

Giants, Braves Win, Chicago Takes Two; Yankees Top Detroit 3-2

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

The question whether the Milwaukee Braves or San Francisco Giants will win the National League pennant may eventually be answered by whether Warren Spahn or John Antonelli is the league's best left-hander.

Spahn, the "old master," and Antonelli, the "young star," are definitely the strong men of their respective pitching staffs. At 37, Spahn has an 11-6 record that has him well on his way to a ninth 20-victory season. And at 28, Antonelli has a 10-7 mark that gives him a good chance to chalk up the third 20-win season of his career.

Both star lefties came through Wednesday to keep the two top contenders only a half-game apart, the Braves with a .556 percentage and the Giants with a .548 mark. Spahn, aided by late-inning relief support from Don McMahon turned in the 24th victory of his career as the Braves beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-5, while Antonelli went all the way as the Giants drubbed the Philadelphia Phillies, 9-2. The victory was Spahn's 50th of his career over the Cardinals, who scored all their runs in the third inning.

The Chicago Cubs, presenting almost as surprising a pennant threat as the Giants, moved to within 2½ games of first place with a 5-4 and 7-5 sweep of the Cincinnati Reds and the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 7-4, in the other National League games.

Yanks Hold Lead

In the American league, the New York Yankees held their 12-game lead by shading the Detroit Tigers, 3-2, as Bob Turley beat Jim Bunning in a brilliant strikeout battle. The Boston Red Sox defeated the Kansas City A's, 5-2, the Baltimore Orioles scored a 6-5 victory after a 6-1 loss to the Chicago White Sox and the Washington Senators rallied in the ninth to down the Cleveland Indians, 7-6.

Eddie Mathews hit two homers and Hank Aaron and Bill Bruton one each to account for five of Milwaukee's runs and deal AL castoff Chuck Stobbs his second straight NL loss. Ken Boyer's grand slam homer lifted the Cardinals into a 5-4 third-inning lead but Mathews and Aaron hit successive homers in the fifth to give the Braves their margin of victory.

The Cubs rallied in the late innings of both games. Bobby Thomson's two-run homer in the ninth won the opener and then singles by pitcher Bill Henry and Tony Taylor climaxed a three-run eighth-inning rally in the nightcap. Don Elston picked up his seventh win and Henry his second for the Cubs.

Turley Wins 14th

Bob Friend won his 11th game for the Pirates behind a 13-hit attack that included Frank Thomas' 26th homer and other circuit blows by Bill Mazeroski and Hank Foiles. The Dodgers, who moved into seventh place for a few hours after Cincinnati's double loss, dropped back into the NL cellar.

Jerry Lumpe's three-run homer proved the difference for the Yankees as Turley won his 14th game, high for the majors. Turley, who struck out nine compared to Bunning's 10 strikeouts in seven innings, was tagged for a two-run homer by Frank Bolling in the second inning.

Ike Delock scored his ninth straight victory of this season and 12th dating back to last season when the Red Sox staged a flash four-run outburst in the sixth inning. A triple by Bill Consolo and Jackie Jensen's two-run double were the big blows of 41-year-old Murry Dickson. Leo Kiely shut out the A's for the last three innings to preserve the win for DeLoach.

Pitcher Jack Harshman knocked in four runs with two homers to win his own game for the Orioles after Dick Donovan pitched a seven-inning game for the White Sox. Billy Goodman, Sherman Lollar and Torgeson had two hits each for the White Sox in this

Holt KO'ed By Durelle

Montreal — (UPI) — Yvon Durelle, Canada's brawling fisherman who retained his British Empire light-heavyweight championship Wednesday night with an eighth-round technical knockout over Mike Holt, said today he didn't realize he had been losing the televised bout.

Durelle had been floored once and was trailing on the cards of all three judges when South African Holt failed to answer the bell for the ninth round of the bloody, slam-bang struggle.

But Durelle insisted: "I was never worried." "I figured it was just a question of time after the fifth round," he said. "I began beating him to the punch after that and I thought I'd knock him out about the 11th round."

Holt, 26-year-old Afrikaner from Pretoria making his first North American appearance, gave a game performance before a crowd of 5,025 at the Forum. But a damaged left hand—"my best hand"—in the third round and trouble with his breathing midway through the fight proved too much of a handicap for the challenger.

