Work of Artists To Be Exhibited At Music House

A selected showing of art work by Southern Oregon artists for the month of July is being arranged by Clifford Platz and will be on display at Purucker Music House from July 7 through August 5.

Watercolors in a traveling exhibit by Maude Wanker will be shown during August.

served as best man while Gary Burgess, Cave Junction, brother of the bride, and Vernon Dean seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Following a wedding trip to Crescent City, Calif., the couple are making their home at Park Place number 5, Medford. For her traveling attire the bride wore a navy blue nylon sheath dress with white accessories.

The bride attended Ashland High school. The bridegroom is employed by Mike's Seat Cover Center, Medford.

Miss Greaves Married to Californian

A wedding of interest to friends in the Rogue Valley was held recently in Sacramento, Calif., when Miss Nancy Lee Greaves became the bride of Clyde E. Needham of Sacramento.

The ceremony was held Saturday, June 7 at First Methodist church in Sacramento at eight o'clock in the evening. Dr. E. Panzer read the double-ring candlelight ceremony, attended by sixty relatives and friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Greaves, 716 West Thirteenth street, Medford and her paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Greaves, 1156 West Eighth street, Medford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Needham of Sacramento.

The church was decorated with pink and white gladiolus in tall white baskets and silver candelabra held lighted white tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over pink taffeta with pink taffeta cummerbund. She wore a white lace heart-shaped picture hat, tiny pearl earrings and pearls on a gold chain necklace. Her bridal bouquet was pink carnations encircled by white stephanotis, and she wore a birthstone emerald ring, a gift from the bridegroom.

Maid of honor was Miss Margaret Hamilton, North Highlands, Calif. Miss Hamilton wore a frock of pink taffeta with white picture hat and carried red rose buds.

William McCray, Sacramento, served as best man. Ushers were Claude Needham and William Hughey, both Sacramento.

For the reception the bride's table was centered with an arrangement of pink and white gladiolus and ferns encircling the wedding cake. Pink tapers were in crystal holders.

Mrs. J. P. Burch, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake assisted by Miss Pat Cleenelace. Mrs. Eldon Gunter, the bride's aunt, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Claude Needham, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, attended the guest book and Miss Jan Reeder was in charge of the gifts.

The bride's mother wore a dress of light turquoise lace over taffeta with white accessories and corsage of white baby orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of pink brocade silk flecked with silver thread and pink hat and gloves.

Following the reception, held in the church social hall, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Needham, parents of the bridegroom, invited the guests to their home for a patio party.

While south for their daughter's wedding, the Greaves were guests at the home of Mrs. Greaves' sister, Mrs. John P. Burch, and also visited with Mrs. Greaves' mother, Mrs. R. H. Shirley, who makes her home with the Burches.

Both Mrs. Shirley and another grandparent, Jacob McCann, Sacramento, grandfather of the bridegroom, attended the wedding.

The newlyweds went to Reno, Nev., and Steteline, Calif., for their wedding trip. They are now at home at 3651 A street, North Highlands, Calif. The bride attended Medford schools and is now employed by the California State Contractor board as a clerk typist. The bridegroom attended Sacramento schools and is supervisor of the IBM department at McClellan Air base.

Bard's Heyday Planned For July 13 at Theater

Ashland — The traditional "Bard's Heyday" which annually introduces Rogue valley audiences to the actors at the Oregon Shakespearean festival is scheduled for Sunday, July 13 at 5 p.m. at the theater. Sponsored by the Tudor guild to maintain its actor's fund and actor's scholarships, the occasion is marked by a full schedule of games, special entertainment, prize contests and refreshments, all set in the Elizabethan period, and adapted to provide fun for the entire family.

Mrs. R. W. Pentzer, general chairman of this eighth annual Heyday, announces that admission again this year is 50 cents, with children under six admitted free when accompanied by an adult.

The planning committee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, Dr. and Mrs. Neal Terrill and Mrs. W. Bernard Windt, has already arranged for many games and contests, a Punch and Judy puppet show, a fishpond, a fortune teller, tumbling demonstrations, a unicyclist, with other specialties yet to be arranged.

Mrs. Terrill and Mrs. Chester Putney, in charge of food and refreshments, will provide a variety of foods that were common to the Elizabethan era, with a wide enough assortment of items to assure a tasty dinner for both adults and children. Mrs. Sheridan Scott and Mrs. Widener Hendrixson will have gifts and souvenir articles on sale at the Tudor guild booths.

