

Stengel Jubilant After AL Victory; Credits McDougald and O'Dell

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor
Baltimore, Md. (UPI)—
"Let 'em boo," Casey Stengel said today.
He felt he had vindicated the entire American League.
Stengel took the boosing Tuesday, but they were cheering him at the end after he guided the American League to a come-from-behind victory over the National League in the silver anniversary All-Star game.

The triumph was Stengel's third in eight All-Star tries and to him, at least, the greatest. More than that, however, it gave him the glowing satisfaction of winning over 48-829 Baltimore fans who roared him in the sixth inning for replacing one of their "home town" favorites.
It all came about when one of the seven Yankee players Stengel named to round out his squad turned out to be a dud. But grizzled old Casey kept going with his guys and, later in the same inning, came up with a fellow who won the ball game for him.

It was Gil McDougald, pinchhitting for winning pitcher Early Wynn, whose single drove in the winning run.

On the Spot
Before that, though, Stengel had put himself on the spot.

With the score tied at 3-3 and third baseman Frank Malzone of the Red Sox on first base, Stengel called for the leadoff hitter, Stengel sent in his own Yankee catcher, Yogi Berra, to bat for Gus Triandos, the Orioles' catcher who had been chosen for the starting position. No ball mark, including the Memorial Stadium here, could be wrecked by boos but those which greeted Stengel's decision to bat Berra for Triandos came pretty close to it.

And those boos were nothing compared to the cheer which swept the stadium when Berra popped out weakly to third baseman Frank Thomas.

Stengel then called on Ted Williams of the Red Sox to bat for shortstop Luis Aparicio.
Williams hit a wobbly ground ball between third and short. Third baseman Thomas couldn't come up with it and was charged with an error on the difficult chance, Malzone going to second.

That's when Casey went to his bench again, calling on McDougald.

McDougald ran the count to two balls and one strike and then looped losing pitcher Bob Friend's next pitch into short center field, scoring Malzone. That turned out to be the ball game.

The top tribute Stengel paid was to southpaw pitcher Billy Digger O'Dell of the Orioles, who retired nine National League players in a row after McDougald's hit put the A.L. in front.

Stengel, who won the game with one of his own Yankees, made it plain that he thought he saved it with one of the Orioles—O'Dell.

"I'm kinda glad an Oriole guy saved it for us, and I mean this guy O'Dell," Stengel said. "And I'm not too unhappy that one of those guys I picked, say like McDougald, came through with a hit that made the difference."

TIGERS SIGN TWO
Detroit — (UPI) — Gerald Blanks, a Detroit native who went to Denver university, and Jim Harold, Thomasville, Pa., have signed Class A contracts with the Detroit Tigers.
Blanks, an infielder-outfielder, signed with Lancaster of the Eastern League and Harold signed with Augusta of the South Atlantic League.

CROSS-EYED STUDEBAKER—Lou Kurz and his cross-eyed Studebaker ran into tough luck in the first stock car race this season. However, believing his troubles are over, he is ready for all comers this Saturday night at the Valley View Speedway, north of Ashland.

Drag Races Slated at CW July 12

Racing got off to a fine start June 21, 1958, in the stock car events on the Valley View Speedway, north of Ashland and east of the Hot Springs.

Drivers who have had troubles have been working during the last few weeks to be ready for the race set for Saturday, July 12, at 8 p.m. This is one of a series of stock car races scheduled for July 12, 19 and 26, Aug. 2, 16 and 30, and Sept. 7, which will feature the championship final.

Racing officials say more cars are to be entered in the event Saturday. Red McGil-ver says he is ready. Doyce Lemley expects to take over No. 1 spot for Wayne and hopes for another win in the main event. Jerry Weir is also expected to be in the race. Jack Keck Jr. is looking for parts for his No. 44 reliable Hudson.

hits and Rhodes got a double.

