

PHOENIX Woman Back From Trip

By LILLIAN KNIGHT
Phoenix—Mrs. B. A. Montgomery returned to her home June 17 from visiting in Calif.

In Fresno she visited her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Montgomery, and her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller. In Englewood she visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fellows, daughter of the Marvin Montgomerys, and their new baby son.

Mrs. Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Montgomery went to Missoula, Mont. where they attended on June 15 the wedding of Bruce, her grandson, and son of the Marvin Montgomerys. Upon returning to California Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Montgomery and their two girls of Bakersfield brought her home and stayed with her a week.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Cowart of Watsonville, Calif., a niece of Mrs. B. A. Montgomery, visited her a few days.

Mrs. Walter Germer underwent major surgery Tuesday morning at the Rogue Valley hospital in Medford. She is not allowed visitors as yet and will remain in the hospital about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lerfeld left to return to their home in Grand Forks, N.D., Thursday, after being house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Mitchell three days. Lerfeld is an instructor at the University of North Dakota and he and Mitchell are former classmates at Wapetons, N.D.

While here the two families motored to Water lake and to Glass mountain in northern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Huest and their three children of Compton, Calif., are on a ten-day vacation here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chriss, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carrel Hurst, of Medford who are former Phoenix residents. Huest is assistant manager of the J. C. Penney store in Compton.

Dennis Leon Chriss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chriss, and Miss Jean Bennett of Sutherlin, Ore. were married in the Christian church at Sutherlin June 22. They are now making their home in Medford and Chriss is employed at the plywood plant there.

A family dinner was held Wednesday evening at the Carl Chriss home with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Huest and their three children, Mr. and Mrs. Carrel Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Chriss attending.

Mrs. Elta Smith and Mrs. B. A. Montgomery went to Ashland Wednesday morning to do some shopping.

The Reverend and Mrs. Eldon Milton returned to their home in Missouri last week after visiting here a few days with Mrs. B. A. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Vroman and other relatives and friends. Mrs. Milton is the former Edith Wright, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wright. She attended Phoenix schools.

Mrs. Willis House is home recuperating from major surgery performed about two weeks ago. She will not be allowed visitors for a few days.

A. J. Chapman came home Wednesday from Salem, where he has been in a hospital since May 22. He is able to be up and around part of the time and may have visitors. Mrs. Mildred Burdon, daughter of the Chapmans, and her two children, arrived Sunday from Chicago to be with her parents for an indefinite length of time.

Betty Leona is the name chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krause for their baby daughter born June 23 at the Rogue Valley hospital. She weighed six and one half pounds.

Mrs. M. E. Norton and her daughter, Mrs. Richard Kane, and Mrs. Kane's three children, Kathy, Mark and Bryan, recently returned home after a few days spent visiting relatives in Bakersfield and Los Angeles. They went to Disneyland and Knott's Berry Farm in Los Angeles, visited the resort, Carmel - By-The-Sea, and Santa's Village in Santa Cruz.

In Los Angeles they visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Inman and their daughter, Jeanine, former Phoenix residents. Mrs. George Hartley is able to do her own housework now and can go places in the car after having a long recuperation from a heart attack early this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stancliffe recently returned home after vacationing in Reno, Las Vegas, at Hoover dam, Grand Canyon, Zion National park in Utah, and Salt Lake City. They visited 1st. Lt. Gary Denzer in Ogden, Utah.

Mrs. Melvina Barr and daughter, Bertie, of Klatskanie, Ore., were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stancliffe. Mrs. Barr is working on her bachelor's degree this summer at Southern Oregon college. She and Mrs. Stancliffe were classmates in college.

Mrs. Bert Stancliffe honored Mrs. Walter Germer June 26 with an outdoor birthday dinner at the Stancliffe home.

Mrs. Roby Isaacs, Jr. was hostess for a birthday dinner given in honor of her father, Bert Stancliffe, Sunday at her home in Jacksonville. Before dinner the Isaacs and Stancliffes took in the baseball game at Camp White. Mrs. Beverly Reynolds and daughter Donna also attended the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWayne Mitchell, who recently returned to the States after teaching two years in Guam, visited Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stancliffe a few days ago. Mrs. Mitchell is the former Hugh Bell and a former Phoenix High school teacher. She and her husband taught in the Junior High schools in Medford also.

Reciprocal Trade Bill Set for Group

Washington—(UPI)—Senate finance committee members said Saturday it's "touch and go" whether President Eisenhower's five-year reciprocal trade extension bill will be cut back in that body this week.

The House-passed legislation would allow the President to cut tariff rates an additional 25 per cent in negotiating foreign trade agreements. It goes on the committee table for possible legislative surgery starting Tuesday.

Sen. Wallace F. Bennett (R-Utah) said in an interview that it is by no means a "foregone conclusion" that the five-year extension granted by a 317-98 vote of the House will be approved by the committee.

Central Point Youth Injured in Crash

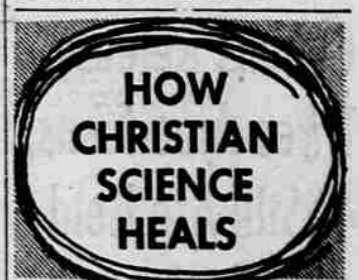

A Central Point youth was taken to Ashland General hospital Friday with an injured arm following a one-car accident on Highway 66 four miles east of Ashland, according to state police.

David Russell Monia, 18, of 47 Laurel st., Central Point, suffered a compound fracture of the left arm but was reported in good condition Saturday morning by hospital authorities.

Officers reported that the Monia vehicle was westbound at 11:36 p.m. when he lost control of the car on a curve. The vehicle travelled 150 yards in the ditch on the wrong side of the highway, crashed through a wooden obstacle, and finally came to rest two-tenths of a mile from where it originally left the road.

Extensive damage to the vehicle was reported.
