Reaction Varied To Marine Use in Lebanon Crisis

London —(UPI)— The landing of American Marines in Lebanon drew generally favorable but worried reaction throughout non-Communist Europe today.

The Communists protested loudly, echoing the Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda's charge that the action "is a direct act of war and open piracy."

Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia appeared to be sparking a "neutralist" attempt to mobilize world opinion against the landings. Tito, who has just completed a conference with President Gamal Adbel Nasser of the United Arab Republic, sent a telegram about the Lebanese situation to Indian Premier Jawaharlal Nehru Tuesday night.

Conflict Threatened

The Yugoslav news agency Tanjug circulated an official statement charging that U.S. intervention in Lebanon "threatens the outbreak of a general international conflict." The statement said "Only the United Nations is in a position to decide on the Lebanese dispute."

Earlier Nehru had called the Iraqui coup d'etat "an indication of growing Arab nationalism."

The Japanese government called the Marine landing "very unwise." It said both the Iraq and Lebanon crisis were domestic affairs.

Complete Approval

The Turkish and British governments were the only ones to announce complete approval of the U.S. action and similar sentiments were expected from France.

In the other NATO capitals, officials took an immediate "hands off" view of the whole matter. Most seemed to think the landings were a necessary evil in which they preferred not to be involved.

In neutral Sweden, one responsible official admitted there was nothing else for the United States to do, but fear was expressed that the action "might invite Russian and Egyptian intervention."

"I have come to the considered and sober conclusion that despite the risk involved this action is required to support the principles of justice and international law."

Amman, Jordan—Brig. Ahmed Al Abdi, military governor general of Iraq, warning the Iraqi people in a broadcast over Radio Baghdad against further excessive demonstrations stemming from overzealousness:

"We are seeking to complete what we have started. Any unreasonable step taken to express this revolutionary sentiment will give subversive elements a chance to disturb general order and peace.

Honolulu—Defense Secretary Neil McElroy, who is en route home from the United States' atomic testing island at Eniwetok, after complaining that rain on Eniwetok had washed out his chances of seeing a nuclear explosion:

"The only noise was that of rain falling on those tin roofs."

Washington—Bernard Goldfine, after telling newsmen he had visited the White House many times during the present administration, replying to a question as to whether he had ever visited there when Harry S. Truman was president:

Washington —(UPI)— The business picture took on a brighter hue today. Government reports disclosed improvements in industrial production, personal income and housing construction.

Economists said, however, business probably will continue to jog along at June levels, with customer summer slack temporarily offsetting upward forces.

Economists said that reports Tuesday on the economic front virtually nailed down their conviction that the recession touched bottom in April. They foresaw no substantial upturn before autumn.

Production Expanded

The good news came from:

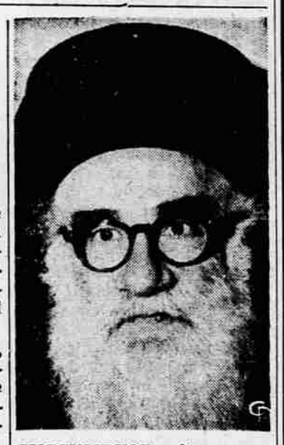
—The Federal Reserve Board, which reported that factories and mines expanded production in June for the second month in a row. The board's index of industrial production climbed to 130 per cent of the 1947-49 average, four points above the April low.

—The Commerce Department, which said personal income rose again last month to an annual rate of $351,800,000,000, a shade below the all-time high of August 1957. Most of the $2 billion increase from May was in wages and salaries, the result of a longer factory work week and a higher level of employment.

—The Labor Department, which reported that housing starts in June set a 34-month record. For private starts alone, June saw an annual rate of $1,090,000 dwelling units, the best performance in two years.

THIEF ROBS CHIEF

Detroit— (UPI) —The thief who brike into a house here Tuesday and snitched a portable TV set probably didn't know what he was letting himself in for. The house belongs to Police Commissioner Edward S. Piggins.



SUCCUMBING after surgery, Archbishop Michael, head of Greek Archdiocese of North and South America, is dead in New York at 66.

Trujillo Jr. Sails From Los Angeles

San Pedro, Calif. —(UPI)— Free-speding Rafael Trujillo Jr. 29-year-old Dominican Republic general, "went south" today in his 350-foot, four-masted yacht.

Some said he was headed for Santa Monica, near Los Angeles. Others insisted the high-living playboy, who likes to ply actresses with rich gifts, was headed for San Diego and then to Acapulco.

In any case, the dashing young officer and his luxury yacht, designated a "man of war" although its only armament was a singleshot, line-throwing gun, was gone from its Los Angeles Harbor berth.

The generous general, son of Dominican strongman Rafael Trujillo, sailed out of the harbor Tuesday night but refused to reveal his destination.

COULDN'T MOW STRAIGHT

Marshfield, Wis. — (UPI) — Edward W. Rottscheitt, 42, lost his bearings somewhat—and as a result was fined $50 and lost his driver's license for a year. He was convicted of drunken driving while piloting his power mower along city streets.
