Newlyweds To Live In California

Hilts—Of interest here is news of the marriage of Marilyn Arlene Horner to Mario B. Michelon at the Craig Memorial Congregational church in Paradise, Calif. The Rev. Arnold A. Brown performed the service before some 200 guests.

Roy D. Horner, father of the bride, escorted her to the altar and her sister, Sylvia, served as maid of honor. Another sister, Lucille, and Miss Fe Rodriguez were bridesmaids.

Karen Plott of Vina was flower girl for her cousin. Best man duties were performed by Gino Michelon of Weed, brother of the bridegroom, while Aristote Perez of Hilts and Jack McAtee of Oroville ushered.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Horner home. The newlyweds will make their home in Sacramento, where they will both be employed as school teachers.

The bride is a graduate of Chico High school, Cottey Junior College in Nevada, Mo., and Chico State college. She taught school in Palermo last year and is a member of the PEO Sisterhood.

Mr. Michelon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Michelon is a graduate of Hills elementary school, Yreka High school and Chico State college. He was principal of Hills school last year.

the officers are Mrs. Luther Day, captain; Mrs. M. Naples, Mrs. Essi Cornell, Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Mrs. George Barber, Mrs. Donald Brand, Mrs. Margaret Smith and Mrs. Edna Ross.

Instilling officers for the ceremonies were Mrs. Harold Head, Truman Brenner, Mrs. Brenner, Mrs. Luther Day, Mrs. Howard P. Jewett, and John Lusk.

Courtesy officers were Miss Janet Kilbourn, Mrs. Orvil Hamilton, Harold Head, Mrs. M. C. McKibbin, Mrs. Edward Vincent, Mrs. Leonard Freeman, Mrs. Paul Torrance, Mrs. William Askwith, Mrs. Elizabeth Faber, Mrs. Guy Tex, Mrs. Francis Russell and Mrs. Frank Ward.

Guests present were Mrs. Melvin McGrew, member of the pay of representative committee of the Oregon grand chapter; Mrs. Orval Shores, grand representative of Illinois in Oregon; Mrs. Rex Note, grand representative of Rhode Island in Oregon; Mrs. R. E. Randolph, grand representative of District of Columbia in Oregon; and Mrs. R. Van Vleet, grand representative of Nova Scotia in Oregon.

Visiting worthy matrons and patrons present were Mrs. R. L. McKay, Ashland; Mrs. M. Richardson, Grants pass; Mrs. Etta McKinney, Medford; R. Brown, Ashland; Herbert Morris, Medford; and Gail Buffington, Jacksonville.

Mr. Iris Pierce sang the altar song for the matron and Hillah Temple chanters sang for the patron.

Large gold baskets filled with gladioli were used to decorate the hall. Mrs. Ted Flury was chairman for the event and the corsages were made from flowers grown by Mrs. Orville Hamilton.

The honor guard for the matron and patron included Linda Warren, queen and Kay Askwith, past queen of Job's Daughters Bethel 138; William Callender, master councilor; Jessie Goff, state junior councilor; Melvin and Douglas Harsh, all of Crater chapter, DeMolay.

Addenda by the officers and courtesy girls using gold chains to form wheels was given for the matron and patron with gifts presented to them.

After closing with the mizpah a reception followed in the dining room. The table was decorated by Mrs. Wyles Berry in keeping with the theme of the evening for the golden anniversary of the chapter.

Miss Cathleen Harsh and Dwight Harsh were in charge of distribution of the programs and the guest book.

Miss Patricia Gosch Wed To Virgil Allen Wilkes

Miss Patricia Kathleen Gosch became the bride of Virgil Allen Wilkes in a private ceremony held June 28 at the Sacred Heart Catholic rectory. The Rev. John Lig officiated at the double ring ceremony held at four o'clock in the afternoon and attended only by family members.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Gosch, 243 North Ivy street. Mr. Wilkes is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil R. Wilkes, 96 Clover lane.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the rectory for the event.

The bride wore a white silk organza waltz length frock fashioned with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her hat was of white horsehair braid with silk tulle trim and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and baby roses.

Mrs. William Driscoll attended her sister. She wore a lime green crystallette frock and carried a colonial nosegay of pink daisies.

Donald F. Legget, Fort Klamath, served as best man. Following the ceremony a dinner was held at the Gosch home for 20 relatives and close friends. Mrs. John Cox was in charge of arrangements.