Messrs. Frank Davis, Putney and Allan Harris, members of the grounds committee, have arranged with the theatre technical department for special lighting and scenic effects to further the idea of an Elizabethan period celebration. Several of the theatre company will appear during the four hour long celebration, performing as strolling musicians, dancers - on - the - green, colorfully attired in appropriate costumes. Dr. Bill Sammons will act as Town Crier to keep guests posted as to up-coming events. The traditional climax of the day, the popular actors' pantomime contest, is set for approximately 8 p.m.

Ticket sales chairman, Mrs. R. Taverner Robinett, now has tickets available at the festival box office in Ashland. Mrs. C. Rease Braley, in charge of ticket sales in Medford, has arranged for Mann's to handle them there. Tickets will also be available at the gate the day of the event.

The bride attended Medford school, and the bridegroom attended San Antonio, Texas, schools. On their wedding trip they traveled to Waxahachie, Texas.

Miss Jane Rosenberger attended the bride. She wore a red suit with white blouse and black accessories. Joe Freese served as best man.

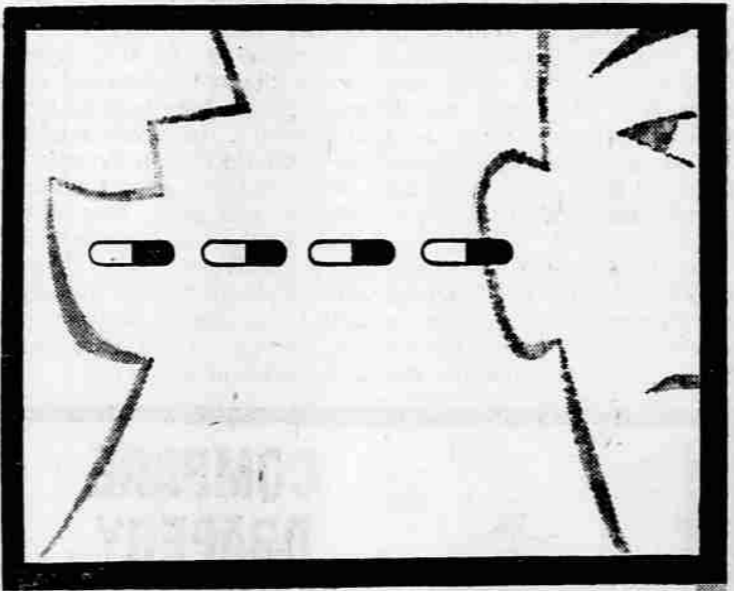

Following the ceremony a reception was held with 27 relatives and friends attending.

The bride attended Medford school, and the bridegroom attended San Antonio, Texas, schools. On their wedding trip they traveled to Waxahachie, Texas.

Both Mrs. Shirley and another grandparent, Jacob McCann, Sacramento, grandfather of the bridegroom, attended the wedding.

Corn Cobs in Bacon

New York — (UPI) — Bacon-broiled corn on the cob makes a good butter-saving luncheon dish. Boil husked fresh corn in salted water to cover for 4-6 minutes, or until almost tender. Drain and wrap each ear in 2 strips bacon, skewering bacon ends with toothpicks. Place in preheated broiler 4 inches from heat source and cook 7 minutes, or until bacon is crisp, turning to cook on all sides. Remove bacon and serve with corn.

Convincing talk

We're talking about the door-to-door salesman who is selling vitamin preparations these days. He sounds mighty convincing, perhaps because he's memorized a fancy sales talk. One way to stop him in a hurry: Just ask him to wait while you check with your physician. Or invite him to stroll down to our pharmacy and, while you watch and listen, show us his wares. We have a notion he'll go away quickly and bother you no more.

Babcock-Haines Rites Announced

Phoenix — Mr. and Mrs. Al Campbell, Phoenix, announce the wedding of their daughter, Betty J. Haines, to William Babcock. The service was held Saturday, June 21, at the Methodist church in Simi, Calif.

Both the bride and bridegroom are exhibition riders. For the past two years Mr. Babcock has been a featured attraction at the Lone Ranger ranch near Santa Susana, Calif., where many western movies are made.

The bride, a professional model and exhibition rider, and Mr. Babcock are now under contract to travel with the Bill McGraw Ford circus and appeared in Eugene and Roseburg last week. After the four-months contract is completed, the couple will manage one of the McGraw ranches near Roseburg.

