

Vancouver Tops League Leading San Diego 3-2

By EYE BRYANT
United Press International

The pitchers dominated Thursday's play in the Pacific Coast League as the loop's three top clubs once again found themselves no more than a game apart.

Pete Burnside of Phoenix led all mound performances with a brilliant one-hit, 7-0 shutout at Spokane to halt a three-game Indian winning string and move the Giants to within a half game of first-place San Diego. The fast-balling left-hander gave up only one single and two walks while striking out four.

George Bamberger threw a five-hitter at San Diego to give Vancouver a 3-2 win, the Mounties' first of the current series. The victory moved the third-place Canadians to within a single game of the front-running Padres.

Judson Quells Fire
Portland benefited from an excellent relief job from veteran Howie Judson at Salt Lake as the Beavers scored a come-from-behind 6-4 decision in 11 innings. Judson allowed the Bees only two runs in the 10 1-3 innings he worked.

In another extra-inning contest, Sacramento came up with a 10-9 win over Seattle when Harro Bright singled in the winning run in the last of the 12th.

Dusty Rhodes gave Burnside all the lead he needed when the Giant outfielder smashed his 17th homer of the season with one aboard in the opening frame. Andre Rodgers completed the Phoenix home run production with a 370-foot blast in the seventh, his 20th four-bagger of the year.

Homer Decides It

Joe Durum lined his 16th homer in the fifth inning at San Diego to score the deciding run. The Padres had knotted the count at 2-2 with a pair of markers in the fourth. San Diego got the tying run on second with one out in the ninth but Bamberger retired the last two batters to end the game.

Portland scored a single run in the top of the ninth on a pair of doubles to send the Salt Lake-Beaver game into extra innings. Dave Melton's leadoff double in the 11th set

GUN CLUBS TO PRACTICE

The Medford Gun club will hold a practice shoot Sunday, July 13, according to Bert Peck, vice-president. Included in the practice will be skeet, trap, and 16-yard shooting. The practice is slated as a warm-up for the P.I.T.A. Grand Pacific which will be held in Reno, Nev. the following weekend. Peck also announced that the Ed Pease Handicap will be shot if the competitors wish.

the stage for the visitors' winning two-run rally. Al Lary came on with one away in the bottom of the 11th to retire the final two Bee hitters.

Sacramento breezed out to an early seven-run lead over Seattle, but the Rainiers went ahead 9-7 with six runs in the eighth. The Solons came back with a pair of markers in the bottom of the ninth to send the game into extra-innings and leave it up to Bright, who also poled a two-run homer in the first.

Riddle Holds Undisputed Lead in RVL Baseball

Riddle continues to lead the Rogue Valley baseball league under the fine pitching of Duane Miller who has a spotless three and zero win-loss record this season.

In team batting Riddle dropped from second to third and Cave Junction retained its top spot with a healthy .350 per cent.

Jim Eggers, sporting a two-win, no-loss record with the Camp White nine, is one of the big reasons that his club is holding down second place along with Cave Junction. They both now carry a two

Clubs Slate Car Rally Here

A Sports car rally is scheduled this weekend with members from four California and Oregon clubs scheduled to converge at Medford Saturday. Fifty cars from Eureka and Redding, Calif., and Eugene and Medford have entered the two-day event so far, according to Dr. Paul Roberts of Eureka, rally chairman.

Cars are scheduled to rally at Hawthorne park during the day Saturday and that evening participating drivers will banquet at the Rogue Valley Country club. Prizes to drivers from each club will be presented at the banquet.

Porterfield Wings OPG Tournament

Redmond — (UPI) — Walt "Boots" Porterfield, former Wisconsin open golf champ, today held the Oregon Professional Golf Association match play title.

Porterfield defeated Bob Gasper of Cottage Grove, 7 and 5, in hot weather here Thursday in the state PGA finals.

Porterfield, 31-year-old new pro at Grants Pass, was four-up over Gasper after the first nine holes and was six-up after the first 18. The match ended on the 13th hole of the second round when Gasper over shot the green with his tee shot and then his pitch was long over the green again.

Porterfield was near the pin on his second shot and Gasper conceded the hole and the match.

Porterfield earned $360 for his victory and Gasper got $240 as runnerup.

Ortega to Meet Crawford in TV Ten-Rounder

New York — (UPI) — Welterweight contenders Mickey Crawford and Gaspar Ortega, gunning for a title shot, will tangle in a TV 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Brown-haired Crawford, a commercial artist from Saginaw, Mich., is favored at 13-10 over the Mexican Indian because of his speed and skill. But lanky Gaspar is the harder puncher.

Each hopes that an impressive victory will move him toward a September title shot with champion Virgil Akins.

ANTHONY KAYOS BRAD
Los Angeles — (UPI) — Tony Anthony, number two lightweight contender, needed only 50 seconds to score a first round knockout over Cal Brad, California's 175-pound champion, Thursday night at Olympic Auditorium. It was Anthony's fourth straight knockout victory since he was stopped by champion Archie Moore in the same ring last year in a title fight.

DA Strikes At Boxing Promoters

New York — (UPI) — An underworld "Mr. Big" may be handed the next indictment in District Attorney Frank Hogan's heavy-fisted crackdown on professional boxing.

Reports that a prominent underworld figure was next on Hogan's list circulated Thursday after the district attorney indicted matchmaker Jimmy White on charges of conspiring to "fix" a fight and of being a "front man" for Frankie Carbo, tagged "the No. 1 boxing racketeer in the country" by Hogan's office.

It was the second indictment handed down by a grand jury investigating racketeering and corruption in boxing. Fight manager Hymie Wallman was accused last week of bribing boxing judge Bert Grant to influence his decisions.

