

Visitors Honored At Two Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Daugherty, visiting in the valley from St. Croix in the Virgin Islands, were honored at a party last evening and another is scheduled for today.

○ Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Edward Collins, Mr. and Mrs. David H. Holmes and Robertson Collins were hosts for a small cocktail and buffet supper honoring the visitors. The party was held in the adjoining gardens of the Edward Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, since the two couples live as neighbors on White Oak drive. The coming 1958 Olympic games provided the party theme and guests were in informal attire.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther Jr., will be hosts for a small cocktail and supper party at their home on Fern Valley road to honor Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty. Former school friends of Mrs. Daugherty will make up the guest list.

Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty and their three children are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Topsides on the Old Stage road.

Dorothy Wright Guest of Parents

Miss Dorothy Wright of Los Angeles, Calif., is spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wright, 113 Mistletoe avenue. She will also visit her sister, Mrs. H. A. Huntley, and brothers, William and Melvin, and their families.

Miss Wright is employed as a secretary for Wolcott and associates, financial and corporate public relation firm.

Plumley-Ross Rites Held At Presbyterian Church

Miss Sally Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Ross, 424 Windsor avenue, became the bride of Neil Plumley in one of summer's largest weddings here. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Plumley, 906 North Central avenue.

About 250 guests attended the ceremony, held July 12 in First Presbyterian church. Dr. D. Kirkland West read the double-ring rites at three o'clock in the afternoon, and Mr. Ross gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of taffeta faille fashioned with lace-edged bateau neckline and flared skirt with apron tunic edged in scallops of Alencon lace and tied in a back bow. Her illusion veil was held by a coronet of pearls and she carried white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Joni James, Glendale, Calif., was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Beverly Ready, Salem, Miss Jane Barker, Miss Meredith Huggins and Miss Ann Garner, all Medford. Their frocks were of white taffeta printed with rose colored flowers and white chiffon sashes. Their headresses were white chiffon bows and they carried Ester Reed daisy nosegays.

Richard McLaughlin was best man for Mr. Plumley and ushers were Kenneth Poorman, Portland, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, Darrell Ross, the bride's brother, Larry Perkins and Robert Able.

Mrs. Richard Hart was at the organ and Miss Janet Jamison sang.

The reception was held at the church, which was decorated with white daisies.

Mrs. C. H. Pence served punch, Mrs. M. M. Huggins cut the wedding cake and Mrs. E. P. Barnett assisted. Miss Gail Bender took charge of the wedding book.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a silk shantung sheath frock of champagne color and flowered shoes. Her flowers were carnations and stephanotis to match her frock. Mrs. Plumley wore an aquamarine printed tie silk with matching jacket and her corsage also of carnations and stephanotis.

Mr. Plumley and his bride went to San Francisco and Carmel, Calif., for their honeymoon, the bride wearing a navy blue dress with white coat and red corsage.

The couple will live in Corvallis where the bridegroom will attend Oregon State college. The bride has been a student at the same school and is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. The bridegroom's fraternity is Phi Gamma Delta.

In Medford for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Runkle, Eugene, the bride's grandparents; Miss Patience Page, San Francisco; Miss Cynthia Chase and Miss Linda Cushman, Salem; Miss Patricia Bracken and Miss Elaine Rosen, both Portland; Aaron Thomas, Jr., Weed, Calif.; James Dehler, Roseburg; James Beauvois, Shelby Stadelin, Miss Dorothy Johnson, Miss Carol Smith, all Portland; John Cadwell, Lafayette, Calif.; Ben Lee, Grants Pass, Mrs. Victor Vitek, aunt of the bride and Miss Norma Vitek, cousin, Eugene.

Medical Student Visitor in City

Richard H. Alley Jr., arrived in Medford Friday to spend a week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Alley, 124 Greenway circle. The young man has just completed his second year at George Washington University school of medicine, Washington, D.C., and will return to the school later this summer.

Caughie-Sands Ceremony Held In Central Point

Central Point — Miss Mary Janet Sands became the bride of Richard K. Caughie in a ceremony held July 5 at First Presbyterian church, Central Point. Only relatives and close friends attended. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Earl Sands, 2922 Scenic avenue, Central Point, and the late Mr. Sands, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Caughie, Idaho Falls, Ida.

Dr. D. Kirkland West read the marriage vows at four o'clock in the afternoon, and Mr. Sands gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white taffeta gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt white overskirt of chiffon. The bride carried a rosebud bouquet.

Mrs. Robert Sands was matron of honor, and Miss Mary Jo Heath was bridesmaid. They wore frocks of taffeta with chiffon overskirts. Mrs. Sands' frock being blue and Miss Heath's pink. Both carried white and pink daisies and baby breath.

Larry R. Bearden was best man for Mr. Caughie, and the bride's brother, Larry, was usher.

Miss Linda Horton played the wedding music.

The reception which followed in the church parlor was attended by about 50 guests. Miss Heath cut the wedding cake and Miss Patsy Caughie, sister of the bridegroom, served punch.

The bride's mother wore a dress of grey and pink silk print with white carnation corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Carter High school and the bridegroom was graduated from High school in Idaho Falls. He is serving with the United States Air Force and is currently awaiting his next assignment.

Among the wedding guests were the bridegroom's parents.

Two aunts of the bridegroom, Mrs. Floyd Caughie and Mrs. Dell Williams, were hostesses for a shower which honored the bride. The party was held the week of the wedding and was planned as a surprise to the honored guest.

The bride's father, who attended the wedding and gave his daughter in marriage, died unexpectedly a few days later.