Medford team, also got a double.

the Medford Tigers, got three for three during the after-

Giants' Chief Rivals Stengel As Juggler

United Press International San Francisco — (UPI)— Move over, Casey Stengel! Let Bill Rigney of the San Francisco Giants share that throne for the "world's greatest lineup juggler."

Either Rigney has the best sense of timing in making lineup changes, or he has the greatest band of bench-warmers ever to grace a major league roster.

Take your pick.
The Giants are one game out of first place in the torrid National League race, with the season half gone. And to this day, Rigney can't name a starting lineup.

"I just try to keep the man who is hot in the game," says Rigney. "When one of our guys goes into a slump, I'll pull another man off the bench."

"So far, the fellow coming off the bench usually has a few hits in his system to keep us in contention."
Willie Holds Place
Only three spots on the Giant lineup have withstood the constant shifting by Rigney: Catcher, where rookie Bob Schmidt is doing a herculean job; centerfield, where the brilliant Willie Mays performs; and shortstop, where Daryl Spencer is having his greatest year. All have missed a few games—but usually are not subject to day-to-day shifts.

Urquhart Hurls Three Hitter

Salt Lake City — (UPI)— Don Urquhart pitched a three-hitter Tuesday night as Salt Lake City whipped Portland 8-2 in the opener of a Pacific Coast League series before 5,310 fans.

Urquhart, in picking up his ninth win of the year, faced only 30 Beavers. He gave up single runs in the fifth when George Freese doubled and Bob DePietro singled and again in the ninth when Jack Littrell smashed a pinch hit home run.

The Bees exploded for five runs in the third to chase Portland starter John Buz-hardt. They picked up a run in the first and added single runs in the fourth and fifth off reliever Howie Judson.

Urquhart retired the first 12 men in order before Freese broke the spell in the fifth.
The two clubs play again tonight with Al Lary 5-4 scheduled to go for the Beavers against Salt Lake City's Jim Hardison 3-4.

NW League Lead Shared By Lewiston, Yakima

By United Press International Mel Krause is carried on the roster of the Eugene Em-eralds as an infielder, but it begins to look as if the former University of Oregon star has found a home on the hill.
Krause took to the mound Tuesday night in the second half of a twin bill and spaced four hits as Eugene nipped Tri-City 7-1. The victory was Krause's second without defeat.

Krause fanned six and walked but on in notching the decision and coasted home behind Eugene's 10-hit attack.

Bob Wales turned in a sparkling three-hitter in the opener to lead the Emeralds to a 1-0 decision. Carl Hutzler reached first on an error in the fourth, moved up on a single by Ron Condon and crossed on a single by Bill East-burn for Eugene's lone run.

Lewiston moved into a first-place tie with Yakima on the heels of a 13-8 victory over Salem. Ken Moursund went the route for the victors although battered for 14 hits.
He now stands 6-4.

Bruce McIntosh was the big sticker for Lewiston, pounding out four hits including a home in the fourth. Tony An-

"We'll Win By 10..." Logan

Baltimore, Md. — (UPI)—
What's all the excitement about? We'll win by 10 games.

John Logan was referring to the struggling world champion Milwaukee Braves whose National League lead has shrunk from 8½ games to only one in the last week.
"I can't understand why people are getting panicky about the Braves' chances," said Logan, after appearing in Tuesday's All-Star game.

"None of us on the club are worried. Why should we when we all feel we have the best club in the league? What's wrong with us now? I'll tell you. A couple of us aren't hitting, myself included."

"I think I've gotten one hit in the last 55 times up," he said. "My average has gone from .02 to .27. I'll snap out of it. And I'm sure that fellows like Eddie Mathews and Red Schoendienst, who have been in a slump, too, will start hitting soon."

JOCKEY HURD IS FALL

Inglewood, Calif. — (UPI)— Jockey Frank Costa suffered painful injuries Tuesday in a fall at Hollywood Park and track physician Dr. Theodore H. Miller said the rider probably would be sidelined from four to six months. Costa was thrown when his mount, Mer-rica, clipped the heels of another horse in the third race and stumbled.
