

President Appoints Chairmen

Miss Laurene Kell, Grants Pass, recently elected president of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary of Oregon, has announced the appointive chairmanships for the year.

They include, Mrs. Tom Lafferty, Ashland, historian; Mrs. Henrietta Dill, Brookings, assistant guard; Mrs. Marie Bowling, Grants Pass, soloist; Mrs. Ted Hopinks, Rogue River, membership; Mrs. Russel Zundel, Medford, buddy poppy; Mrs. Letha Preston, Grants Pass, publicity; Mrs. Harry Birch, Shady Cove, department hospital director and Camp White hospital chairman; and Mrs. Harry Prentice, Medford member of the auxiliary in Camp White assistant chairman.

Miss Kell, a native of Gold Hill where she was graduated from high school, moved to her Medford residence at 520 North Bartlett street, in April 1932.

A member of the VFW auxiliary for 12 years the new state president is the only de-historian of the department to have completely advanced through all of the offices from guard to president. As a charter member of the Gold Hill auxiliary she served as president of the chapter from 1947 through 1949. In 1950 she transferred to the Grants Pass auxiliary.

Miss Kell is a disabled veteran having served with the United States Navy WAVES during World War II. She is a daughter of Charles Kell, Gold Hill, and her three brothers, Ernest, Clarence and Leonard Kell, all of Gold Hill, all served overseas during World War II.

Lodge Initiates Mayor Snider

A birthday party was held following the meeting for members who had birthdays between January 1 and June 30. About 25 knights were present. The birthday cake was served by Roland G. Beach and coffee was served by Edward Bostwick and his entertainment committee.

Next meeting will be held Monday, July 14, at 8 p.m. J. Russell Wilson and Joe W. Fritsch will take charge of the social hour.

Oriental Cosmetics Imported Into U. S.

San Francisco — (UPI) — A woman who has used Oriental cosmetics for many years thinks other American women may like them and has gone into the importing business.

Mrs. Rose L. Chow has begun importing powder and rouge from Sam Fong's Products in Hong Kong. The manufacturer's title is not a man's name but means "Three Beauties." The firm exports its products mainly to India, the Philippines and other Asian countries.

One of the items being imported here is a powder paper—a booklet of thin powdered sheets which can be torn out singly and discarded after use.

Gardeners Hold Annual Dinner

Central Point — Central Point Garden club met recently at the home of Mrs. Eugene Orr, Old Stage road, for their annual potluck dinner.

A convention report was given by Mrs. Everett Young, president, who announced that the club had won a blue ribbon for its yearbook.

Garden arrangements for the meeting were brought by Mrs. R. D. Kay, Mrs. Wallace West, Mrs. L. C. Gordon and Mrs. John Holmer. Prizes were won by Mrs. O. T. Wilson, Mrs. H. W. Sturgeon and Mrs. E. H. DeGarmo.

New Unit Organized For Derby

Derby—Women of the Derby community, between Reese Creek and Butte Falls, organized a home extension unit Tuesday afternoon when they met in the Derby school gymnasium.

Officers elected for the new Derby unit are Mrs. F. G. Haworth, chairman; Mrs. T. Huckaba, vice-chairman; Mrs. William Dunlap, secretary; Mrs. Edward Burg, treasurer.

Others present were Mrs. Dean Bush, Mrs. Dean Bush Jr., Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. James Shepherd, Mrs. Hugh Laird, Mrs. Roscoe Arent, Mrs. Elbert Hemley, Mrs. Charles Hayes and Mrs. Hemingway of the community.

Officers plan to attend officers training day at Crater High school, Central Point, July 23. Registration will start at 9:30 a.m. for the training day.

Regular meetings of the local group will start the second Thursday in September. Child care is to be arranged so that mothers may enjoy the lessons better.

The first project in the fall will be craftwork which will be useful for making Christmas gifts.

For the present, lunches will be potluck with each bringing her own table service.