Heath Likely Out For Season

Portland — (UPI) — Manager Tommy Heath of the Portland Beavers baseball team, although not hurt as badly as at first feared, probably will miss the rest of the Pacific Coast League season, the team physician said today.

Heath was hurt in a fall Monday night at Cannon Beach, on the Oregon coast. Dr. Russell Kaufman, the team physician, said Heath suffered a compression fracture of the first and second lumbar vertebrae. But he said there were no signs of paralysis, an indication that the spine was not damaged seriously.

The doctor said Heath would remain in Good Samaritan hospital here for at least two weeks and then would have to spend several weeks in a cast. He said Heath should have no future trouble although he might have to wear a brace.

Larry Jansen has taken over as acting manager and Bill Brenner as acting general manager, positions held by Heath.

Roy Sievers hit his second two-run homer of the game as the Senators rallied with four runs in the ninth. Sievers' 23rd homer came off Ray Narleski, who replaced Don Mossi with two out and one runner aboard.

Baseball Wants Too Much, Senators Tell Frick

Washington — (UPI) — Two members of the Senate anti-monopoly subcommittee suggested today baseball try other means before asking for unlimited authority to control game broadcasts and telecasts.

The statements by Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney, D-Wyo., and Sen. John A. Carroll, D-Colo., were in answer to Commissioner Ford Frick's contention that "there will be no baseball" within 10 years unless Congress grants the game immunity from anti-trust legislation.

Conway, Doyle Advance in NW Tennis Tourney

Tacoma — (UPI) — First-seeded George Conway of Los Angeles Wednesday advanced in the junior men's division of the 68th annual Pacific Northwest tennis tournament here.

Conway defeated Don Creighton of Seattle 6-0, 6-1, in a feature match.

Second-seeded Harry Doyle of Portland beat Mun Chinn of Seattle 6-4, 10-8, in another junior men's highlight.

In junior women's play, first-seeded Farel Footman of San Francisco defeated Vicki Berner, of Vancouver, B. C., 6-1, 6-0 to advance in the division.

Play Wednesday was taken up chiefly by junior matches and doubles with some top-flight men's singles action on top today.

Tank Younger Traded By Rams to Steelers

Pittsburgh — (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Steelers hoped the acquisition of fullback Tank Younger from the Los Angeles Rams would put some juice into the National Football league's weakest running attack.

Younger, who gained more than 3,000 yards in his nine-year career with the Rams, was acquired for an undisclosed draft choice.

"If he plays for us like he did in Los Angeles, we'll have no worries in the backfield," Steelers coach Buddy Parker said.

Baseball, Softball Games Off Tonight

All games slated for play at Cheney field and at Camp White Memorial stadium for this evening have been cancelled, because of playing conditions. Bud Ash from Camp White reported that the two softball games scheduled tonight will not be played and it is highly unlikely that the All Stars vs. Camp White game planned for Friday evening at 8 p.m. will be played.

Bill Askwith, Central Point manager, reported that the Studs vs. Crater Lake Motors game originally scheduled Tuesday and then rescheduled for this evening, will not be played. No further rescheduling of the game is planned at this time he reported.

Portland Golf Tournament in Quarter Finals

Portland — (UPI) — Four golfers from Eastmoreland, host course for the Portland golf championships, led the men's championship flight into the quarterfinal round today.

Eastmorelanders posting victories in third round of action were George Cirich, Lou Stafford, Dick Stearns and Tab Boyer.

In other third round action, Ad Huyck, Oswego, defeated Vince Legler, Eastmoreland, 1-up in a 20-hole match; Tom Liljeholm, Rose City, whipped Bob Norquist, Columbia-Edgewater, 5 and 4.

Tom Shaw, Waverly, dumped Dick Hogan, Rose City, 5 and 4, and Chuck Hunter from the University of Oregon trounced Joe Sheehan, Eastmoreland, 6 and 5.

Cirich defeated John Hagley, Eastmoreland, 5 and 4. Stafford edged Elmer Hane-gan, Royal Oaks, 2 and 1; Stearns defeated Walt Cline, Salem, 3 and 2, and Boyer eliminated Bob Partr, Eastmoreland, 1-up.

