

Hunting Regulations for Fall Established by State Game Commission

Portland — (UPI) — A unit type hunt for taking antlerless deer during the 1958 big game season was approved by the Oregon State Game Commission at its hunting regulation hearing here Friday.

Tentative rules were also established for the fall hunt, calling for a long buck season, a liberal bag limit on upland game birds, a sage grouse season for the first time since 1953, and elk seasons similar to last year.

The proposed buck season would open Oct. 4 and extend through Oct. 26 over the entire state, exclusive of certain refuges and closures. The bag limit will be one buck with at least forked antlers west of the Cascade summit and visible antlers east of the Cascade summit.

Deviating from its normal procedure of allowing two weeks to elapse before making any final regulations decision, the commission gave its approval to establish a big game management unit system for taking antlerless deer to replace the hunters choice season. Final approval was also given on other seasons where a drawing is to be held to control hunting pressure, including the either sex elk units, controlled deer seasons and the antelope season.

The commission reported that the unit type hunt for taking antlerless deer will not affect those who hunt bucks, but anyone interested in hunting antlerless deer at the end of the general season must apply beforehand for a permit in the area of his choice. Elk hunters are familiar with the method since a similar procedure has been used to control the harvest of antlerless elk in northeastern Oregon for the past three years.

On most units, permit holders will be authorized to take one deer regardless of sex from Oct. 18 through Oct. 26. Hunters will be required to possess an unused deer tag along with the permit. Those successful in taking a buck prior to Oct. 18 cannot participate. Numbers of permits to be issued for each unit are presented in the table. All hunters are urged to see their license agents for a description of the units and their boundaries.

The tentative elk season set for Nov. 1-16 along the coast and Nov. 1-25 in the Cascades and eastern Oregon. Any bull taken along the north coast would have to have at least three points on one antler with a minimum length of points defined as two inches. Bulls with antlers longer than ears would be legal in the Cascades and northeastern Oregon, and one elk legal in southeastern Oregon.

From Nov. 15 through 25, hunters holding permits in the northeastern Oregon elk units may bag one elk regardless of sex provided they have not already filled their tags. Ten elk units would be available for elk hunters this year—Walla Walla, Umatilla, Sled Springs, Imnaha, Minam, Starkey, Heppner, Ukiah, Sumpter and Desolation.

Antelope regulations are similar to last year with 200 tags authorized for each of three areas. Dates for all areas are Aug. 23-27. Hunters who drew permits last year would not be eligible.

Seven controlled deer seasons have been established with a total of 2050 permits. A fee of $5 would be charged for each permit which allows the hunter to take a deer in addition to the one allowed on the regular deer tag. With the exception of the Wallowa and Snake River areas which are primarily a pack show, the controlled seasons are designed to alleviate damage problems.

Eight controlled elk seasons have been established in areas where damage is acute, with a total of 2215 permits authorized. The general elk tag is required to be used in conjunction with the permit.

Upland bird gunners received a break with a greater bag limit and longer seasons on pheasants, quail and partridge. The entire state would be open for pheasants Oct. 11-Nov. 16 with a bag limit of 4 cocks per day, 12 in possession. In addition, Malheur county hunters would receive a bonus of one hen in the bag or in possession Nov. 8-16. The quail, Hungarian and chukar season would run with the pheasant season except for mountain quail in western Oregon where the season would be Sept. 27-Oct. 19. The bag limit on mountain quail in western Oregon was set at five a day, 10 in possession. In eastern Oregon the limit was set at 10 a day, 20 in possession. Bag limit on Valley and Bobwhite quail and Hungarian and chukar partridge was set at 10 a day, 20 in possession.

West of the Cascades, the blue and ruffed grouse season would be Sept. 27-Oct. 19 and east of the Cascades Aug. 30-Sept. 5. Bag limit in both areas would be 3 per day, 6 in possession.

A limited sage grouse season was established for the first time since 1953 in Lake Harney and Malheur counties and Baker county south and west of Highway 30. The season would be Aug. 30-Sept. 7. A bag limit of two a day would be allowed, 4 in possession.

