Grants Pass Legion Tops Cheney Studs; Play Again Tuesday

the third canto on a walk to Marv Chandler and a double by Lee Holmes. In the fourth a hit batter, a walk, an error and Dennis Walker's single accounted for two more tallies.

Sprinkle, Gary Stevens and Hayes got other hits for GP during the afternoon. Pete Stemple, pitching three innings for Central Point, fanned one batter, walked three and gave up three hits and two runs. His reliever, Alan McKinnis, fanned two and walked two and also yielded three hits and two runs.

Outfielder Rex Benner helped out the one-hitter effort by Hayes with an outstanding catch of Phil Tucker's long fly along the left field line.

Dennis Barlow is the probable starting chucker for Grants Pass on Tuesday while Bill Anhorn likely will get the call for Central Point.

Grants Pass — Moundsman Dick Hayes, despite an ailing tummy, performed to near perfection here yesterday afternoon to enhance the unmarred record of Grants Pass Mock Ford in Area 4 South district of American Legion baseball.

Mock defeated the Central Point Cheney Studs 4 to 0 with Hayes flinging a one-hitter. Only two Studs got on base against the Formden. Dennis Johnson knocked a two-bagger in the first inning and Loyal Higinbotham drew a base on balls in the fifth.

Grants Pass has won four straight league conflicts and Central Point is 2-3 in the district. Klamath Falls continued to press Mock Ford after Lakeview failed to make the jaunt for week end games at Medford and Klamath. It was assumed at Klamath Falls today that the scrapes would be forfeited, giving KF 4-1 standing and Medford 2-3, equal to Central Point in the circuit.

Central Point and GP go at it again Tuesday night at Cheney field here. It will be a league ruckus and is set for 8 p.m. Medford and Central Point are rivals at the local diamond in a non-district game on Wednesday evening.

Fanned 10

Hayes struck out 10 and was backed by errorless fielding, otherwise. Action was halted briefly twice because of Hayes' illness.

Mock scored one in the second inning on Frank Sprinkle's walk and stolen base and Jerry Patterson's single. Another run came in during

Ladies PGA Toga Goes To Wright

Pontiac, Mich. — (UPI) — Mickey Wright found out early something that many golfers take a lifetime to learn and it has paid off in the two top titles of women's golf.

"I came to the realization that I'm responsible for every stroke I take," said the newly-crowned U.S. Women's Open champion who only three weeks ago won the Ladies' PGA championship.

The "every stroke counts" Mickey played that way over the Forest Lake Country club course, a par 37-36-73 layout, as she duplicated her LPGA feat of three weeks ago by leading every round including the tough, 36-hole test Saturday.

Mickey finished with an Open record of 74-72-70-74-290, two under par and five strokes better than Louise Suggs. The old 291 Open record was set by the great Babe Zaharias.

Beavers Slate Emerald Nine

Eugene — (UPI) — The Portland Beavers meet the Eugene Emeralds of the Northwest league in an exhibition baseball game here tonight, weather permitting.

The Royals, up against the circuit's hottest club, cooled off the Columbus Jets twice on Sunday, 4-3 and 4-1.

In other Sunday action, Toronto beat Richmond, 7-4, in the completion of a May 25 suspended game and then went on to capture the regular contest, 7-5; the Rochester Red Wings edged Miami in 11 innings of the opener, 5-4, but then dropped the nightcap to the Marlins, 4-3; and Havana whipped Buffalo, 3-0, in the second game after losing the first, 5-4, in 12 innings.

Royals Bolster Lead in League

United Press International The Montreal Royals had to do it the hard way, but they increased their lead in the International League to two and a half games today.

Dairy Maids Take Two At Eugene

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids took two out of three tussles in softball with Eugene McCulloch Chain Saw Saturday night and Sunday afternoon at Eugene.

The Maids were victors 8 to 0 on Saturday night and Sunday afternoon claimed the first fust although they didn't get even a solitary hit off Eugene pitcher Darla Logan. Eugene copped the week end finale 2 to 1.

In another Saturday game Eugene bowed 3 to 0 to the Portland Lind Florists.

His Three for Four

Pat Barron tossed a six-hitter for the Dairy Maids on Saturday and a five-hitter in the Sunday starter. She also had three safe swats in four times up on Saturday when Bernice Bigham had a double. The Maids collected all five of their runs in the sixth inning for the Sunday victory. They came on two errors, three walks, a stolen base, a wild pitch and a passed ball.

Both Eugene runs in the Sunday second brush were in the third inning on a hit and an overthrow error on a bunt. Rogue Valley countered in the fourth frame on a walk, sacrifice by Bigham and a hit by Shirley Hanson. Ellen Callaghan held Eugene to three hits while the Maids tagged Margaret Dupre for four.

The Dairy Maids meet Klamath Falls at Camp White on Tuesday evening and play Astoria also at Camp White next Saturday and Sunday.