Miss Mary Pat Lucy, home extension agent, demonstrated the lesson, "Freezer Foods." She prepared nectar-berries with a sugar pack and explained types of containers, wrappings, and methods of placing them in the freezer for economical use of space.

Miss Lucy used cauliflower as a type of vegetable for freezing. She blanched the cauliflower in hot water boiling on a portable gasoline stove. After four minutes, she then placed it in ice water to cool thoroughly before packing in freezer cartons.

From pamphlets on meat and fish, and cooked foods, she explained how the housewife can have foods ready for special occasions.

Mrs. W. W. Jackson of the Eagle Point unit, District 2 representative of the County Home Extension committee, and Mrs. Ted Fredenburg of the Butte Falls unit, retiring District 2, County Committee member, were present to help the new unit organize.

Lodge To Hold Annual Picnic

Medford Moose lodge has planned the annual picnic for Sunday, August 10 at Tou Velle park. The lower section of the park has been reserved for the Moose beginning at 12 noon.

Paul Dorf, general chairman of the 1938 picnic, advised that he plans a full day of activity, with baseball, horseshoes, and many other games for the adults, as well as games for the children. There will also be special events presented at intervals during the day.

New Dressing

For the best fruit salad dressing you ever tasted, combine ¼ cup maple syrup with three well-beaten egg yolks; cook, stirring constantly, over low direct heat until thick; cool, season with salt and one tablespoon fresh lemon juice. Fold in one cup whipped cream and ½ cup walnut pieces. Divide over canned cling peaches or pears.

Convocation Announced By Lodge

Crater Lake chapter will be host to Royal Arch Masons in Oregon and surrounding states in a special outdoor convocation Saturday, July 19. This is an annual affair held at Thompson creek forestry camp in the Applegate district in which candidates are given the Royal Arch degree. This outdoor convocation was inaugurated a number of years ago by Crater Lake chapter and continues to grow in popularity and interest to Royal Arch Masons in Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho and California.

In charge of selecting a cast for the degree is Most Excellent Vernon A. Turpin, past grand high priest of Oregon, who is also past high priest of Crater Lake chapter, deputy grand master of Royal and Select Masters of Oregon and past illustrious master of Table Rock council, Medford. Companion Turpin will announce his cast and introduce the present grand high priest, Most Excellent D. Lynn Woodson and his official staff of grand officers.

Herbert F. Morris, excellent high priest of Crater Lake chapter, has chosen committees for the event. Dinner at 6 P. M. will be followed by the degree work. All companions should register as soon as they arrive.

A covered dish dinner for wives will be served in the dining room of the Medford

Masonic temple at 6 p. m. Wives of candidates are invited to attend. Mesdames Morris, Turpin and Gooled are in charge of the dinner and the entertainment to follow.

Brush up your skill in various summer sports by consulting books in the Jackson County library.

Miss Barbara Hirsch, nursing representative for Red Cross, has arrived in Medford to conduct a training course for instructors for a class in "home care of the sick and injured." Sessions for the instructors will start Wednesday, July 16, and chapter officials urge registered nurses to enroll.

Red Cross Course Set

The course has been drastically revised to keep pace with civil defense, improved nursing techniques and medical practices, it is stated. Anyone wishing further information is asked to call the home service department of the chapter, SPring 2-5919.

The course for instructors will be followed by lay classes starting July 28. The chapter has arranged for morning, afternoon and evening classes in order to give everyone an opportunity of attending and securing the information that civil defense and Red Cross authorities believe are vital to every family in the community.

No charge will be made for the course.

Space Savers

Chicago — (UPI) — Appliance designers have turned their talents to space-savers in the kitchen. One exhibit at the recent Modern Living Exhibition here showed a steel cabinet that appeared to be a piece of living room furniture when it was closed. Opened, the cabinet includes a refrigerator, electric cooking unit, sink and storage cabinet.