Hunters would have a crack at mourning doves in Jackson county and most counties east of the Cascades Sept. 1-14. In Hood River, Jefferson, Sherman, Wasco and all counties west of the Cascades the season would be Sept. 1-28. Bag limit in both areas would be 10 a day, 10 in possession. The banded pigeon season would be Sept. 1-28 with a bag limit of 6 a day or in possession, 30 for the season.

The commission plans to distribute aid tags and permits before the start of the seasons so hunters could plan ahead.

To be considered in the public drawings, applications must be in the Portland office of the game commission by 5 p.m. on the following dates:

Aug. 6: All antelope hunts Wallowa, Hart Mountain, and Snake River controlled deer seasons.

Aug. 18: All management unit deer hunts.

Sept. 15: All elk units and controlled elk seasons. The Corvallis, Astoria, Goose Lake and Mill Creek controlled deer seasons.

League Leaders Win in AL and NL Encounters Friday

United Press International
They like Ike in Boston. Small wonder they do when you take a look at Ike DeLoek's perfect 8-0 record for the Red Sox this season plus his nifty 1.80 earned run average.

Ike has won four starts in a row, his latest one being an eight-hit 6-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox Friday.

Bob Turley treated roughly in the All-Star game, bounced back to register his 13th victory when he pitched the Yankees to an 11-3 triumph over the Indians.

The Yankees made it easy for Turley by rapping Ray Narleski and two relievers for 14 hits, including Mickey Mantle's 22nd home run of the season.

Ed Fitz Gerald's single with two out in the 11th clinaxed a two-run rally that gave the Senators a 6-5 win over the Tigers.

The Senators trailed 5-4 going into the ninth, then loaded the bases against loser Bill Fischer, and scored the tying run on a forceout. Hank Aguirre relieved Fischer and was tagged for Fitz Gerald's game-winning single. Dick Hyde, Washington's submarine-ball reliever, picked up his fifth victory after Detroit blew a 5-1 lead.

Rain washed out the Baltimore-Kansas City game.

Phillies Cooled
Sam (Toothpick) Jones struck out 10 batters as the Cardinals cooled off the Phillies with a 6-2 victory. The Cards backed up Jones with a 13-hit attack, including a third-inning homer by Wally Moon that broke a 1-1 tie, and two triples and a double by Ken Boyer. Jones held the Phillies to eight hits in posting his sixth triumph and increased his league-leading strikeout total to 108. Harry Anderson homered for Philadelphia. Jack Sanford was tagged with his seventh loss against six victories.

The Milwaukee Braves got a lecture from Manager Fred Haney about too much partying, and then went out and defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers, 7-4, to protect their 1 1/2-game lead in the National League.

Orlando Cepeda's three-run homer in the 12th inning off Hal Jeffcoat wrapped up a 7-4 win for the San Francisco Giants over Cincinnati.

Dick Stuart, just up from the minors, clouted a grand slam homer in Pittsburgh's 7-2 decision over Chicago.

It was only Stuart's second appearance since being brought up from Salt Lake City of the Pacific Coast league earlier this week. In his first appearance on Thursday, he hit a three-run homer against the Cubs.

Braves Advised About Worldly Temptations

Los Angeles — (UPI) — Milwaukee Manager Fred Haney, wise to the ways of Hollywood and other worldly temptations, told the Braves' ball team Friday a bit about the facts of life.

The secular talk resulted when Haney found out four of his players frolicked at a Bel-Air party Tuesday night which ended up with some party-goers being pushed in the swimming pool.

Haney told his tried and true 25 that they must ever be on their guard against "publicity seekers" who might invite them to parties only as a way of exploiting the ball players' fame.

However, said Haney, he was satisfied his Braves were not involved in the pool-pushing bout or in drinking alcoholic beverages and therefore he would not levy any fines or other disciplinary action.

The four ball players at the party that supposedly broke up before 11 p.m. were pitcher Lew Burdette, second baseman Red Schoendienst, first baseman Frank Torre and pitcher Gene Conley.

