

Mrs. Raymond Furry, in charge of the Phoenix post office, was one of those who poured during the garden party Wednesday afternoon at Hanleylands for those attending the annual convention in Medford. Here she is serving Mrs. S. G. Schwartz (at left), Portland, and Mrs. King Cady, Newburg, Ore. Most of the guests toured the extensive gardens of Hanleylands during the afternoon.

Palmer Honored

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Palmer, 3638 Bursell road, Central Point, were honored July 1 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bostock, Ross lane, on their golden wedding anniversary. Friends and relatives of the Palmers planned the event as a surprise to the couple. The couple was married in Ridgeway, Colo., July 1, 1908, and moved to the Medford area in 1929. A tiered heart shaped cake was served. The serving table was decorated with white and yellow gladiolus and tapes. The group presented the Palmers with a money tree as an anniversary gift.

Platz Gallery Hangs Paintings

Selected works by twelve Southern Oregon artists are hung this month at the Clifford Platz gallery in the Purucker Music house, Medford. The artists are from Yreka, Calif., Grants Pass, Ashland and Eagle Point. These pictures were chosen at the Grants Pass annual show and from the Yreka Art show; most of them are ribbon winners. Appreciation is expressed by Mr. Platz to those contributing to the exhibit. Brochures are available at the gallery in the Piano room, 111 North Central avenue, Medford.

Wives of post office employees in the Medford system assisted with the garden party which Mrs. E. B. Hanley and Mrs. Hanley Heffernan gave at Hanleylands last Wednesday afternoon for delegates and visitors to the annual convention of Oregon chapter, National Association of Postmasters. Pictured here at one of the refreshment tables set up in the extensive gardens of Hanleylands, are (left to right) Mrs. Prentice Petty, Mrs. George Evans, Central Point, and Mrs. Budd Gail.

Latest Footlighter Play To Open Tuesday Evening

"Laura" three act murder mystery by Vera Caspary and George Sklar, now in rehearsal by Medford Footlighters, will open Tuesday, July 15, for a five night run, according to Leslie Boardman, president of the civic group. Based on the novel of the same name by Vera Caspary, the suspense "thriller" had a long run on Broadway before it was released for little theater production, the president said. The play has a cast of five men and three women. The title role is carried by the "murdered victim", who, in spite of her absence, manages to continue her spell over the male characters throughout the play. One of the most hopelessly smitten on Laura is the detective investigating the case, who has never met the deceased heroine but comes to understand her by studying her personal effects and the evidence around her death. Directing the play is Thayer Tarvin, while the cast consists of John Wright, Dorothy Sloniger, Helen Ashley, Lida Smith, Mr. Boardman, Bill Petty, Al Reiss and Frank Buchter. Mrs. John Wright will act as bookholder for the production. Tickets for "Laura" may be obtained at Puruckers, Swens and from members of the cast as well as at the box office. Gettogether Club Announces Party Gettogether club will meet Friday, July 18, at 1 p.m. for a dessert and card party at the Girls Community club. The public is invited to attend.
