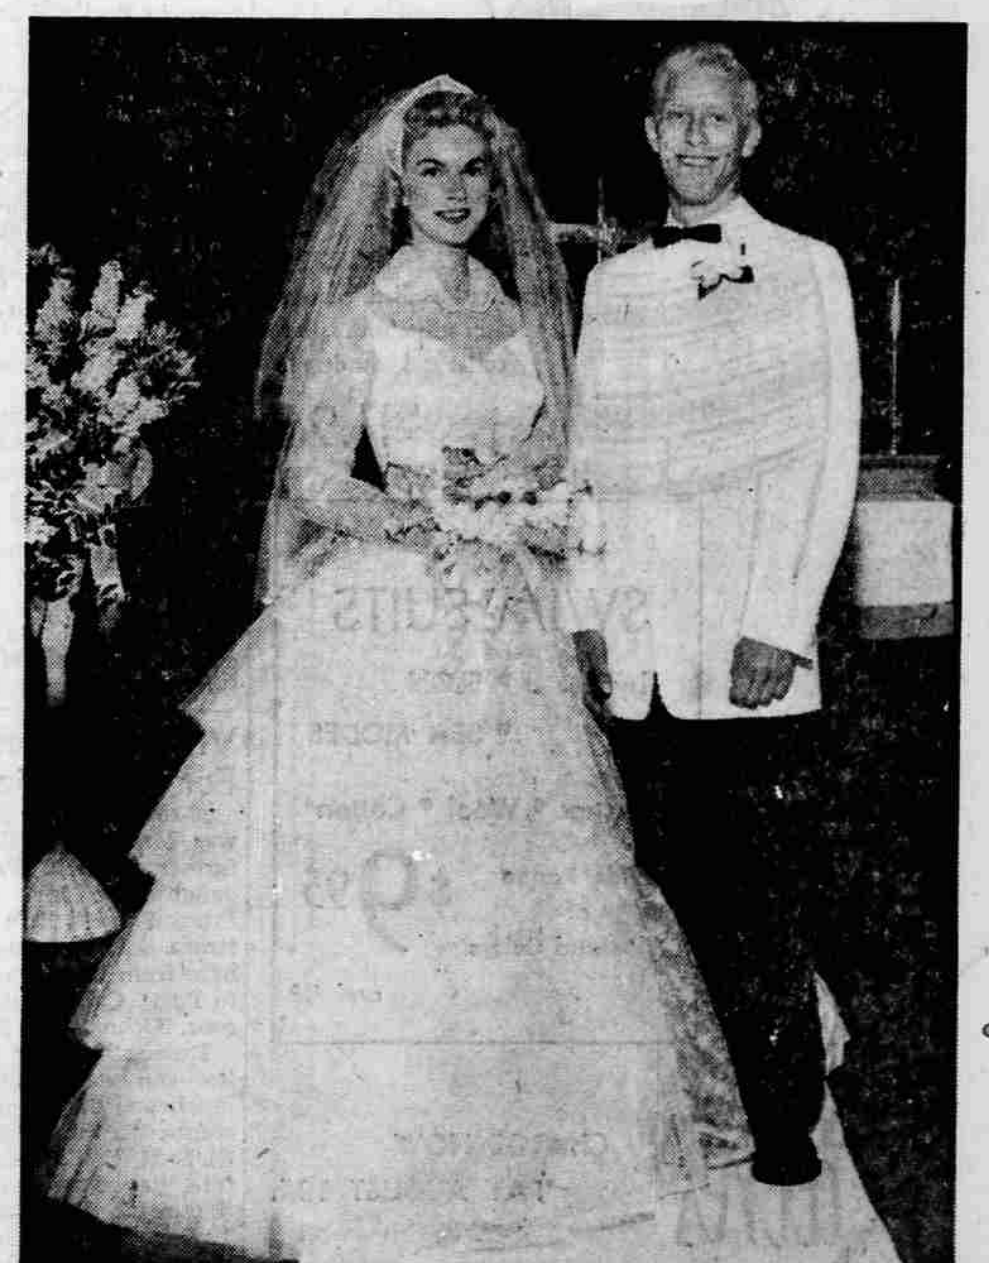

Mrs. Hugh Lister Jr. was Constance Louise Clark before her wedding June 21 to the Portland man. Following the marriage ceremony at First Presbyterian church the newlyweds left by plane for a wedding trip to Hawaii. They will live in Seattle. (Brainerd photo)

A June bride is Mrs. Max Eugene Hite, who was Norene Davis before her wedding June 20 in First Presbyterian church, Medford. The couple spent a honeymoon in Carmel, Calif., and will live in San Francisco while the bridegroom is on duty with the United States Army at The Presidio. (Brainerd photo)

Mrs. Norman Boyd Dunford was Celia Clogston before her marriage June 21 at First Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Dunford are living in Creswell, Ore., and attending University of Oregon summer session. The bride will teach in the fall and Mr. Dunford will continue his course in architecture at the university. (Brainerd photo)

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Myers were married June 21 at First Methodist church in Medford, with a reception following in Wesley hall. The bride is the former Linda Morton, daughter of the Oliver Q. Mortons, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Myers of Woodrow lane. (Brainerd photo)