The Braves lost, 10-3, to the Los Angeles Dodgers Wednesday night.

HALL WINS TOURNEY

Ed Hall defeated Dr. Robert Buck two and one in the quarter finals of the RVCC Golf tourney now in progress. This week Hall is slated to meet Dr. C. Boals in the semi-final round. Bruce Stanley will meet Allen Holmes in the other semi-final contest.

Gripe At Los Angeles Infield

San Francisco — (UPI) — Fred Haney and First Base-Manager Joe Adcock of the Braves Saturday joined in denouncing the infield at Los Angeles Coliseum as "the worst infield in the league."

"That infield bothered us more than their left field screen," Haney said as Milwaukee opened a three-game series here with San Francisco. "The grass is packed down like a mat."

Adcock, sporting a shiner on his right eye, said it was a souvenir from the infield. "Duke Snider hit what looked like a double play grounder at me the other night and after two hops—bang, right in the eye," Adcock said. "It takes years to make a decent infield, I guess."

Shoemaker Boots In Four Wins

Inglewood, Calif.—(UPI)—Jockey Willie Shoemaker, who rode Gallant Man to victory in the $162,100 Gold Cup Saturday, had another big riding day as he booted in four winners in all on the program.

Shoemaker captured the third race with Petruello II for $8.20. He followed that up with a victory in the fifth race on Strokr for $5.70. Then came his win with Gallant Man in the Gold Cup for a $2.80 payoff and he closed out the day with a win on Flying Story in the eighth at $4.70.

The four wins raised Shoemaker's total victories at the meeting to 70, as compared with his nearest rivals, Ralph Neves and Johnny Longden, each with 38.

SOTA Sponsors Drags Today

Time trials for Southern Oregon Timing association sponsored drag races on the drag strip in West Camp White are set to commence at 9 a.m. today. All entries in the events must be registered by noon, according to club officials.

Eliminations are scheduled for this afternoon, following which trophies will be presented to winners. SOTA has announced that a $75 savings bond will be awarded to the winning driver who can break the track speed record of 134.24 mph.

The SOTA drag strip is seven miles north of Medford on Crater Lake highway. Spectators as well as competitors are welcome at the outing. Club officials announced a concession stand will be in operation.

Yanks Boost Lead, Beat Indians 10-0; Red Sox Drop Two

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
The New York Yankees lengthened their American league lead to a season high of 12 1/2 games Saturday when they crushed the Cleveland Indians, 10-0, and the Boston Red Sox dropped a doubleheader to the Chicago White Sox.

The Indians had only one real chance to halt the Yankee victory march — when it rained for a half hour with the Yankees leading, 4-0, and the Indians at bat with only two out in the top of the fifth inning. Had the rain halted the game then it would have had to be played over.

But the rain did end and the Yankees rolled on with a six-run salvo in the eighth, bidding the Indians "good-bye" after their five-game visit in New York.

Andy Carey hit two homers and knocked in five runs to lead the Yankees nine-hit attack. Rookie Zach Monroe limited the Indians to three hits for the first 4 1/3 innings and then Art Ditmar held them to none at all over the last 4 2/3 innings. The victory went to Ditmar, his fourth. Plays Under Protest

Cleveland manager Joe Gordon played the game under protest after the fifth inning because he claimed the playing field was not in proper condition.

The Indians had one bright note when Herb Score, American league strikeout king, made his first appearance since June 14. He struck out five batters, walked one and yielded one hit in three innings.

Sherman Lollar, Earl Batley and Jim Linds knocked in five runs each as the White Sox swept the Red Sox, 7-4 and 13-5. Each of the three players hit two homers during the doubleheader in which neither Boston starting pitcher lasted through the first inning. Ted Williams of the Red Sox had four hits during the doubleheader to raise his average to .319.

Rain ended the Kansas City-Baltimore game in the fifth inning with the Athletics leading, 2-1. It will be played in its entirety.