Eagle Point Pair Married in Reno

Eagle Point — Pearl Allen and T. B. Freeman were married at Reno, Nev., June 12. On their return trip home the newlyweds were guests at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Kirkpatrick, Klamath Falls.

The Freemans were honored at a surprise shower Saturday, June 21, at their ranch on the Butte Falls highway. Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. George Allen and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Cearley, Mr. and Mrs. William Pomeroy and son, Charles, Mrs. Etta Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burch, Frankie Lee Burch, Harriet States, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Allen, Mrs. Neva Gilbreath, Ervin McKeen, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith, Medford, Peter and Jimmy Lane and Mr. and Mrs. Porter Allen.

The newlyweds were presented a gift by those attending, and refreshments were served.

League Committees Make Plans

A joint meeting of League of Women Voters' committees was held Thursday evening, June 26, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Rutter. Represented were the voters' service committee, of which Mrs. Rutter is chairman, and the committee supporting the permissive legislation for county home rule, headed by Mrs. Ben Day. The two committees agreed to work cooperatively because their interests are so closely allied.

Mrs. I. S. Thomas, newly-appointed public relations chairman; Mrs. Frank Wilson, bulletin editor; and Mrs. N. R. Etzel, publications chairman, were on hand to offer suggestions and to take notes in an effort to coordinate the thoughts of the group. Discussion included effective use of radio, television, and newspaper media to put information before the voters. A speakers bureau and use of available publications were also topics for consideration.

Initial plans were made for a Candidates' Fair to be held just prior to election. Those in attendance volunteered to help with various phases of the work which will begin immediately. In addition to those previously mentioned those present were the Mesdames Gordon Mackenzie, John Ousterhout, Ronald James, Fred Danielson, John Williams, Joe Mullen, R. D. McGregor, Norman Caspey, J. R. Porteau and Thomas Goff.

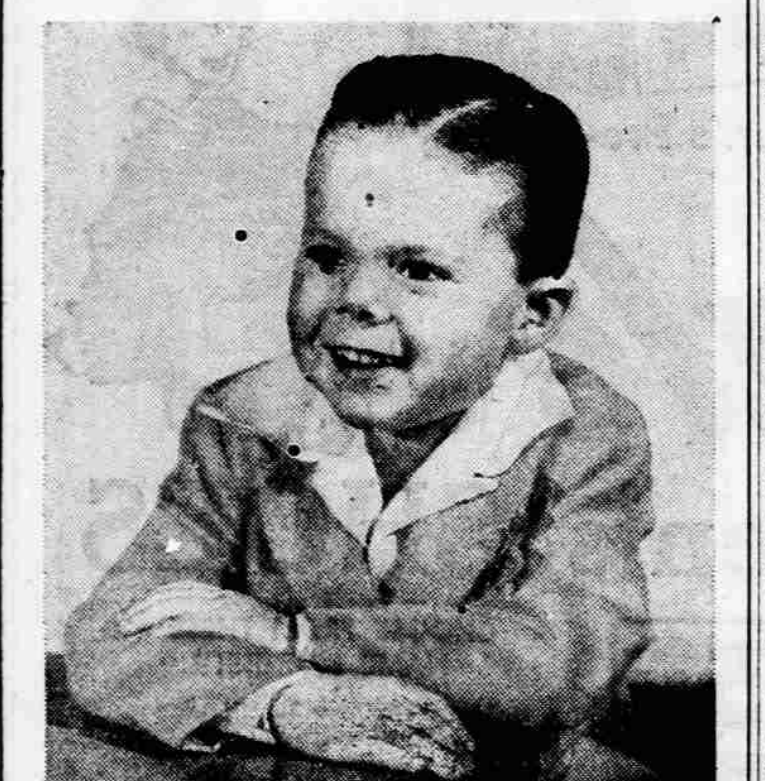

Throughout the summer the "know your county" study committee continues to meet once each week, and various other committees also function. There will be no further general meetings until September. A membership benefit picnic is scheduled for the latter part of July at the home of Mrs. John S. Day.

Monday and Tuesday, June 30 and July 1, the local League officers and chairmen will meet with Mrs. K. E. Montgomery, who comes in an advisory capacity from Eugene. As a member of the state board, Mrs. Montgomery will meet in a all-day session at the home of Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter with the local league board, both new and retiring members, to train them for next year. The president, Mrs. Hugh Collins, will be hostess for Mrs. Montgomery. Monday afternoon appointments have been scheduled with her for individual committees. Monday evening the entire board will meet for a workshop on unit meetings.
