

Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Leroy Wheeler
(Classic photo)

Adventist Church Scene Of Marriage Rites Sunday

The Seventh-day Adventist church in Medford was the setting June 22 for the eight o'clock evening wedding of Miss Carol Ardis Lingscheit, Portland, and Daryl Leroy Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler, 1525 Lenora drive, Medford. Elder W. L. Schoeflin of Milo Academy, Milo, Ore., officiated at the ceremony held in the same church where the parents of the bridegroom were married. The bride is a daughter of Frank A. Lingscheit, McMinnville, Ore. She was given in marriage by her father. White tapers and pink gladiolus decorated the church for the ceremony. Mrs. Harold Yost played the traditional organ wedding music and Mrs. Harvard Breese and James Kempster sang. The bride wore a floor length white taffeta and Chantilly lace gown with sport train. She carried pink tea roses encircling a white orchid. Miss Gayle Hanley, Woodland, Wash., was honor attendant while Miss Verla Mitchell, Portland, cousin of the bride; Miss Gayle Wheeler and Miss Caroline Wheeler, sisters of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore pink taffeta frocks with matching accessories and carried pink tea roses. Dale Thompson served as best man while Delmer Fjarli, Donald Young, Ashland; Victor Cady, Central Point, cousin of the bridegroom; Donald Wilson Jr. and Ronald Plankenhorn seated the guests. Miss Caroline Wheeler and Mr. Cady were candlelighters. Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mr. Kempster was master of ceremonies for the program held during the event. The bride and bridegroom are students at Southern Oregon college. They are making their home at Fourth and Rose streets in Medford following their return from a wedding trip to the California coast. For her traveling attire the bride chose a yellow linen suit with floral print shoes. Among the wedding guests were the four grandparents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Clymer, all Medford.

Day-Runstad Wedding Held in Seattle

From Seattle, Wash., comes details of the wedding in that city of Miss Jill Runstad to John Parsons Day of Medford. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johan Runstad, Seattle, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart Day, Gold Rey, Medford. The ceremony was held Friday, June 20, in Mount Baker Presbyterian church in Seattle. Dr. Robert Christensen officiated for the eight o'clock evening rites and Mr. Runstad gave his daughter in marriage. The reception which followed at the Rainier club was attended by 500 guests. Decor of the wedding was all white, and the ceremony took place by candlelight. The bride's gown was of imported Chantilly lace designed with billowing skirt ending in a sweep train. Her headdress was of pearlized French filigree orange blossoms and her elbow-length veil was of imported silk illusion. She carried a mother-of-pearl prayer book, brought to her this spring from Bethlehem by her grandmother, Mrs. Henry K. Benson of Seattle, and a shower of white butterfly orchids and stephanotis. For the traditional "something old" the bride carried a handkerchief of Florentine lace which belonged to the bridegroom's great-grandmother, Mrs. Judson Moss Bemis. She wore in her shoe a sixpence belonging to Mrs. Dow Huntington, Tinker which her mother had carried when she was married. Miss Runstad was the 50th bride to carry this sixpence, and the first daughter.

The kneeling pillows used by the couple during the ceremony were first used at the marriage of the bridegroom's grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Reginald H. Parsons, in 1901, and were also used at the marriage ceremony of the bridegroom's parents, as well as at the weddings of other family members and close friends. Miss Ann Easter of Seattle was maid-of-honor, and bridesmaids and matrons were Miss Ann Benson, Miss Sally Dodelle, Miss Katie Pierce, Miss Carolyn Griffin, Miss Barbara Anderson and Mrs. Myron Law Jr. They wore white silk organza sheath frocks fashioned with floating back panels and their headdresses were garlands of orange blossoms attached to illusion veils. They carried cascades of double white gladiolus. The flower girl, Patricia Etheredge of Piedmont, Calif., wore a dress of bouffant organza and carried a nosegay of orange blossoms. The bride's mother wore for the wedding a taupe de soie gown of green shades with matching hat and veil and white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of celadon green taupe de soie with matching floral hat, bronze accessories and white-bronze orchid corsage. Best man for the bridegroom was Arthur Ekerson, Medford, and the ushers were Jon Runstad, brother of the bride, John Burgess, Seattle, Charles Lappenbusch, Bellingham, Wash., William Moldstad, Mt. Vernon, Wash., Hugh P. Brady, cousin of the bridegroom from Los Altos, Calif., Dr. Martin Johnston and Robert Shepherd, both Medford. Pouring during the reception were Mrs. W. Ronald Benson, Mrs. Samuel N. Etheredge, Piedmont, Calif., Mrs. Lysle A. Wood, Mrs. Joseph Valentine, Mrs. Earl B. Day, Medford, Mrs. Christen Christensen, Mrs. Henry K. Benson, Mrs. Edward C. Wells and Mrs. George C. Martin. Mrs. Robert E. Speir and Miss Allison Easter attended the bridal book; Mrs. George H. Parsons and Mrs. Howard A. Frame, aunts of the bridegroom, were in charge of the receiving line. Mrs. Willard E. Skeel and Mrs. David G. Mason were in charge of the dining room. Scott Ricker and Miss Patricia Etheredge served the bridegroom's cake. Mr. Day and his bride traveled to southern California for their honeymoon, and will return to Medford for the summer. Both the bride and bridegroom are students at the University of Washington. The bride is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, and the bridegroom's fraternity is Phi Gamma Delta. Attending the wedding from Medford were the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hearin, Mr. and Mrs. Myers Jones, Mrs. T. W. Daily and Mrs. Robert Shepherd Sr. Also among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mickelson, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Swanson, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Etheredge, Piedmont, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blackaller, Berkeley, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ewing, Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Parker, who came from Melbourne, Australia, for the wedding will be guests at the Day's home here during their stay in the United States. The wedding was preceded by several parties given by friends and relatives in Seattle and the rehearsal dinner Thursday night preceding the wedding was given by the bridegroom's parents, his aunt, Mrs. Howard A. Frame, Los Altos, Calif., and Mr. Frame, and Hugh Brady, cousin of the bridegroom, Los Altos, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston.

