

Ceremony Weds Pair

Miss Nancy Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morgan, 904 Wabash avenue, Medford, became the bride of Richard John Clearwater, 851 Humphry street, Medford, in a ceremony held June 7 at First Presbyterian church. Mr. Clearwater is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gilbert, Aldermanor, Wash.

The Rev. John O. Reynolds officiated at the 2:30 o'clock afternoon single ring ceremony attended by 28 relatives and friends.

The bride wore an embroidered acetate frock fashioned with blue jacket and ballerina length white pleated skirt. She carried white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Morgan.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Morgan home. Miss Dorothy Lemings poured the coffee and Mrs. Barbara Morgan cut and served the cake. Miss Loretta Caldwell poured the punch.

The newlywed couple are making their home on Humphry street here following their return from a wedding trip to Seattle, Wash. For her traveling attire the bride chose a sheath dress of grey and black stripe with black and white accessories.

The bride attended Medford schools. Mr. Clearwater is an apprentice pressman at Commercial Printing company.

Rinards Return From California

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rinard, 1708 Thomas rd., have returned home after spending a vacation in Laguna Beach, Calif., with their son-in-law and daughter, M. Sgt. and Mrs. Stanley Smith.

The Rinards went south to attend the graduation of their grandson, Sidney J. Smith, from Laguna Beach High school. Miss Judy Wynore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown of Medford, accompanied the Rinards south and spent a few days with the Smiths. The Rinards were away for two weeks.

Sergeant Smith is stationed at Altona, Calif., with the United States Marine corps.

Miss Lavon Malone Wed To Gary Milton Croucher

Gold Hill—Miss Lavon Malone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Malone, Gold Hill, became the bride of Gary Milton Croucher in a ceremony held Friday, June 20, in the garden at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheryl Croucher, 2969 Sunnyvale drive, Central Point. The single-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Perry Johnson, pastor of Phoenix Baptist church, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

More than 40 relatives and close friends attended the wedding and reception. White streamers and pink roses with arrangements of pink snapdragons, pink spirea and white Ester Reed daisies in two tall white baskets made up the setting for the wedding in the garden at the Croucher's home.

The bride wore a white satin sheath dress trimmed with pink embroidered roses, and worn with a pink satin cummerbund. Her hat was white lace with a small white veil and she carried white carnations.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Keith Kimmons, Medford, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Kimmons wore a frock of lavender sheen chambray with white accessories and carried a bouquet of white Ester Reed daisies.

David Byers, Medford, served as best man for the groom.

Of interest is the fact that the Rev. Perry Johnson, who performed the ceremony, is the son of the Rev. Joseph Johnson who officiated at the wedding ceremony of the bridegroom's parents when they were married in his home in Central Point November 3, 1933. At that time he was pastor of the Federated Church in Central Point.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a wedding cake encircled by pink and white sweet peas and flanked by pink tapers in crystal hurricane lamps. Mrs. Kimmons baked and decorated the three tier cake and was in charge of all decorations for the wedding and reception. Mrs. Royal Gray, Gold Hill, sister of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. A pearl handled cake knife, used for several wedding receptions of the bridegroom's family, was loaned for the occasion by Mrs. Fred W. Lyon, 115 Clover lane, Medford, aunt of the bridegroom. Miss Helen Hood, Gold Hill, poured coffee and Miss Jessie Willard, Central Point, presided at the punch bowl and was in charge of the guest book. The gift table was attended by Miss Sandra Croucher and Miss Tamara Croucher, Central Point, sisters of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Malone wore a light blue polished cotton frock and white accessories. Her corsage was white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink and white print silk dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Among the guests were grandparents of the bridegroom, Mrs. Una McGonagle, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Croucher, all Medford.

The bride attended schools at Gold Hill and Crater High school in Central Point where she was among the graduating seniors June 5.

Mr. Croucher attended West Side school and is a graduate of Crater High school. He attended Southern Oregon college, Ashland, before entering last year. He was awarded a state scholarship to OTI for school at the Oregon Technical Institute in Klamath Falls next year. The newlyweds will reside in Central Point until going to Klamath Falls in September. The bridegroom is now employed at the Williams and Croucher garage in Medford.

Klines Attend Amateur Trial

Mr. and Mrs. C. Weldon Kline, 18, South Groveland avenue, left yesterday for Point Reyes, Calif., to attend the National Amateur Field trial to be held July 2-5. Mr. Kline's Labrador, Bracken's Flash, is one of 59 dogs in the United States to qualify for the trial.

The Klines will be among the guests at a cocktail and buffet supper to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Tobin and Mrs. Walter Heller at Mrs. Heller's home in San Raphael during the event.

Also qualified for the trial is Jupiter's Golden Comet, golden retriever owned by Irvin Warren of Medford.

Constance Clark Wed to Hugh Lawrence Lister, Jr.

An event of Saturday, June 21, was the wedding of Miss Constance Louise Clark to Hugh Lawrence Lister Jr., which took place at First Presbyterian church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Hartley, 59 Rose avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lawrence Lister, Portland.

The newlyweds flew to Hawaii for their honeymoon, and will be at home in Seattle in late July.