Managers Girding for Star Tussle

By MILTON RICHMAN United Press International

Nothing personal, you understand, but suddenly Casey Stengel and Fred Haney are trying to outguess each other with a pair of strategems that promise to convert the All-Star game from just another exhibition to a World Series-style battle of brains.

Stengel struck the first blow when he packed the American league team with seven of his own Yankees to augment two other Yanks named as starters for the game at Baltimore, July 8.

Haney, whose Milwaukee Braves beat the Yankees in the World Series last fall, promptly retaliated with the unprecedented declaration, "If we get out in front, the starting lineup will stay in the game until we win."

Both managers make no secret of the fact that they want to win at any cost—Haney, perhaps, because he wants to prove that his victory over Stengel last October was no one-shot fluke, and Casey undoubtedly because he doesn't like anyone to have the upper hand on him.

Able To Platoon

In any case, Stengel will be able to platoon to his heart's content in the style he is accustomed to—with Yankee players.

Center fielder Mickey Mantle and first baseman Bill Skowron were the two Yankees picked to start by the votes of American League managers, coaches and players.

To make sure there would be no shortage of Yankees on the AL team, Stengel then named infielders Gil McDougald and Tony Kubek, outfielder Elston Howard, catcher Yogi Berra and pitchers Bob Turley, Whitey Ford and Ryne Duren.

GOLFERS PLAY-OFF

Walla Walla — (UPI) — Tom Everham of Aberdeen and Ray Honsberger of Seaside played off today for the Washington Open golf title. The two golfers tied at 282 after 72 holes. Joe Greer of Yakima was third at 284. Bill Eggers of Portland topped Oregon entries with a 285, to tie Chuck Congdon of Tacoma and Bud Hofmeister of Hayden Lake, Idaho, for fourth place.

Riddle Nudges CW For RVL Leadership

Memorial Stadium, Camp White — Riddle's South Douglas County Trojans took over lone unbeaten leadership in the Rogue Valley Baseball league here yesterday afternoon by nicking Camp White 4 to 3.

Dick James tripled in the seventh inning and Bob George knocked him home with a single for the winning run.

It was the second league victory against no losses for Riddle while Camp White suffered its first setback in three league encounters. The score of the other RVL skirmish yesterday, Prospect at Butte Falls, was not available this morning.

A non-league ruckus with the Army's strong San Francisco Presidio aggregation is next for the Veterans Administration domiciliary-sponsored club of Camp White. The Whittiers will meet the soldiers at 8 p.m. on Wednesday at Memorial field. Presidio's squad has players with pro and collegiate experience and some of them have both.

Broke Ties

Yesterday Riddle never trailed in the contest but had to break ties on two occasions. The Trojans started out fast with the first two batters of the game getting on base and scoring.

James plunked a fly ball into left field for a double. John Cavaner then smashed the ball to shortstop Vern Parent. The throw to third base, in effort to get James, got through baseman Wayne Allen's hands and the runner scored with Cavaner going to second. Ray Munyon then singled Cavaner home.

Camp White caught up with two runs in the third inning. Wendt layed down a sacrifice bunt and third baseman James overthrew first base. Both runners went all the way to tally.

In the fourth inning Larry Cockrell walked for Riddle. He moved to second base on a passed ball, to third on Duane Miller's groundout and home on another passed ball. That made it 3 to 2.

Big Rhubarb

For Camp White in the fifth, Peery whammed out a three-bagger. Then Wendt got a smack that clipped down the third base line and rolled for a double, sending Peery home and knotting the fracas. The Trojans protested Umpire Ken Natland fair ball ruling and a rhubarb of about 15 minutes followed. RVL

President Harry Chipman was called from the stands before the issue was settled and the game continued.

Miller of Riddle and Don Sanford of Camp White each pitched a seven-hitter and each struck out eight batters. Miller walked one and hit one batsman and Sanford issued three bases on balls.

Peery slapped out three hits in four times up for Camp White and James hit three for five for the visitors. George had a two for four afternoon for Riddle, including a double.

Camp White threatened in the ninth when Parent and Pete Hale singled with no one out. But Roby Isaacs was out on strikes and Don Sanford hit into a double play to end the game.

LINESCORE:
Riddle 200 100 100-4 7 2
Camp White 002 010 000-3 7 2
Miller and Munyon; Sanford and Hale.

A. Henderson, Jim Grelle Tune

Portland — (UPI) — Two veteran trackmen, Alex Henderson of Arizona State and Jim Grelle of Oregon, tuned up for the Oregon AAU meet at Eugene this Friday with convincing victories at the All-Comers track and field meet at Jefferson high field here Saturday.

Henderson, distance star from Australia, recorded a 4:10.6 in the mile to break the meet mark and Grelle took the 440-yard dash in 50.5 and beat an old rival, Washington's Jack Larson, in the 880 with a 1:52.5.

Both Grelle marks were records. Three other standards in the open division were shattered.