Harrison-Russell Rites Held in Portland Church

Miss Viola May Russell became the bride of Thomas John Harrison in a ceremony held Sunday, June 15, at Highland Congregational church, Portland with the Rev. C. Stanley Knott officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Russell, 204 North Ivy street, Medford. Mr. Harrison is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert H. Harrison of Cascade Locks, Ore. Albert Pollard was organist for the double-ring ceremony and Miss Doreen Dunlap was soloist. Mr. Russell gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a white nylon organza gown over white satin trimmed with Venetian lace and seed pearls. Her fingertip length veil was held by a cap of lace and seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white gladiolus and stephanotis. Miss Diana Russell was honor attendant for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Roach, Miss Alexa Hibbard both of Medford, and Miss Sharon Moreland, Portland. They wore dresses of dotted Swiss in ballerina length with taffeta cummerbunds. Their headdresses were pink gladiolus. Miss Russell was in white with pink accents and carried white roses. The bridesmaids were in pink with white accessories and carried white sweetpeas. Candlelighters were Miss Christine Burt, Corvallis, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Sherrill Mason, Portland. They wore orchid colored dotted Swiss frocks with white cummerbunds. Roger MacKinnon, Bonneville, Ore., served as best man. Seating the guests were Carlisle Harrison, John Burt, cousins of the bridegroom, B. U. Chung, Darrell Nichols and William Yeach. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Russell wore a willow green lace sheath dress with white accessories. Mrs. Harrison chose a beige lace dress with green accessories. They wore yellow rose corsages. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. M. E. Bunnell, Seattle, aunt of the bride, cut and served the cake while Mrs. Mary P. Burt, Corvallis, grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. C. S. Moreland, Portland, poured the coffee. Miss Phylis Higdon, Cottage Grove, presided at the punch bowl and Miss Janet Earnshaw, Portland, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. S. E. Holmstrom, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Raymond Worden, both Portland, were at the gift table. The couple will make their home in Portland following a wedding trip to Victoria, British Columbia. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and will enter her senior year at Lewis and Clark college this fall. Mr. Harrison is a graduate of Lewis and Clark college and has completed his first year at the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa medical fraternity. The wedding also served as a reunion for members of both families. Attending were six of the seven Harrison brothers, uncles of the bridegroom, their families and other relatives of the bridegroom. Relatives of the bride included Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bunnell, Mr. and Mrs. Wil-

Mrs. Arlen Raymond Ragsdale was Nelliann Roesberry before her marriage June 16 in a ceremony held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seth D. Roesberry, Ashland. The bride was graduated from Southern Oregon college with the 1958 class.

Home Rites Wed Pair In Ashland

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Arlen Raymond Ragsdale are now at home in Needles, British Columbia, Canada, following their wedding June 16 in Ashland. The bride is the former Nelliann Roesberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seth D. Roesberry, 1230 Ashland Mine road. Mr. Ragsdale is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ragsdale, Route 1, box 202, Eagle Point. The Rev. James A. Neely of First Baptist church, Medford, officiated at the 7 o'clock evening ceremony held at the Roesberry home. Twenty-one members of the immediate families of the couple attended. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon chiffon over white satin, ballerina length, and a fingertip length veil. She carried a bouquet of blue, pink and white daisies. Miss Betty Marie Roesberry attended her sister. She wore a blue print nylon over blue taffeta frock. Russell Ragsdale served as best man for his brother. Following the ceremony a reception was given for 75 relatives and guests. Miss Alice Turner cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Rosalie Roesberry poured the punch. Miss Deann Clark was in charge of the guest book. The couple left on a wedding trip to the coast. For her traveling attire the bride wore a blue suit with black accessories. The bride was graduated earlier this month from Southern Oregon college, where she was active in journalism, radio and television. She was on the staff of The Siskiyou, the college newspaper, and worked with the SOC radio workshop which staged radio and television programs. She attended college the first year on a Britt scholarship. The bridegroom was enrolled in pre-forestry.

