

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

ARNOLD BENNETT, author of "The Old Wives Tale" and "Imperial Palace," had a disconcerting habit at literary gatherings. He would select a chair in the middle of the festivity, settle himself comfortably, and promptly fall asleep. He had been dozing happily one evening all through a bitter argument on current trends when a particularly vehement declaration woke him with a start.

"Isn't it time for us to be going?" suggested his embarrassed wife. "Not at all," rasped Mr. Bennett. "It would be extremely rude to leave so early"—and went back to sleep.

Alan Moorehead tells about three applicants for a minor government job in the Middle East—an American, an Englishman and an Armenian. Each applicant was asked the same simple question: What is 26 plus 25?

The Englishman asked for time to think about it. The American fished a small adding machine out of his kit. The Armenian answered, "It all depends. Are you buying or selling?"

Attorney To Join Sproul Defense

Portland — (UPI) — Bruce Spaulding, Portland attorney who in 1956 won the acquittal of a woman accused of the dynamite death of her husband, said Sunday he will join in the defense of John Day cattleman Gordon Sproul.

Sproul is charged with first degree murder in the shooting death of his neighbor and brother-in-law, Harlan Williams, over a week ago.

Spaulding made the announcement of his role in the case after conferring with John Day attorneys for Sproul.

Jackson, Miss. — (UPI) — Radio station WJQS is giving away its 5,000 rock 'n' roll records and in the future will concentrate on "adult music."

General Manager Lew Heilbroner said the disks would be hauled to a department store in a coffin, signifying the death of rock 'n' roll, and given to teen-agers.

No Boxing Gloves; Police Nab Man

Chicago — (UPI) — Police arrested Edward Murphy, 71, because he failed to wear his boxing gloves to the baseball game at Comiskey Park Sunday.

Murphy is a rabid baseball fan but he also is a skillful pickpocket. Some time ago he made a deal with police that he would wear boxing gloves if allowed to attend ball games.

Caught bare-handed Sunday, Murphy explained: "When I wear boxing gloves I can't eat popcorn. I like to eat popcorn at baseball games."

In the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS

I'm intrigued by an item on the teletype. It goes like this: Governor Holmes and Secretary of State Hatfield, contenders in the next Oregon gubernatorial race, have had much to say on the subject of capitol punishment.

"Governor Holmes has come out flatly for abolition of capitol punishment and asked the people to vote it out of the Oregon constitution in November. He has commuted two death sentences while in office.

"Hatfield's public statements have been a bit more cautious. He says he will 'carry out the mandate of the people' with regard to capitol punishment."

the death penalty. What interests me is the use of the word capitol when the word capitol is obviously called for.

It couldn't have been a typographical error, for it is repeated three times. It was just a plain boner. Newspaper people shouldn't make boners like that. Their job is to inform the public. If they are to inform the public accurately, they must use the right words—just as a surgeon must use the right instrument if his operation is to be successful and save the patient's life.

This misuse of the word capitol could be quite misleading.

I'M NOT concerned, at the moment, with the views of those opposing candidates on

FOR example: CAPITAL punishment means imposition of the death penalty for certain crimes, including murder and treason. Capitol punishment can mean a wide range of evils. CAPITOLS are the monumental buildings located in state and national capitols. It is in these buildings that governmental policies are outlined and embodied into LAWS.

Garcia Welcomed At Hawaii During Return Trip Home

Honolulu — (UPI) — President Carlos P. Garcia of the Philippines visited Hawaii today on his return to his homeland after a six-day visit to the United States.

It is obvious that capitol punishment can be among the ugliest of the punishments that can be inflicted upon us.

Garcia arrived Sunday after a flight from San Francisco, where he received the territory's official greetings from Gov. William Quinn and Adm. Felix Stump, commander in chief of the Pacific.

Today Garcia was to breakfast with industrialist Henry J. Kaiser. His schedule also called for him to receive an honorary degree of doctor of law from the University of Hawaii, visit Punchbowl National cemetery and to be guest of honor at a reception by the Philippine Consulate.

So—Gentlemen of the press and punchers of the tapes that spread the news of the world among the people for their edification and enlightenment—BE CAREFUL WITH YOUR WORDS. They are the tools of your trade.

He leaves tomorrow for Manila. Before leaving San Francisco, Garcia said he was astounded at the "unanimity of fellowship" he found wherever he went.

So—Gentlemen of the press and punchers of the tapes that spread the news of the world among the people for their edification and enlightenment—BE CAREFUL WITH YOUR WORDS. They are the tools of your trade.

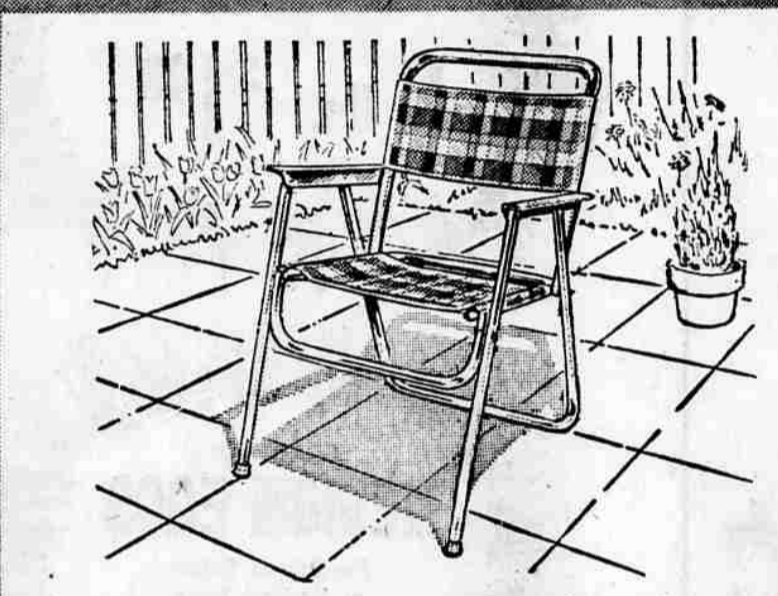

At a breakfast given by R. Stanley Dollar, shipping executive yesterday, Garcia urged the United States to "make both money and friends" by placing more investments in southeast Asia.