The marriage ceremony was read at three o'clock in the afternoon by Dr. D. Kirkland West, and Mr. Hartley gave the bride in marriage. She wore a gown of eyelet embroidered white organdy with shoulder-length veil and carried gardenias and white rosebuds.

Miss Gloria Neilson was the honor attendant. Her frock was yellow and white embroidered organdy and she carried Ester Reed daisies. Brenda Hartley, sister of the bride, and Linda Davis, niece of the bridegroom, were flower girls. They wore dresses of yellow organdy and carried baskets of petals.

The bride's mother wore a beige chemise frock with matching accessories and corsage of orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a teal blue chiffon frock with blue accessories and corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Gerald Gritsch, Burlingame, Calif., a fraternity brother, was best man and seating the guests were Robert Armanino, San Mateo, Calif., and Michael Hartley, brother of the bride.

Miss Sonja Petersen, sorority sister of the bride, was organist and Miss Mary Lou Anderson, Los Angeles, sang. Church decorations were in white and yellow, with white bows on the pews and baskets of white gladiolus and white and yellow daisies providing a setting for the bridal party. A reception for about 100 guests was given by Mrs. Lloyd Neilson at her home, 2130 East Jackson boulevard. Mrs. William Youngson cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Gerald Gritsch served punch and pouring coffee were Mrs. Patrick Davis, Portland, and Mrs. Louis Powell, Corvallis. Miss Sharon Jean Merkel took charge of the guest book.

The wedding cake had been made and decorated by Mrs. Neilson, Miss Sandra Hubbard and the bride's mother.

Following the reception, members of the two families gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Houston R. Pitts, Old Military road, for dinner.

The bride was graduated from Willamette university, Salem, with a bachelor's degree in sociology, and was president of her sorority, Pi Beta Phi. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Willamette university, his degree being in psychology, and he is now studying at the University of Washington for a master's degree in social case work. His fraternity is Sigma Chi, and he is a past president of the psychology honor society, Psi Chi, at Willamette university.

In Medford for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents and Mrs. Patricia Lister Davis, Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Youngson, Mrs. William C. Palmer, Mrs. Ralph Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Leggett, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Balch, Miss Florence Hodge, Miss Martha Hoffman, all Portland; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hartley, San Lorenzo, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harpham, Eugene; Miss Sharon Laverty, Salem; Miss Diane Wickstrom, Menlo Park, Calif., and Miss Lee Thornton, Palo Alto, Calif.

Talent—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Walker, route 1, box 316, Talent, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to Delmer Fjarli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fjarli, 659 Stage road, South, Medford.

Both Miss Walker and Mr. Fjarli are graduates of Rogue River Academy and Milo Academy. Mr. Fjarli plans to attend Walla Walla college this fall.

A September wedding is planned.

At Wedding

Cave Junction—Mr. and Mrs. Lester Henry attended the wedding of their nephew, Michael Green, Santa Ana, Calif., to Nancy Swisch, daughter of Mrs. Grace Swisch of Reno, Nev., held in First Methodist church in Reno. A reception was held at the Twentieth Century club.

The newlyweds flew to San Francisco Saturday to embark for Honolulu Sunday for a lengthy honeymoon. They will live in San Francisco.

Morris-Teague Rites of Interest

Of interest here is the wedding of Miss Jayne C. Teague of Roseburg and Jack E. Morris, formerly of Medford, at the First Congregational church, Eugene, Saturday, June 21, at eight o'clock in the evening. J. Stanley Barlow of Westminster house, University of Oregon campus, officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 200 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Teague, Roseburg. Mr. Morris is a son of Mrs. A. M. Davis, Azalea, Ore., and C. A. Morris, Topeka, Kan.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length white silk taffeta gown with schiffli embroidery trim. The bouffant skirt terminated in a chapel train and her fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a white taffeta bow. She carried a cascade bouquet of white majestic daisies and white stock. Mr. Teague gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Jeanne Hardesty was maid of honor and other attendants were Miss Diane Hyland bridesmaid, and Mrs. Clarke Cabbage and Mrs. Keith Miller, bridesmaids, all of Portland. They wore white organdy frocks with braid trim and matching headresses and carried arm bouquets of blue majestic daisies.

Candelighters were Patty Brownell and Tom Teague, cousins of the bride.

Donald Wilkinson, Medford, served as best man while Dan Morris, Medford, brother of the bridegroom, Herbert Nill, Pat Burrington, both Eugene, and David Ramstead, Portland, seated the guests.

Eldon Penttila was soloist. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Village Green room of the Eugene hotel. Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Charles Teague, Mrs. Pierre Van Rysselberghe, both Eugene; Mrs. W. L. Teague, Mrs.

with the Los Angeles Rams of the National Professional Football league. For her traveling attire the bride wore a royal blue and white silk print dress with matching blue knit coat and white accessories.

The bride attended Eugene High school and Oregon State college. The bridegroom attended Medford High school and the University of Oregon.

Mr. Morris was a star in football, basketball and track while attending Medford High school and was three-year varsity man at the university. He played in the 1958 Rose Bowl game for Oregon's Pacific coast conference championship team, and is considered locally one of Medford High's all-time great athletes.

The newlyweds will make their home in Los Angeles, Calif., following a wedding trip to the coast. There Mr. Morris will go into training
