Builders Join Construction Strike

Portland — (UPI) — An additional $50 million worth of construction was shut down Wednesday as a result of a strike against Associated General Contractors, it was announced.

Wilford C. Long, secretary of the Portland building chapter of the AGC, said about 7,000 men would be affected. The announcement said the building division had voted to cease operations on the theory that "a strike against one is a strike against all."

Earlier, only the heavy construction division was involved.

Goldfine Confirms Calls To Adams

Washington — (UPI) — Textile tycoon Bernard Goldfine confirmed Wednesday he telephoned Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams 43 times in a recent six-month period, and intimated that Adams may have called him about as often.

In reply to questions by the house influence-investigating subcommittee, Goldfine said he couldn't say who called whom the more often. He said he calls his friend Adams "whenever I feel it's necessary" to keep posted on government matters, such as tariffs, which affect his business. Goldfine told his frequent

CANKER SORES

People keep asking me what is the cause of canker sores in the mouth. Usually these begin with a little bluish, the top of which soon ulcerates to leave a white, painful sore. After five days it heals. In my experience, such as usually due to the eating of some food to which the person is sensitive. In my own case, they are due to chocolate, but they can be due to eating tomato, oranges, pineapple, or some other food. The thing to do is to keep a written record of the unusual foods eaten just before a canker sore appears. One must not put down all the foods eaten, because then one gets so big a record it is hard to interpret it. There is no sense in putting down the foods that one eats every day, when nothing happens.

Save a Torn-off Finger Tip

At a meeting of the American Association of Plastic Surgeons, Dr. Beverly Douglas of Nashville said that whenever a child or an adult loses the tip of a finger it shouldn't be thrown away. The piece should be wrapped in a fresh sheet of cleaning tissue, and taken quickly with the patient to the nearest hospital. Dr. Douglas says that he knows many number of persons who have had such tip of fingers sewed on again with excellent results. Naturally, the sooner the piece is put back on, the better. Not infrequently, in the excitement of the accident, the piece of tissue is lost or thrown away, and then a wild search has to be made for it.

A Boy Who Was Running His Mother

Often when I see a boy running his mother with an iron hand, wonder why it never occurs to her to ask the child if he ever thinks of what sort of a mess he is going to grow up into. I remember seeing at Mayo's a boy of 15 who, for years, had kept his weak and mildly psychotic mother right under this thumb. He ruled her with an iron hand, and whatever he demanded of her, he got. Whenever she tried to control him a bit, or to deny him something he wanted from a store, he went into such a tantrum that she became frightened and gave in. Unfortunately, the boy's father had died of cancer so that he was not around to help.

Fortunately, the boy was very intelligent, so I asked him, "What do you plan to be in life?" He said, "A lawyer."

I said, "What do you think would happen to you, if when in court, you were to lose all control of your temper as you now do so commonly?"

"Wouldn't you make such a spectacle of yourself that the jury would decide against you?" After thinking a while, he agreed with me that that is probably what would happen.

Then I asked him if he ever thought of marrying some day. He said, "Most certainly, yes." I asked him, "But can you imagine any woman who could love you, or even live comfortably in the same house with you if you were constantly going into tantrums, demanding your own way in everything? Could she maintain any respect for a person so childish and uncontrolled as you are? Again he thought for a while and said, "No. I guess you're right. No woman could like me the way I am."

"All right," said I, "Then why not start trying to change? Why not try to grow up, control your temper, and

Pan American Workers Stage Protest Strike

Cape Canaveral, Fla. — (UPI) — Pan American Airways workers began a protest sit-down strike Wednesday in path for Transport Union members who walked out at this missile center over what they termed the airline's "callous disregard" of safety conditions.

Lightning-Caused Fire Destroys Bandon Mill

Bandon, Ore. — (UPI) — Fire, resulting from a lightning strike, Tuesday night destroyed the Jay W. Curtis mill about seven miles east of here on Highway 101.

The mill was valued at about $84,000. A stockpile worth about $14,000 was saved.

The Great lakes have natural deep water except in connecting waterways.