Wallman has been ordered to appear for a hearing on the bribery charges July 17.

White, whose real name is Samuel Crosser, was charged with trying to fix a welterweight elimination bout between Virgil Akins and Isaac Logart at Madison Square Garden last March 21. He also was accused of acting as the undercover, unlicensed manager of Logart in that bout.

Logart, a 2-1 favorite, was knocked out by Akins in the sixth round of the scheduled 12-rounder.

If convicted as charged, White, who has served as a matchmaker in Miami, Scranton, Pa., and Denver, can be sentenced to two years in jail and fined $1,000.

Favorites Advance in Oregon Tennis Tourney

Portland — (UPI) — Top-seeded Yoshi Minegishi, Berkeley, advanced in the Oregon State tennis tournament at Irvington Club here Thursday with an easy 6-1, 6-2 win over Mike Cummer of Yakima in junior men's singles play.

Keeping close on the heels of the favorite were Seattle's Bill Burley who defeated John Garber, San Francisco, 6-2, 6-2, and Harry Doyle of Portland, who whipped Dave Moffit, Seattle, 6-1, 6-0.

In the junior women's division, top-seeded Farel Footman of San Francisco, breezed by Patty Murphy of Portland, 6-0, 6-1. Pat Miller of Portland, second-seeded, whipped June Anderson, Tacoma, 6-0, 6-1, and third-seeded Susan Proctor, Los Angeles, defeated Vickie Berner, Vancouver, B.C., 6-0, 6-4, in other junior women's play.

Favorite John Yeomans, Los Angeles, defeated Ken Dahl, Vancouver, B.C., 6-2, 6-2, in action in the boys' singles.

Minegishi teamed with Jim McNanus, Berkeley, to whitewash John Creighton and Warren Ahlen, Seattle, 6-0, 6-0, and Harry Doyle and Mike Hogarty, Billings, Mont., defeated Fred Fogg and Dan Cramer, Tacoma, 6-1, 6-1, in junior men's doubles competition.

Quarterfinal pairings for men's singles today pit defending champion Bill Rose, Portland, against Dick Moody, Los Angeles. Bob Sherman, Los Angeles plays Jim Jackson, Klamath Falls, Ore., Glenn Bassett, Los Angeles, tangles with Art Kono, Seattle, and Doyle Perkins, Seattle, tests Jim Watson, San Francisco.

Tigers, CP Win in Pee Wee Ball
Central Point crushed Talent 25-3 and the Medford Tigers squeezed out a 2-1 victory over the Ashland Cubs in Southern Oregon junior baseball Pee Wee league action Thursday afternoon.

The Central Pointers collected 14 hits including five for extra bases. Niel Rivenberg, Tim Groshong, Larry Mason, and Dave Twedell each hit a three-bagger and Tom Pendleton managed a double.

Hitting hero for the winning home team was Rivenberg who got two singles to go with his triple for a three for three day at the plate. Central Point stole 11 bases during the route.

In the other game, Medford led off the scoring with one run in the second following a walk issued to Mike Barnes. Barnes stole second, was sacrificed to third, and stole home.

The Cubs broke into the scoring in the fourth on a single, stolen base, and an error. The winning run came when the Cubs pitcher balked with a man on third.

Jr. Golf at RVCC Slated

The annual Southern Oregon Junior Golf tournament, Monday and Tuesday, July 14 and 15 at the Rogue Valley Country club is expected to attract some of the best junior golfers in the state. Fifty juniors have already entered the tournament, including two state champions from Medford. Champion Mike Monroe in the boys' division and Doug Olson in the Pee Wees' division will both be favored in the tournament and should be ready for the contest, according to assistant club pro Marion Helton.

The junior boys division will also attract such respected players as John Kerr, a former Medford resident now from Portland, and possibly Stewart Schroeder of Medford. Helton reported that the division is expected to be well balanced.

The Girls' division will be headed by Pam Stacey of Medford and Treasure Sullivan of Ashland. Miss Sullivan was medalist in the state tournament held in Portland earlier this year.

In addition to the fifty entries already recorded, Helton reported that the club expects several more before starting times are made up Saturday.

GALLANT MAN FAVORED
Inglewood, Calif. — (UPI) — Gallant Man today lolled in his barn at Hollywood Park while racing fans virtually conceded him Saturday's $162,100 Hollywood Gold Cup. The little thoroughbred, one of the nation's top contenders for horse of the year honors, headed a small field of five horses named for the mile and a quarter race which guarantees the winners $100,000 net.

SENATORS LOSE BRIDGES
Washington — (UPI) — Rocky Bridges, the Washington Senators' sparkplug during the first half of the season and their only representative on the American League All-Star team, will be sidelined for six weeks with a broken jaw. He was struck by one of Frank Lary's pitches during the second inning of Washington's 5-3 victory Thursday night and was taken to Georgetown Hospital.

John Nuich and Dutch Nulton defeated Jerry Olson and Leland Clark three and two for the championship of the first flite in the Men's two ball tournament at the RVCC last week.

WOMEN'S OPEN Has Cornelius, Berg in Lead
Minneapolis, Minn. — (UPI) — Patty Berg and Kathy Cornelius, a pair of former U.S. Open champions, headed the list of par-breaking golfers as the American Women's Open entered its second round at Brookview Country Club today.

Both carded four-under-par 72's in the opening round of the $7,500 tournament Thursday, but they were only one stroke ahead of a trio of other professional stars — Marlene Bauer Hage, Louise Suggs and Mary Lena Faulk.

A pretty 15-year-old, Carol Sorenson, Janesville, Wis., startled the field when she fired a two-under-par 74. She was tied with Joyce Ziske and Bev Hanson.
