

Arguing Actress Lands in Trouble

New York (UPI)—Tempestuous actress Betsy Von Furstenberg was in trouble with the law today as a result of her husband's arrest on a drunk driving charge.

Police said the 26-year-old performer tried to argue a patrolman out of arresting her husband, Guy Vincent, 39, and in turn was charged with disorderly conduct and interfering with an officer.

Patrolman David Pritsker said the actress became loud and boisterous, causing a crowd to gather.

Vincent was released on $500 bail for a hearing July 15. Miss Von Furstenberg was released in her own recognizance for a hearing July 18.

Rubber Workers, Producers Agree

Cleveland, Ohio (UPI)—A threatened strike at 19 rubber plants throughout the nation was averted Tuesday night when officials of the United Rubber Workers Union and two major producers agreed to an eight-cent hourly increase for some 33,000 workers.

The across-the-board pay increase was reached in separate talks between the URW and representatives of B. F. Goodrich Co. and the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.

The agreement will be submitted to the URW locals at 10 Goodyear and nine Goodrich plants for ratification. The increase brings the average straight time to $2.60 an hour.

PROFESSOR DIES

New York (UPI)—Dr. Bertram Davis, professor emeritus of physics at Columbia University, died here on Monday at 89. He specialized in the field of X-ray.
