Hall-Brigden Ceremony Held at Catholic Church

Sacred Heart Catholic church was the setting Saturday, June 28, for the afternoon wedding of Miss Margaret Eleanor Brigden and James William Hall. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale E. Conley, 2 Hamilton street, Medford. Mr. Hall is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Raymond Hall, 139 Highland drive.

The Rev. John H. officiated at the two o'clock ceremony attended by 200 relatives and friends. Baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the church for the ceremony and Bruno Pellegrini played the organ wedding music.

The bride wore an imported white French lace and tulle gown with matching lace mitts. Her white net veil was held by a headpiece of sequins and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. She was escorted to the altar by her father.

Miss Linda Montgomery was honor attendant for the bride. She wore a pale blue taffeta frock with light blue cummerbund. Miss Jeanette Nougier was bridesmaid. She was dressed as Miss Montgomery with her dress of medium blue with pale blue cummerbund. They carried bouquets of pink gladioli.

Robert H. Hall served as best man for his brother while Jack Robinson, Roman A. Lake, Bakersfield, Calif., uncle of the bridegroom, and Hayward Boardman, Fresno, Calif., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, seated the guests. Sam Conley, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Conley wore a blue lace over taffeta dress with pink accessories. Mrs. Hall chose a pale blue sheath dress

Lytle-Hite Rites Held In Ashland

Miss Audrey Florence Hite, daughter of Mrs. W. B. Smith, 1597 Camp Baker road, became the bride of Robert Dean Lytle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Lytle, 100 Meyers Creek road, Ashland, in a ceremony held June 12 in Ashland.

The Rev. Ross Knotts of Ashland First Methodist church officiated at the 7:30 o'clock ceremony attended by 50 relatives and friends.

The bride wore a white lace sheath frock with white feather hat and carried a purple orchid on a Bible. For the traditional "something old" she wore an opal ring that had belonged to her grandmother.

Mrs. Glenn Spriggle, Ashland, attended the bride. She wore an aquamarine colored sheath frock with white accessories and white rose corsage.

Glenn Spriggle served as best man and Keith See, Klamath Falls, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Ernest Lytle, Central Point, brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

White and pink roses and mock orange decorated the church for the ceremony. Miss Raydene Chisum, Phoenix, played the piano wedding music and Mrs. Ernest Lytle, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was soloist.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Methodist church.

The couple are making their home at 100 Meyers Creek road after their return from a wedding trip to the coast. For her traveling attire, the bride wore an avocado colored sheath with matching jacket and white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Phoenix High school. Mr. Lytle is a graduate of Ashland High school. Both of the couple are students at Southern Oregon college, Ashland.

Student Attends FHA Convention

Miss Arvela Prom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Prom, Willow Springs road, Central Point, left this week for Kansas City, Mo., where she will attend the 1938 national meeting of Future Homemakers of America July 7 through 11.

Miss Prom, one of eight delegates from Oregon, is a senior at Crater High School and has been a FHA member since 1935. She has served as chapter secretary and vice-president and is president-elect for 1938-1939. She is also southern Oregon district chairman.

In addition to her FHA activities Miss Prom works in many school organizations. She attended Girls State last month, is a past president of Girls Athletic association, was Girls League secretary and is vice-president of the League. She is a member of the "curtain callers" dramatic group at the high school and has participated in several state speech meets during the past year.

The five day meeting, with the theme "Future Homemakers of America—Teens With a Purpose," is planned and carried out by the teenagers themselves. It will give the Oregon delegates an opportunity to exchange ideas with other delegates from 47 states, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

Attending the meeting will be 430 delegates accompanied by 130 adult FHA advisers. FHA is the national organization of pupils studying homemaking in secondary schools in United States and territories.
