Two Girls 'Kidnap' Own Brother To Prevent Adoption

Sun Valley, Cal.—(UPI)—Little Mike Hill, a chubby 20-month-old whose parents "kidnaped" him to prevent his adoption, was rescued temporarily today of staying with his eight brothers and sisters. The boy was taken by his sisters Sandra, 15, and Genevieve, 13, when the girls overheard their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hill discussing a plan to put Mike out for adoption because Hill couldn't feed the large family. Twenty hours later, after a 30-mile hike, the girls and Mike were found sleeping under a tree in Burbank. They were returned to the family's tiny home.

Unexpected Routine With This Family

Kingstree, S. C.—(UPI)—The unexpected routine to be routine with Thomas McCabe and his family. There is a set of triplets in the family, along with an older boy and a baby girl. In the way of pets, the chilchildren, to hate me. I didn't know the children were close to Mike." "I don't want them, the children have six flying squirrels a Mexican burro, "many chickens" and "all kinds of quail." There also is a mixed-breed dog named Bullet. And now Bullet has brought home and adopted a baby deer.

"I like kids," Hill said. "If I didn't, I wouldn't have had so many. But there's a limit to how far you can stretch a buck an hour."

OPEN TO TRAVEL

London—(UPI)—A father told a juvenile court Tuesday that his son, who had run away from home 208 times, suddenly seems to be overcome with "a strange urge to be somewhere else."

GRANDVIEW-LONE PINE Dairy Goat Club Formed

By LILLIAN KNIGHT

Grandview—Lone Pine—A 4-H dairy goat club, called the Kaper Kids, was recently formed under the leadership of Mrs. Don Lindstrom by a number of children in the community who had goats.

Mothers of the children attend the meetings which are held at the various homes about every two weeks and take active parts in helping the children.

The Young "capriculturists" are preparing their animals for the 4-H fair to be held at the fair grounds this fall.

Two station wagons took the members on a tour the first of last week to see the different animals of the members. Adult leaders on this tour were Mrs. Don Lindstrom, Mrs. Norman Jahn and Mrs. Howard Brooks of Central Point. There are at present 10 members in the club.

The goat dairy under the ownership of Mr. and Mrs. Don Lindstrom now has its full operating license under the name of the Do-Leen Goat Dairy, located at 2793 Springbrook rd. At present they are milking about 25 goats.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Peters and daughter, Gayle, returned to their home in Mountain View, Calif., last Wednesday after visiting a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wickersham and family.

Mary Ann Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Owens, was hostess at a party given at the Owens home Saturday evening, June 14, for a group of her friends. Mrs. Owens, with Mary Ann and Margaret Childers assisting, served refreshments of punch and brownies.

Guests present were Judy Van Gordon, Margaret Childers, Danna Boggs, Jewel Forbes, Patricia Bryant of Ashland, Henry Dalton, Jay

Taylor, Jam Shaw, Nixon Hall, Charles Black of Sams Valley, David Johnson, Charles Stokes, Bud Lowery, and Gerald Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hirsch and son, Lorin, left Monday of last week to return to their home in Los Angeles after visiting a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jahn and family. The two families are friends of long standing.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hewitt are parents of a baby girl, Patricia Diane, born June 13 and weighing six pounds and seven ounces. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Romine of Gold Hill and Mr. and Mrs. DeLoe Sullivan of Talent.

Phillip Frohnmeyer, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Frohnmeyer, came home Thursday morning after undergoing a tonsillectomy in the Rogue Valley hospital Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lindsay with son, Dickie, and daughter, Susan, visited Mr. and Mrs. Norman Palmer and daughter, Thelma, in Glendale, Cal., Sunday, June 22, the day of the big electrical storm in the valley.

They were back home that evening only a short time when COPCO called Lindsay. Even though the COPCO employees worked around the clock there were some sections of this community that were without electricity until Monday morning, about 14 hours. Sandra Palmer, oldest daughter of the Palmers, is now working in Grants Pass.

Bill McCarty came home Sunday after spending a week's vacation visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fagan, in Yreka, Calif. Son Chuck is visiting his grandparents, the Fagans, and