That evening a reception at the Rogue room of the Medford hotel was attended by 75 relatives and friends. Mrs. J. E. Russell and her daughter, Miss Diana Russell, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Frank Ferrarelli, Corvallis, sister of the bride, and Miss Peggy Wilkes, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Lynne Williams was in charge of the gift table and Mrs. Jack Bailey was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. George Holzgang arranged the bride's table for the reception.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gosch wore a blue lace sheath frock with pink accessories and corsage of pink shattered carnations.

Mrs. Wilkes chose a pink lace dress with matching jacket. Her corsage was of deep pink carnations.

The couple are making their home on Clover lane following their return from a wedding trip to central Oregon and the coast. For her traveling attire the bride wore a sheath frock of blue print silk with white accessories and pink rose corsage.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's high school. Mr. Wilkes attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college where he will be a senior this fall. He served two years with the armed forces in Korea.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at a shower given by Mrs. Jack Bailey at her home at 66 Clover lane. A group of schoolmates and close friends of the bride-elect attended.

Dinner Honors Richard Isaacs
The staff of the Central Point branch, First National bank, honored Richard Isaacs, retiring manager of the branch, and Mrs. Isaacs, at a dinner last Wednesday evening at the Dardanelle in Gold Hill. Mr. Isaacs, who has been manager of the branch since its establishment in December, 1947, has been made assistant manager of the Hedford branch.

Also guests at the dinner were Francis C. Ayres, who has been transferred from the Medford branch and made manager of the Central Point establishment, and Mrs. Ayers.

Twenty-four attended the dinner. During the evening Mrs. Isaacs was presented a corsage, and the staff presented Mr. Isaacs a farewell gift.

Carl S. Hueners, assistant cashier of the Central Point branch, made the presentation.

Woman Arrives To Visit Cousins
Mrs. Cornelia DuBois of Minneapolis arrived in Medford Thursday by plane to spend a week with relatives here. The visitor is a cousin of Mrs. Richard D. Werner, Mrs. Grance Fiero and Mrs. James Stevens, all of Medford.

Mrs. DuBois, a daughter of Dr. Roy Andrews, is a niece of Ed and George Andrews, nationally known musicians and theatrical personalities who at one time lived in Medford.

Nurses to Hold Picnic at Durnos
Oregon Nurses association, District 4, will hold the annual picnic Thursday, July 10, at 6 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Durno, 2512 East Main street, Medford.

A barbecue patio potluck dinner will be served and Miss Gertrude Molloy, delegate to the American Nurses association convention held last month in Atlantic City, will give a report to the group.

Miss Nancy Garrett Wed To Darrel Richard Brown

Of interest to friends here was the wedding of Miss Nancy M. Garrett and Darrel Richard Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orrin L. Brown, 1203 Queen Anne avenue, Medford, June 15 in Milwaukee Church of Christ, Milwaukee, Ore. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Garrett of that city.

The Rev. Alger M. Fitch Jr. officiated at the three o'clock afternoon ceremony. Jay Yelton was soloist and Marvin Eckfeldt played the traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white silk organza over taffeta fashioned with lace applique on the bodice and skirt. Her fingertip length veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a handkerchief of Battenberg lace made by her great-grandmother more than 50 years ago. Her cascade bouquet was of dainty maid roses and stephanotis.

Miss Marjorie E. Hoyer was honor attendant and Miss Kaye Harmon and Miss L. Donna Sandah were bridesmaids. Maryann L. Jones was junior bridesmaid. They wore mint green flopped nylon frocks over matching taffeta and carried cascade bouquets of Shasta daisies. Marilyn Bready was flower girl and wore a yellow nylon frock and carried Shasta daisies.

Kenneth L. Brown served as best man for his brother while Thomas A. Gail, Medford, Darrell L. Perkins and William J. Garrett, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Garrett wore a blue boucle dress with navy accessories. Mrs. Brown chose a beige dress with pink accessories. Their corsages were of pink orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Russell E. Jones, aunt of the bride, cut and served the bride's cake while Miss Karen McKinley presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Kenneth L. Brown, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Mrs. David Jones poured the coffee. Miss Marjorie Berg was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Gerald Bready and Mrs. Wesley Shirley were at the gift tables.

The newlywed couple will make their home in Oakland, Calif., following a wedding trip down the coast. For her traveling attire the bride wore a light blue dress with white accessories.

The bride plans to complete her studies at Oregon State college next spring. Mr. Brown was graduated from Medford High school and Oregon State college where he received his commission in the United States Air Force as a second lieutenant last month.

He will be employed by Gerber Baby Foods company in Oakland until he reports for active duty next April.

Out-of-town guests attending the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Orrin L. Brown, parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Brown, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, all Medford, and Mrs. Mary Parks, Modesto, Calif., grandmother of the bridegroom.
