

Navy Helicopter Brings Out Four Cuban Captives

Guantanamo Bay, Cuba — (UPI)—A U.S. Navy helicopter Thursday night flew four more American servicemen out of the hills of Oriente Province where they had been held captive by Cuban rebels for three weeks. Four more were expected to be freed today.

The return of one Marine and three sailors brought to 15 the total released by the rebels since Tuesday. Seven Marines and seven sailors remained in rebel hands. All 29 were kidnaped June 28.

Men Identified
Those freed Thursday were Albert H. Matthews, steward, of Bronx, N. Y.; Robert C. Geringer, airman, of Downingtown, Pa.; Merritt H. Stuck, seaman, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Cpl. Hannibal E. Holmes, of Richmond, Va. Like their mates released previously, they appeared in good health.

Meantime, informed sources disclosed new acts of hostility against personnel of the Navy base here. The sources said three rebels held an American sailor on sentry duty for three hours Wednesday night and stole his pistol before letting him go.

Tuesday night, rebels stole an automobile which left the base. Earlier, they shot up the airport in the town of Los Canos, near the base.

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

Beirut, Lebanon — Lebanese Premier Sami Solh, commenting in an interview on the landing of American Marines in his country:

"Once Lebanon and Iraq have been liberated, Nasser's influence will be destroyed throughout the Arab world. The Arabs will see the light and will realize that the champion of the free world — the United States — is ready to defend small nations and protect their independence."

New York — U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, speaking in the United Nations on the Middle East situation:

"There is in the Middle East a common purpose to take over everywhere all at once. It is masterminded from one source. . . . You can read all about it in Cairo. . . . We face the brutal fact of assassination by men in plain clothes rather than by men in uniforms. History will hold us responsible. Will we condone subversion in plain clothes? If we do, the U.N. will break up."

New York — British Ambassador Sir Pierson Dixon, discussing a charge by Russian Ambassador Arkady A. Sobolev that British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan decided to send troops to Jordan after Parliament had adjourned:

"He suggested that the British prime minister managed to deceive the British Parliament. What an extraordinary suggestion!"

Washington — Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) commenting on a copyright dispatch by Frank H. Bartholomew, president of United Press International, which reported that the Iraqi coup and many other Red-inspired plots wear a "Born in Bern" label:

"Bern is a national haven for intelligence agents because of contacts which radiate in all directions from perennially neutral Switzerland."

Washington — Bernard Goldfine, in a statement following his final appearance before House influence investigators:

"I have nothing to hide. The hearings proved I did no wrong. Of course I did not answer questions which pried into my personal and business life. Who would?"

Long Beach, Calif. — Oscar Meinhardt, director of the 1958 Miss Universe pageant, praising Miss Costa Rica — Eugenia Maria Valverde — who revealed to officials she was under the contest age limit of 18. She first heard of the age rules following her arrival in the U.S.:

"She's one of the most honest girls I ever met, and a credit to her country."

Jubilee Committee Told of Progress

Cave Junction — The Illinois Valley Jubilee committee heard progress reports from the advertising and program committees as well as a report on the queen contestants at a meeting this week.

Five girls have entered the contest so far. They are Susan Lemmon, Karen Berkner, Barbara Sheppard, Gloria Pullen and Sonja Lewis. The girls are canvassing the valley with tickets of admission to both the queen's ball and the Labor Day dance. Each ticket means a vote for the candidate in the race for queen of the jubilee.

Mrs. Art Kellert, advertising chairman, named her committee of assistants and outlined the plans for the Jubilee souvenir program booklet. All chairmen and committee men are urged to attend next meeting Monday, July 21, in the VFW hall, as a board of directors will be appointed to serve the year 'round.

Pickets Appear At Brownlee Dam Project in Oregon

Portland — (UPI)— Appearance of pickets Thursday halted work on the last major construction jobs in Oregon and southwest Washington during a strike of the Operating Engineers Union, Local 701, and the Teamsters Union against Associated General Contractors.

Operating Engineer's pickets appeared on the Oregon side of the Brownlee Dam project on the Snake river, halting work on the Oregon side of the dam, union officials reported.

K. F. Work Halted
Four contractors pulled crews from their jobs on the Kingsley Field construction at Klamath Falls when pickets appeared. Construction continued, however, on the 220 housing units for Air Force personnel attached to the field, officials said.

Some $475 million worth of contracts are tied up and some 26,000 workers are idle as a result of the strike.

Negotiations were continued Thursday between the striking Teamsters and the AGC with the aid of the Federal Mediation Service.

A spokesman announced that the engineers also stood ready for further negotiations. The strike began on July 10 when engineers struck jobs in southwest Washington. Teamsters joined the strike this week.

The AGC has called on members of its "heavy" and "light" divisions to halt work on jobs where members of striking unions are employed.

Business Representative P. R. Wages of the Engineers' union said the union had not been offered a 25-cent raise retroactive to Jan. 1, but only to June 1.

Rocky Butte Jail Inmate Beaten; Prisoners Silent

Portland — (UPI)— James Q. (Slim) Jenkins, his face bruised by a beating administered by inmates at the Rocky Butte jail, was free on bail today while authorities sought to determine why the 36-year-old man was beaten up.

Jenkins was being held as a material witness in the stabbing last week of Alfred E. Kiefer. He and Kiefer are co-defendants in an alleged attempt to extort money from nursing home operators. Kiefer is recovering in a hospital from the stab wound.

Sheriff's officers said none of the prisoners would admit taking part in the attack on Jenkins which occurred Wednesday night. Jenkins suffered a fractured nose and left cheek bone.

Grabbed From Behind
Jenkins said two prisoners grabbed him from behind and the two others joined the attack. The attack broke up, he said, when assailants heard a guard coming. He said he did not know any of his attackers.

Jenkins could offer no explanation for the attack except that he said it obviously had been "set up."

Jenkins' attorney, Dan Hartley, charged that Jenkins was being held illegally as a material witness in connection with the Kiefer stab-

Failure To Check Brings Return Trip

Dallas, Tex. — (UPI)— Col. Robert B. Collins is one man who doesn't have a back seat driver — in fact, his wife is pretty silent these days.

The Connally Air Force base commander slipped up on his "check list" Thursday bing. Hartley said no charge or complaint had been filed in the case. He indicated he would file for a writ of habeas corpus.

Phyllis (Torchy) Kiefer, 28, a girl friend of Jenkins, is being held for the knifing.

After 50 miles out of Dallas the colonel heard a radio appeal over a Dallas station. The appeal told about a man who had driven off and left his wife stranded.

Collins took a quick look in the back seat and immediately reversed course.

TRUCK CRASHES INTO PORTLAND RESTAURANT

Portland — (UPI)— A two-ton truck crunched its way into a Portland eatery Thursday afternoon.

The truck, loaded with wood, was driven by Leo F. Middlekauff of Portland.

Middlekauff told police that he was driving south on the Pacific highway when the truck's brakes failed and it plowed through the wall of the Big Bite Drive-In, causing damage estimated at more than $3,000.

The hood of the vehicle barely missed the cook, Mrs. Frances Piland, and damaged the cafe's grill, refrigerator, cabinets, upsetting a deep-fryer containing more than a gallon of hot grease.

DIGNITY

ANOTHER GREAT CADILLAC TRADITION

If there is one quality which is instantly apparent in a new Cadillac—it is most certainly the car's great dignity. Cadillac's regal bearing, its impressive stature, and its majestic design give it a presence that is uniquely its own. It is a rare pleasure to command such a motor car—and we think you will agree, once you've taken the wheel for yourself. Why not do so soon?