Miss Celia Clogston Wed To Norman Boyd Dunford

Miss Gertrude K. Molly of the Medford clinic was elected second vice-chairman of the Office Nurse section of the American Nurses association at their 41st convention held recently in Atlantic city, N.J. Miss Molly, a member of Oregon Nurses association, District 4, was one of 20 delegates from Oregon who attended the convention, and one of five Oregon nurses who were elected to national offices. A report of the convention will be given at a picnic Thursday, July 10, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Durno, 2512 East Main street, Medford.

Medford's First Methodist church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Celia Clogston to Norman Boyd Dunford on Saturday, June 21. The bride, a daughter of Frank H. Clogston, Central Point, has made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. F. W. Clogston, 1840 Stage Road south. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. N. A. Dunford, Eagle Point, and the late Mr. Dunford. The marriage vows were read at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon by Dr. George Roseberry, and were followed by a reception in the church parlor. Mr. Clogston gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a gown of silk mist taffeta and Chantilly lace fashioned with low round neckline and full dome skirt trimmed with flat bows. It was designed and made by the bride. Her veil fell from a small pillbox and she carried pale pink rosebuds with ivy. Miss Carolyn Clogston was honor attendant for her cousin, Miss Loretta Kelley was bridesmaid, and Mrs. William Fager, Creswell, bridesmatron. They wore frocks of white sheer nylon with daisy design over pink taffeta fashioned with barrel skirts, wide sweetheart necklines and short sleeves. Their headdresses were pink taffeta bows and all three wore short white gloves. They carried cascades of pink rosebuds and white Ester Reed daisies. William Fager was best man for Mr. Dunford, and Dean Tibbets, Eagle Point, and Alan Bishop, Central Point, cousin of the bridegroom, seated the guests. James Baker was soloist. Baskets of pink daisies and white phlox were combined with ferns and palms to form a floral setting for the wedding. Miss Regina Hannon took charge of the guest book during the reception, and Mrs. Martin Clogston and Mrs. R. W. Bishop cut the wedding cake. Miss Ethel Wooddall, Torrance, Calif., poured coffee and Mrs. Ray Clark, Yakima, aunt of the bride, poured punch. Mrs. Jeffery Clogston and Mrs. Frank Clogston took

Couple Returns From California

Mr. and Mrs. Royal E. Bebb, 528 South Grape street, returned to Medford this week after spending two weeks in Modesto, Calif., with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bebb, and granddaughter, Barbara Ann. The Bebb's spent several days in San Francisco and were overnight guests of Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Angell in Santa Rosa. The Angells, former neighbors of Mrs. Bebb in Maywood, N.J., recently moved to Santa Rosa from their home in Honolulu, Hawaii.

The Bebb's spent several days in San Francisco and were overnight guests of Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Angell in Santa Rosa. The Angells, former neighbors of Mrs. Bebb in Maywood, N.J., recently moved to Santa Rosa from their home in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Now In Our 50th Year

Diamonds are our business

We will be glad to show you how greatly they differ in brilliance, quality and value. Our Genuine Orange Blossom rings are well-known for their top quality and beauty. Convenient Terms If Desired!

LAWRENCE'S

YOUR FRIENDLY FAMILY STORE
Specializing in Fine Silver, Diamonds and Watches
130 EAST MAIN EST. 1908

as seen on TV

heavenly comfort for every summer activity

playtex living bras

Only America's #1 elastic bra gives you these exclusive elastic features for the cool comfortable freedom you want all summer long:

- a. Bias-cut elastic side panels self-adjust to your every motion.
  - b. Elastic criss-cross front dips low for youthful separation.
  - c. Full elastic back won't wrinkle or curl.
  - d. Beautifully designed cotton or nylon cups lined and reinforced — raise you naturally, youthfully.
- bandeau — white or black. 32A to 42C, $3.95. "D" sizes $4.95
- longline — with exclusive elastic magic-midriff. White or black. 32A to 44C. $6.95. "D" sizes $7.95
- strapless longline — with contour cups 32A to 40C. $8.95.

Parker Wood's

LEON'S

21 N. Central

AQUATIC ATTIRE

"CRACKERJACK" by Maurice Handler. Woven satin stripe with sailor collar and bow detail.

$11.95

Many Other SWIM SUITS

by . . . • ELON
• SEA MODES
In Lastex • Wool • Cotton

Wide Range of Styles and Colors $9.95 and UP

Visitor Leaves For California

A recent visitor in Medford was Mrs. Alvin Zelver, the former Patricia Farrell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farrell, 1310 East Main street. Accompanying her here from their home in Menlo Park, Calif., were her two sons, Nicholas and Michael. During her stay in the valley she was honored at a luncheon of former school chums at the home of Mrs. Richard V. Finch, 223 Bradford Way, Tuesday. Attending the event were Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. William Thorndike, Mrs. Donald Garrett, Eagle Point; Mrs. Quentin Sidesinger, Seattle, Wash.; and Mrs. Frank Prime, who returned to Medford recently after living in Turkey for several years.

WEDDING...

- Invitations or Announcements
- Imprinted Wedding Napkins
- Punch Bowl Rentals

at . . . Swem's 217 E. Main Medford

Rath's MEDFORD'S FASHION CENTER

CHARGE NOW PAY AUGUST 10th
214 East Main Street Phone SP 2-7169