Women golfers got the day off Wednesday, but resume play today.

Both men's and women's quarterfinals are scheduled, with the women to tee-off at 7 a.m. and the men two hours later.

Youth Leads in ITA Tourney

Reno — (UPI) — High school sophomore Wally Stone, 15, Scottsdale, Ariz., led older opponents after the initial day of the annual Pacific International Trapshooting Association tourney.

Stone and Doug Reynolds, Vancouver, B. C., both bagged 97 out of a possible 100. Stone then won a shoot-off against Reynolds with a 49 out of 50 score against 48 out of 50 for Reynolds.

Mrs. Evelyn Prim, Reno, led the women's division with a score of 94.

Yankees Still Lead League in Junior Baseball

The Medford Yankees continued dominance of the Southern Oregon Junior baseball Intermediate league with a 15-5 victory over the Jacksonville nine. In other games played Wednesday Central Point edged the Medford Giants 5-3 and Ashland defeated Lone Pine 7-1.

For the victorious Yankees Jim Calhoun, Mike Barnes, Jim Barry, and Dick Deffley each collected a pair of hits, while losing pitcher White smashed a homer in the first inning with one man on. Pitchers for each team struck out seven opposing batters.

In the Ashland-Lone Pine encounter Steve Harris picked up two for three at the plate including a triple. Ashland pitcher King limited the losers to only two hits.

Central Point pitcher Dennis Samples fanned 15 and walked 11 to earn a victory over the Medford Giants.

PGA Places Bolt on 'Indefinite Probation'

By LEO M. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

Havertown, Pa. — (UPI) — Tommy Thunder Bolt, though elated at escaping further punishment for his conduct, and little hopes of scoring a historic golf "double" today as a field of 163 went into the opening round of the new style PGA championship.

The PGA executive committee cleared the deck for Bolt to compete here when it ruled Wednesday night that hot-tempered Tommy had been punished enough for his recent outbursts by a $500 fine he already had paid. The committee also placed him on indefinite probation.

That ruling gave Bolt, who recently won the U. S. Open championship, a chance to become the second man in history to win the Open and PGA crowns in the same year. Gene Sarazen, who did it in 1922, is so far the only "double" champion. But Bolt thinks the strain of Wednesday's hearing may have ruined his chances.

"It's going to be tough to bear down after that," he said. "I think there are some people who don't want me to win two."

Sting By Wasps Fatal To Woman

Memphis, Tenn. — (UPI) — Mrs. Frank Holt Jr., an interior decorator, died Wednesday as a result of being stung on the head and neck by wasps.

Attending physician Dr. Robert J. Teabeaut said death resulted from anaphylactic reaction—which causes the veins and arteries to expand and reduce blood pressure.

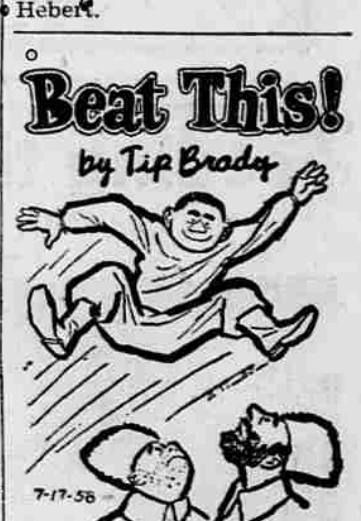

DUKE'S WINE AUCTIONED

London — (UPI) — British wine lovers paid more than $9,700 Wednesday night for 675 bottles of the Duke of Edinburgh's port wine. The wine was auctioned off for the duke's favorite charity, the National Playing Fields Association.

however, the other tourney trail golfers were passing up Bolt and handing the favorite's role to handsome, curly-haired Jackie Burke Jr., the 1956 champion.

Burke demonstrated he has completely recovered from a recent wrist operation by winning last week's Insurance City Open tournament in Wethersfield, Conn., and emphasized the fact by shooting sub-par practice rounds over the short, rolling Lanchester Country Club course here where the PGA is being held.

Others being touted by the pros themselves as top contenders were Bolt, three-time winner Sam Snead, leading tourney trail money winner Arnold Palmer, sparkplug heir Frank Stranahan, and defending champion Lionel Hebert.
