

Methodist Church Scene Of Myers - Morton Rites

Among the many weddings held in Medford last week was that of Miss Linda Jenell Morton and Kenneth Lewis Myers. The ceremony was held Saturday morning, June 21, at 10 o'clock at First Methodist church. Dr. George Roseberry officiated at the double-ring ceremony. About 125 relatives and friends attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver O. Morton, Old Military road, and Mr. Myers is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Myers, 1101 Woodrow lane, Medford.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white taffeta with fitted bodice of nylon lace, and tiered tulle over the very full tiered tulle skirt. Her finger tip veil was held by a crown of fashioned pearls. Her bouquet was fashioned of pink rose buds, white carnations and stephanotis, and centered with a white orchid.

Miss Dianne Barker, Grants Pass, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Norma Brainard, Miss Charlotte Lambert and Miss Lana Salyers. Miss Barker wore a ballerina length frock of lime green taffeta with chiffon drapery over the shoulders and falling to the hem line in the back. Her headdress was of orchid net and white carnations, and she carried a heart shaped bouquet of orchid net and white carnations.

The bridesmaids' ballerina length frocks were of orchid taffeta with chiffon draped over the shoulders. Their headresses and bouquets were of lime green net with white carnations.

Little Joanne Morton, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and wore a dress of lime green taffeta with orchid net headdress. She carried a white basket and rose petals.

Bobby Mace, nephew of the bride, acted as ring bearer. He carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Audrey Brown was best man, and ushers were Ronald Myers, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Magel and Kenneth Moulton.

Mrs. Alice Boardman played the traditional organ wedding music, and Duane Jones sang.

The church was decorated with white candles and baskets of white stock and lily-of-the-nile.

The bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with white accessories and corsage of pink rose buds. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of orchid lace over taffeta, white accessories and corsage of gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Wesley Hall at the church. Mrs. C. F. Shinn and Mrs. R. A. Morton, sister and sister-in-law of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Pouring coffee was Mrs. R. J. Morton, another sister-in-law of the bride, while Mrs. Jose Manrubia, cousin of the bridegroom, served punch.

Mrs. J. C. Mace, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book and in charge of gifts were Mrs. Beatrice Frohreich and Jerry McCollum.

For traveling the bride chose a mint green suit with white accessories and white orchid corsage. Following a trip to places of interest in northern California, the young couple are making their home at 509 Dakota street, Medford.

Among out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. J. L. Haskins, Merrill, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Haskins and sons Larry and Bruce, Bonanza, Ore., Mrs. Leonard Will, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Haskins and sons Gary and Gene, all of Tulelake, Calif., Mrs. Fred Baugh, Klamath Falls, Ore., Mrs. Clair Darnwood, Wilderville, Ore., Mrs. Robert Britton, Provoit, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Joel Barker and daughters, Dianne, Karen and Linda, Grants Pass, and Mrs. C. P. Uhrhane, New York City.

Both the bride and bridegroom have lived in Medford all their lives.

Mrs. Helen Watson Hostess for Club; Picnics Announced

Mrs. Helen Watson was hostess at her home on Catherine street recently for the June meeting of Medford Blue Star Mothers. Following desert, served by the hostess, Mrs. James Cech, president, conducted the business session.

Mrs. E. P. Kurz, 360 De Barr street, was welcomed into the group as a new member. It was reported the recent sale of daisies on the streets of downtown Medford was successful.

Mrs. Fred Middlebush reported on a recent party which was given for the members of the wheel chair patients at the Camp White domiciliary.

Plans were discussed for attending the annual district picnic of the Blue Star Mothers which is to be held in Riddle August 27.

It was voted to recess the regular meetings for the summer months. A picnic was planned for July 17, to be held at the Ashland park. All members are asked to meet around noon, taking table service and a covered dish.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lattie have returned to their home on North Phoenix road after a trip north. Mr. Lattie attended the summer conference of the 12th district of Production Credit association.

The couple returned home by way of the Oregon coast, and spent a few days at Port Orford.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Davis (Classic Photo)

Miss Kathryn Elaine Coe Bride of Richard Davis

Central Point — Miss Kathryn Elaine Coe became the bride of Richard L. Davis in a ceremony held Sunday afternoon, June 22, at Eastwood Baptist church in Medford.

The Rev. Richard Jones officiated at the 2 o'clock double-ring ceremony attended by 70 relatives and friends. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Plez R. Chamberlain, 151 Wilson road, Central Point, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mabel Davis, Gold Hill.

The church was decorated with white and tinted blue chifon daisies in white baskets and white candelabra held lighted white tapers. Bows of white ribbon were at the pew ends.

Soloist was Gary Smith, Central Point, former classmate of the couple, Miss Verena Cingcade, Talent, cousin of the bride, played the organ.

Mr. Chamberlain gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown designed and made by her mother of white imported French Chantilly lace over white taffeta and tulle, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and chapel length bouffant skirt. The bolero of matching lace was styled with long sleeves and mandarin collar.

The bride's necklace was a gift from the bridegroom and her fingertip illusion veil, held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms, was loaned by Mrs. Robert Insee, San Diego, Calif., an aunt. She wore white satin pumps and carried a white orchid encircled by white orange blossoms.

