

SHADY COVE-TRAIL

Released From Hospital

By WALTER P. WATSON
 Shady Cove-Trail — Mrs. Joe Waltz, of Shady Cove, was confined for several days in Sacred Heart hospital, Medford, for treatment of injuries suffered in an accident near Morris, Calif., last Monday.

Her mother, Mrs. Edith Davis, was killed in the accident. Funeral services were held Thursday at Perl Funeral home.

Mrs. Waltz had been driving her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davis, to Reno, Nev., where they planned to visit a son. Her daughter, Judy Waltz, was accompanying them. Neither Davis nor Judy Waltz were hurt.

Her husband, Joe Waltz, and sister, Mrs. Gene Weisman, brought both Davis and Mrs. Waltz back to Sacred Heart hospital. Davis was released and is at home, and Mrs. Waltz was released Wednesday.

Clara Goodwin of Big Butte creek, Trail, was involved in an accident when the car he was driving hit a soft shoulder on Big Butte Creek road, ran into a tree, and turned over on the side. With him were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. P. Glover, who were visiting from Portland. Mrs. Glover suffered a fractured pelvis and several broken ribs and is in Rogue Valley hospital. Goodwin was also taken to Rogue Valley hospital. His injuries included a broken nose and various cuts and bruises. He was released and is at home. Mrs. Goodwin was visiting in Portland at the time.

Newcomers to Trail are Mr. and Mrs. Burton Wood and sons, Ronald and Dick, from Riddle. They are living in one of the houses at Jantner's mill where Wood is employed.