Wildcats Top Lone Pine in Pee Wee Clash

The Medford Wildcats downed the Lone Pine nine, 9-1, in a Pee Wee league make-up game played in Medford Friday morning.

Gary Highland pitched the first three innings for the winners, giving up the only Lone Pine run of the game. Kenny Eckel came on for the Wildcats in the fourth and blanked the visitors the rest of the way.

Highland also was the big stick at the plate, getting two for two. Medford managed only one more hit than the visitors but the Lone Pine nine committed four errors while the locals chalked up only one.

Tailor Gets Track Upset

London — (UPI) — Brian Hewson, a slim 24-year-old London tailor, sprang one of the greatest track upsets of the year Saturday when he beat Australian star Herb Elliott in the British amateur athletic championships and set a new British half-mile record of 1:48.3.

Elliott, currently world's greatest mile runner with two clockings faster than the accepted world mile record, led all the way until the last bend but then dropped back to finish third behind Hewson and Britain's Mike Rawson.

Hunting & Fishing Southern Oregon

Fishing, generally speaking, was spotty everywhere over the long "4th" weekend due mainly to the bright moon phase and the stormy weather. It is true that on many lakes and streams there were fine catches made but the general average was low.

This year due to the heavy snows of last winter many streams and lakes are unusually high. This makes fishing a little slough now but will benefit the fishing picture in that we should have no really low water this summer.

Upper Klamath Lake is now as high as it normally is in April according to Bob Sloan of Harriman's Resort. He predicts that the fishing will continue good right through the first part of September. This will take care of the usual "August slump" for there will be no really low water.

Fish Lake Resort reports that the lake which has been very high is starting to lower a bit and fishing should improve there within the next 10 days. Some fair to good catches have been made trolling via the fender-worm method and last week some good catches were made on flatfish.

Willow Creek Reservoir is still spotty but some fair limits in the 12-inch class have been taken. 4-Mile Lake has tapered off to some extent but will improve shortly.

Still some big rainbows being taken at Harriman's Resort in spite of the fact that fishing over the 4th was slow. Big fish honors went to Jim Rous of Klamath Falls with a fish that tipped the scales at 8 3/4 pounds. Dexter McCarty of Gresham, Ore., landed a rainbow of 8 pounds

2 ounces. McCarty took the big rainbow prize in Portland last year and plans on entering this fish in the contest.

Other "Lunker Club" members include, Gerald Haimann, Portland, 5 1/2; H. E. Rouss of Klamath Falls, 4 1/2; Floyd Steward, Long Beach, Cal., 4 1/2; Betty Minger, Medford, 4; Floyd Steward, Long Beach 6; Eddy Rouss, K. Falls 4.

The Deschutes river has been slow for the past week. Catches of fish have remained small with wet fly, single egg and worms accounting for most of them. The nights are bright and the fish are feeding very late in the evening. Most of the fishing has been after 4:30 p.m. As the moon goes into its dark phase the fish will start feeding earlier in the afternoon and in about 10 days the fishing should be good.

Fishing on Diamond Lake continued fair to good in spite of everything. Best method was in the single egg department. Fishing the deeper portions of the lake with light colored eggs many limits were taken. The fly fishing here should be tops in another week or so. Warm weather will bring out a good bug hatch and this should do the trick.

Wins Irish Lawn Tennis

Dublin — (UPI) — Dorothy Head Knode of Forest Hills, N.Y. won the women's title in the Irish lawn tennis championships Saturday when she beat Britain's Shirley Bloomer, 4-6, 7-5, 7-5, in a thrilling final match.

Miss Bloomer won the first set after being 2-4 down, and seemed all set for a win when she took a 3-0 lead in the second set. However, Mrs. Knode steadied and drew even at 3-3. After the British girl went ahead at 4-3, Mrs. Knode rallied and won the set, 7-5.

In the final set, Miss Bloomer gained a 4-2 lead. The seventh game was marked by long rallies before the American girl won it. She also won the next, only for Miss Bloomer to go ahead at 5-4.