The bride served as flower girl for Mrs. Insee (the former Beth Cingcade) when she wore the orange blossom tiara for her wedding 15 years ago.

Miss Judi Davis, Central Point, was maid of honor, Mrs. Charles Hewitt, Medford, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. George Juveland, Central Point, were bridesmaids. Miss Davis wore a light blue taffeta frock designed with low Italian neckline, with bow in back, and blue lace and tulle overskirt in ballerina length. Her headband was of matching taffeta with a short white net veil, and she carried a bouquet of blue chifon daisies.

The other attendants wore frocks styled similar to and of the same color taffeta as Miss Davis'. They carried bouquets of white chifon daisies and wore matching taffeta headbands.

Robert Lance, Gold Hill, served as best man for the bridegroom. The candles were lighted by the two ushers, Welden Sorensons, and Donald Goyett, both Medford.

A reception was given by the bride's parents in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel following the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of blue chifon daisies encircling the white tapers in silver holders.

Mrs. Dale Knox, Oakridge, aunt of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake.

assisted by Mrs. Chauncey Beck, Central Point, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Ernest Beaber, Roseburg, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Helen Coe, Central Point, sister of the bride, attended the guest book.

Flowers for the wedding and reception were furnished by Mrs. S. M. Christensen and Mrs. Sam Jones, both Gold Hill. Mrs. Steve Saimons and Mrs. Bob C. Reynolds, both Medford, were in charge of all decorations for the wedding and reception.

For the event Mrs. Chamberlain wore a sheath dress of mint green linen, with white lace hat and pumps, and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore an aquamarine dress of summer cotton, with white lace hat. Their corsages were white carnations.

Guests included Mrs. Katie E. Perkins, Central, maternal grandmother of the bride, and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Coe, Ashland. Mrs. O. F. Palmerton, Rogue River, paternal grandmother of the bridegroom was also present for the occasion.

The newlyweds traveled to the Oregon coast for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a white sheath dress with white hat and gloves. The couple will reside at 17 North Peach street, Medford. Both are graduates of Crater High school with the class of 1957. The bride is employed as a bookkeeper at the First National Bank in Central Point and the bridegroom is employed at Jorgenson's Dairy in Medford.

Guests from out of town included Mrs. Bruce Bennett, sister of the bridegroom and her three children, Jenny, Debbie and Jerry, Ontario. Of interest is the fact that the bride and bridegroom had unknowingly chosen the same date and the same hour for their wedding as did the Bennetts, who were celebrating their 11th wedding anniversary that day.

Also from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beaber and children, Malcolm and Sandra, Roseburg, and Mrs. Dale Knox and son, Jack Ruegg, Oakridge.

Nunans Visit Medford Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Nunan, Ventura, Calif., were guests in Medford recently. Mr. Nunan is a descendant of a pioneer Jacksonville family, his father, Jerry Nunan having owned and operated an early-day store in that town. The Nunans built the large Jacksonville house now owned by Mr. and Mrs. James Grigsby.

Mr. Nunan's nephew is Donald Russell, president of the Southern Pacific Railway company.

The Nunans made a trip to Crater Lake National park, taking with them Mrs. H. P. Hubbard and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, long-time friends. The Californians were en route to British Columbia and Alaska.

Miss Bean will be a senior this fall at Phoenix High school.

Mr. Baer attended Medford schools and is now employed with the Medford Water commission.

The wedding is planned for next Spring.

Newlyweds Make Home In Ashland

Hornbrook — Mr. and Mrs. Willis Jones are at home at 544 "B" street, Ashland, following their return from their wedding trip to San Francisco and the Bay area. Mrs. Jones is the former Donna Bibeau, daughter of Mrs. Jacqueline Bibeau, Ashland, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Gladys Jones and the late Fred Jones of Hornbrook.

The young couple recited their vows May 29 at Reno, Nev. Mrs. Jones was graduated from Ashland High school. She is employed at Perrine's department store in Ashland. Her husband was born and reared in Hornbrook, and is a graduate of Yreka High school. He attended Shasta college in Redding for two years, and just completed his third term at Southern Oregon college in Ashland, where he was an all-conference infielder for the college baseball team. He also plays shortstop for the Yreka Indians. He has summer employment in Hornbrook, and plans to complete his education at SOC next fall.

When sprinkling clothes, fold them as you would when they are ironed. Do not roll clothes too tightly after laundering because wrinkles will become set.

Mrs. Jones was honored at a miscellaneous bridal shower June 25 at the home of Mrs. Loren Cummins. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Cummins was Mrs. Robert Farmer. Guests present were Mrs. Gladys Jones, mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Wayne Cummins, Mrs. Belle Linley, Mrs. Ella Rose, Mrs. Agnes Clark, Mrs. Ben Phillips, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Albert King and daughter Terry, Mrs. John Shinar, Mrs. Marshall Horn, Mrs. Tom Watt, Mrs. Henley Clawson, Mrs. H. H. Chapman, Mrs. L. C. Walsh, Mrs. Ivan Howard, Seattle, Wash., Mrs. L. E. Jeter, Mrs. Floyd Burns, Mrs. Ardon Burns, Mrs. Bill Paulsen, Oakland, Calif., Mrs. Lauran Paine, Mrs. W. A. Rutledge, Mrs. Jess Cummins, Mrs. F.
