The program closed with the mizpah and a reception followed in the dining room. Mrs. Shores was general chairman for the evening, assisted by Mrs. Earl Brewold, Mrs. William Childreth, Mrs. Ina Goldsmith, and Mrs. Gertrude Wittingham.

Mrs. Ralph Lue was in charge of the guest book and Lona Buffington and Linda Denzer distributed programs.

Hite-Davis Rites Held At Presbyterian Church

Central Point—Miss Norene Davis became the bride of Max Eugene Hite in a ceremony held Friday, June 20, at First Presbyterian church in Medford. Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the eight o'clock double-ring ceremony which was read by candlelight. More than 200 relatives and friends attended. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Davis, 3117 Freeland road, Central Point, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Georgia Smith, 1597 Camp Baker road, Phoenix.

The wedding color theme was pink and white. The church was decorated with white gladiolus and stock in white baskets and white candelabra held lighted white tapers. Pink and white Ester Reed daisies and pink and white satin bows were at the pew ends.

Vocalist was Lary Smith, Central Point. Mrs. H. E. Marsh, Medford, played the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white satin, fashioned with long sleeves, princess line lace front panel and many tiers of nylon tulle ruffles falling from each side of the skirt into a cathedral length train. The Sabrina neckline was accented with beaded sequin trim, and her fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls. The rare blue orchids she carried were flown here from Switzerland, and her satin slippers were of matching blue. For "something old" the bride wore a strand of heirloom pearls loaned by her grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Davis, Phoenix.

Mrs. Roger L. Weiss, Medford, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Gerald W. Griffith, Medford, Mrs. Gorden Meko, Central Point, and Mrs. Gordon Stiles, Medford, were bridesmaids and Miss Cecile Bell, Medford, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Miss Georgia Ann Smith, Phoenix, a sister of the bridegroom was junior bridesmaid, and Debra Bell, Medford, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Mrs. Weiss, wore a frock of chianti wine color designed with full ballerina length skirt and matching satin bolero jacket. Her Juliet cap and shoes were of matching satin, and she carried a cascade of white gladiolus. Mrs.

Stiles and Miss Cecile Bell wore frocks of cyclamen pink satin with satin slippers and hats and carried bouquets of lighter shades of pink gladiolus. Mrs. Meko and Mrs. Griffith's frocks, hats and shoes were of heather mauve and their cascade bouquets were pink gladiolus. Miss Smith's frock was mauve pink with matching hat and shoes and she carried a lighter shade of pink gladiolus. Little Debra Bell wore a dress of baby pink with matching hat and carried a white basket filled with pink rose petals.

The bride designed and made all of her attendants' frocks and hats.

Candlelighters were Mrs. Robert Lance, Gold Hill and Miss D' Anne Clark, Central Point. Their frocks of fuchsia satin designed with three-quarter length sleeves and square neckline were worn with matching hats and shoes and their wristlets of gladiolus were the same shade.

The bride had served as maid of honor for Mrs. Weiss, Mrs. Stiles, and Mrs. Griffith at each of their weddings; she was a bridesmaid for Mrs. Meko, and a candlelighter for Mrs. Lance.

Ring bearer was Paul Weiss, Medford nephew of bride.

Roger L. Weiss, Medford, brother-in-law of bride, served as best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Roy Madden, Phoenix, Robert Lytle, Ashland, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Gorden Meko, Central Point, Robert Lance, Gold Hill and Warren Richey, Phoenix, cousin of the bridegroom.

A reception was given by the bride's parents in Fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was centered with sprays of pink and white gladiolus with pink glitter net encircling the wedding cake.

Pink and white Ester Reed daisies and gladiolus decorated the reception rooms and music was provided by Mrs. Harley Dressler, Medford.

Mrs. Tom White, aunt of the bride, Eugene, assisted by Mrs. Glenn Yost, aunt of the bridegroom, Medford, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Steve Benston, Central Point, poured coffee and Miss Joan Ritter, Medford, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Robert Lytle, sister of the bridegroom attended the guest book and Mrs. Audrey Brown, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the gift table.

Mrs. Steven Benston and Mrs. Lester Cordean, Central Point, arranged the reception flowers.

The bride's mother wore an aquamarine lace dress with matching lace picture hat, white lace shoes and gloves, and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a green embroidered white linen dress, all white accessories and white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Margaret Davis, grandmother of the bride, wore a beige and orchid suit dress and orchid daisy corsage. Mrs. Audrey Richey, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a pink dress and pink daisy corsage.

The newlyweds traveled to Carmel, Calif., for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a light grey suit with red accessories. They will reside in San Francisco after July 1. The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and attended Southern Oregon college in Ashland.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Phoenix High school and Oregon State college, is remembered by many for his athletic accomplishments. Before entering the U.S. Army 10 months ago, he owned and operated his own logging firm at Phoenix. He is stationed at the Presidio in San Francisco.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hite, uncle of the bridegroom from Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Agnes Hite, Cottage Grove, his aunt and Mrs. Hazel White and son, Terry, of Eugene, aunt and cousin of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ronald Driskell were married June 19 in a ceremony held in Berean Baptist church, White City.

Geraldine Glass Is Married to Charles Driskell

Miss Geraldine Faye Glass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glass, 5795 Crater Lake highway, Medford, became the bride of Charles Ronald Driskell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Driskell, Jacksonville, in a ceremony held June 19 at Berean Baptist church, White City. The Rev. Paul O. Kron, of Central Point Community Bible church officiated at the 1:30 o'clock afternoon ceremony attended by 45 relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a frock of white lace over white satin with a corsage of white and pink roses.

Mrs. Ray Driskell, Jacksonville, attended her sister-in-law. Flower girls were Aleta Mae Glass, sister of the bride, and Judy Armstrong. They wore blue net over taffeta frocks with corsages of white daisies and blue bachelor buttons.

Ray Driskell served as best man.

For the ceremony the church was decorated with white daisies and blue delphinium arranged by Mrs. Diann Driskell and Addie Smets. Miss Diann Franklin played the traditional wedding music.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed Mrs. Glass wore an orchid colored frock with pink rose corsage. Mrs. Driskell chose a beige suit with red sweetpea corsage.

More than 40 relatives and guests attended the reception held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Ralph Glass and Mrs. Ben Driskell cut and served the wedding cake while Miss Ruth Marshall and Miss Winifred Kincaid poured the punch. Miss Barbara McCormack was at the gift table and took charge of the guest book.

The bride attended Crater High school and the bridegroom attended Jacksonville High school.
