ILLINOIS VALLEY Scouts Go On Hike

By RUTH RAUSCH
Cave Junction—A trio of Scouts from Illinois Valley Troop 20 hiked the 20 miles from Diamond creek to O'Brien last Saturday to complete the requirements for their hiking badge.

The boys, Bob Prather, Jerold Gibbons and Jim Burch, were driven to the spot by "Uncle Billy" Burch, assistant scoutmaster and then left to hike their way home.

Burch met up with the group about half way home and a rest period was taken just long enough to do away with a 27 pound watermelon donated by Frank Gibbons of Gibbon's grocery and father of one of the boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cushing and family left Saturday for a week's vacation in San Francisco.

The Harry O. Smiths have as a visitor, their grandson Steven, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Potwin of Eugene. The young man expects to return home Thursday of this week.

The newest summer inspector to be added to the Redwood Inspection station personnel is Bruce Van Zee Zan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Zee Zan, former residents of O'Brien and now with the Smith River quarantine station.

The Van Zee Zans with Bruce and a friend, Chuck Harmon, were dinner guests of the Robert Bottels Sunday when they drove Bruce here to report for duty. He is a student at Humboldt college in Eureka. Other summer inspectors hired this year include Orvis Seat, Al Hobart and Arthur Cribb.

A two-day camping trip to Jedediah state park last Wednesday and Thursday was taken by the Robert Bottel family.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Drake and sons, Austin, Mike and Stuart of Whittier, Calif., with Mrs. Drake's mother, Mrs. Winifred Clark, of Glendale spent the week end with the Blake Millers. Mrs. Clark is a sister of Mrs. Blake.

Lorraine Moore is pinching Hazel's Beauty Salon while Lee Brennan is vacationing for three weeks.

Mrs. W. O. Burch has just returned from a week with her daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Goines and their seven children, in Fair Oaks, Calif., near Sacramento.

Mrs. Burch brought home with her two of the grandchildren, Deborah and Lawrence, who will be joined here by their brothers and sisters sometime in August.

The next meeting of the Illinois Valley Republican Women's club will be held in the home of Mrs. Lester Hoff, July 9. All Republican women, whether they are members of the club or not are invited to attend.

About 30 youngsters between the ages of six and 12 experienced the thrills, spills and fun of an old fashioned hayride sponsored by the O'Brien Kids' Night association recently.

The Bob Breckenridges were in charge of the ride and used their truck for the hilarious trip to Elk creek recreation camp. The traditional Weiner roast completed the festivities.

Landlords Oppose Municipal Laws

Chicago—(UPI)—A housing publication reports that landlords are conducting determined campaigns against laws passed by several major cities to force compliance with municipal housing codes.

The Journal of Housing said landlords in Chicago, Baltimore, Md., and St. Louis, Mo., occasionally have been effective in their efforts either to block the laws or render them ineffectual.

The landlords' victories, the Journal indicated, stemmed in part from the general unpopularity of the laws and the difficulty of enforcing them.

Chicago's new code went into effect in May. Shortly following its enactment last December, 13 persons lost their lives in tenement blazes in eight days. Mayor Richard J. Daley implemented the code by getting mortgage bankers to agree to ban loans on buildings broken up into smaller units in an illegal manner.

Meanwhile, the Journal said, landlords in Baltimore managed to evade a new law there, and St. Louis landlords tried to substitute laws of their own framing for existing codes.

Teenager Wounded While Squirrel Hunting

Roseburg—(UPI)—William Vaughn White, 16, Roseburg, was in Community hospital here today after wounding himself accidentally when he dropped a high standard .22 caliber pistol which fired on impact.

Attendants said his condition was "satisfactory." The hollow-nose bullet entered his leg below the hip and fragments entered his stomach.

White was squirrel hunting with two companions when the accident occurred.

California's gold was discovered in 1848, only 10 days before the treaty ending the Mexican war and transferring the territory to the United States was finally signed.

AFTER GUN BATTLE—Unidentified detective (right), holds blood-spattered Robert Genereux, 36, after wild gun battle in Pawtucket, R. I., in which two detectives were slain. Police said Genereux went berserk and fatally wounded the two police officers when they tried to arrest him at his house, where he had allegedly been holding his mother captive.
