Grange News...

Lake Creek Grange

We were happy to welcome back the Murray Bartling family after a visit to Bellingham, Wash. They visited their daughter, Jenifer, and family.

HEC chairman Nora Bradshaw reminded members to save coffee bands. We have but a few months to collect the number of bands required for the coffee maker.

Voting was found favorable on the applications of H. A. and Camille Gilkey to become members of the Grange. They have bought the property of Loyd and Faye George. The George will be missed in our community. They have lived in our community for the past 14 years.

The birthdays of Betty Bradshaw and Leland Charley were honored by the birthday song, a decorated cake and gifts.

After the closure of Grange, Betty Bradshaw showed local pictures which Merton Bradshaw had taken.

Next Grange meeting will be on Aug. 8 at 8:30 p.m.

Asylum Granted To Esthonian Seaman

London—(UPI)—Britain announced today it has granted political asylum to an Esthonian seaman who slipped away from a Russian fishing fleet June 26 and landed on the Shetland Islands in a small boat.

The escape of Erich Teayn, 32, touched off an international incident. A party of about 30 Soviet seamen invaded the islands in pursuit of Teayn, but failed to find him because the islanders hid him.

The British foreign office protested the incident to Russia.

More Executions Seen in Hungary

Washington — UPI — The State Department says more participants in the Hungarian revolt "may shortly share" the fate of executed Premier Imre Nagy and Gen. Pal Maleter.

The statement Thursday came after a report was issued by the specila United Nations committee on Hungary which accused the Budapest government of violating the U.N. Charter and Declaration of Human Rights by the trials and executions of those who took part in the 1956 uprising.

The State Department said the Untied States had pledged itself to keep the "plight of the Hungarian people before the conscience of the world."
