Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

"GENTLEMAN JIM" CORBETT once met Steve Brodie, the man who allegedly jumped off the Brooklyn bridge—but the meeting was not a rousing success. "So you're Brodie,"

"You got it a bit wrong, Champ," explained Brodie. "I only jumped OFF that bridge."

"What! Only OFF the bridge?" exploded Corbett. "Why, any darn fool could do that!"—and walked away.

A visitor to a Beverly Hills mansion found himself alone with the 6-year-old son of the house, a first-grade student in a progressive school. "What are you studying now?" asked the visitor. The answer was, "I'm majoring in sandpile."

Young Sandy McTavish received a violin as a birthday present from his grandfather in Aberdeen. "It was a typical Scottish gift," commented Sandy proudly. "No strings attached."

List Adjusting To Wartime Economy

New York — (UPI) — Markets today tried to adjust themselves to a wartime, inflation economy.

The stock market rose to new highs since Aug. 21, 1957 in the general average. Copper metal rose sharply in the London market along with tin, lead and zinc. Copper metal in America was boosted by a custom smelter and Kennecott, a big producer, raised its price.

Commodities generally moved higher in all sections — cocoa, grains, coffee, sugar, rubber, cottonseed oil, and soybeans.

The Middle East crisis Reynolds Refused Kwajalein Journey

Honolulu — (UPI) — U.S. authorities have refused permission for Dr. Earle Reynolds to go to Kwajalein Island in order to help his son and a Japanese crewman return the yacht Phoenix here.

U. S. attorney Louis Blisard, who denied Reynolds' request Wednesday, said perhaps someone else could go to help return the yacht.

Reynolds, formerly of Miami, Ohio, is awaiting trial on charges he sailed the vessel into the Eniwetok nuclear test zone in defiance of government orders.

Damage Suit Said Settled Out of Court

A $15,000 settlement was reached out of court in Susanville, Calif., this week in the case of the administrator of John Syrman's estate and the First National bank vs. Richard Scott, attorneys for the estate have announced.

The suit against Scott was brought as a result of an accident last March 16 in which Mr. and Mrs. Stryman and a daughter, Dawn, were killed. The accident happened near Susanville, Calif.

The First National bank is guardian of the estate of a minor son who survives. The trial in superior county started Monday, and the settlement reached Tuesday. The plaintiffs were represented by Manville M. Heisel, Medford, and Don Cady, Susanville, Calif.

Three Vehicles Involved in Crash

Two cars and a truck were victims of slippery pavement on Highway 99 last night, state police reported.

A vehicle driven by Gerald Wayne Kinney, 17, of 624 Sunrise st., skidded near the underpass north of Ashland, spun into the opposite lane and collided with a car driven by Barbara Grace Freudenhafer, 28, of 118 Heiman st., Ashland, according to the report.

Eugene Wayland Pratt, 31, of Grants Pass, braked his truck when he saw the collision and slid off the road onto the ditch, police reported. All three vehicles were damaged extensively, but there were no injuries, police said.
