

Central Point Clubs Hold Home Economics Pre-Fair

Central Point—The first Central Point 4-H Home Economic club pre-fair was held June 25 at Crater High school cafeteria.

Cooking and sewing demonstrations were held during the afternoon followed by exhibit judging. The 4-H members judged foods and clothing articles as well. All items were made and donated for use by members of the various clubs in the area.

Ribbons were given for the first time in the home economics division.

Results of the member judging contests were Judy Frink, first; Carolee Kuest, second; Kathy Thompson, third; Jeanette Neugier, fourth; Carol Straus, fifth, and Karen Griggs, sixth.

All of the five sewing and eight cooking clubs in the Central Point area were represented by exhibits and members at the pre-fair.

Judges included Mrs. Lester Gordon, flowers and knitting; Mrs. Don Bradshaw, sewing demonstrations; Miss Mary Pat Lucy and Miss Marilou Garner, cooking and sewing exhibits and cooking demonstrations.

Mrs. Leonard Franek was chairman of the event. The Central Point livestock pre-fair will be held July 26.

CBPW Announce Picnic Monday

The monthly meeting of Christian Business and Professional Women for July will be a picnic Monday, July 7, at 6:30 p.m., at the south end of Hawthorne park. The meal will be postlunch.

Mrs. Eljose Winklebleck will lead group singing, and Miss Gloria Haggard will give the evening devotional.

Any interested woman in the community is invited to the picnic, and those who regularly attend the group's meetings are asked to bring a friend with them. Information concerning the Monday evening event may be obtained by telephoning Mrs. G. F. Coldwell, MURdock 2-4482, or Miss Hazel Hansen, SPRing 2-4539.

Alden Joys Make Home In Ashland

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. Alden Clifford Joy are making their home in Ashland following the marriage recently at the Ashland Congregational church. Mrs. Joy is the former Nora Lou Oakerman daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Chatfield, Montague, California. Mr. Joy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Joy, 1665 Siskiyou boulevard, Ashland.

The Rev. Fred Plocher officiated at the three o'clock afternoon ceremony. Miss Margaret Ramsey played the traditional organ wedding music and Miss Julie Joy, sister of the bridegroom, was soloist. Pink and white gladioli decorated the church for the event.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace and net gown styled with lace bodice and bouffant tiered skirt of net and lace. Her fingertip length tulle veil fell from a circlet and she carried a bouquet of white staphanotis encircling a white orchid.

Miss Betty Stout, Grants Pass, was honor attendant and Miss Luella Oakerman, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore gowns of lace and net and carried pink carnations. Miss Stout was in pale green while Miss Oakerman's dress was pale pink.

Marvin Hamilton, Ashland, served as best man and Robert Burgess and Keith Wilson seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Chatfield wore a blue crepe and lace frock with white accessories. Mrs. Joy chose a beige lace dress with pink and white hat and white accessories. Their corsages were of pink rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church social rooms.

The couple spent their honeymoon at the coast. For her traveling attire the bride wore a blue suit with white accessories and white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Alturas, Calif., High School and attended business school in Reno. Mr. Joy is a graduate of Ashland High School and is employed by the United States forest service there.

Robert Hamilton In South Dakota

Robert Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton, 43 Rose avenue, is spending a month in South Dakota visiting with his brother, Alex, and wife, and Mrs. Hamilton's father, Pierce McDowell. Young Hamilton went east by bus, traveling by way of Reno and Salt Lake City, and expressed the opinion that he "never saw so much of nothing" in his life, and that where he went across, the Rockies were just a high desert.

Rock and Gem Club to Meet

Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral club will meet Wednesday, July 9, in Redman hall at 7:30 p.m. Members are reminded that birthstone for July is the ruby, and that members may bring any kind of specimens for identification.

Reports of the recent rock show will be given. The show was said to have been highly successful, with persons attending from Washington, Idaho, Arizona and California as well as many parts of Oregon.

The dust ruffle chemise is fashioned by Tina Leser in dotted cotton. Loose-fitting with a ruffled hem, this casual dress is topped off with a turban.

Queen Selected For Celebration

Canyonville — Mrs. R. E. (Annie Worthington) Cassidy was selected Dowager Queen of Canyonville's Centennial celebration, to be held August 9-10, during an old-timer's picnic Sunday at the Canyonville County park.

Mrs. Helen Couglar, the only other candidate, automatically gets the title of matron of honor. A third nominee, Mrs. Emma DeWald, declined the nomination because of ill health. Both the queen and the matron of honor will be honored at a dinner to precede the celebration.
