

Military Ceremony Weds Pair

From California comes news of the wedding of Miss Lindora Mae Markwith and Corporal John McLean Heggs, held in the chapel of the United States Marine Corps Recruit depot, San Diego, Saturday, June 21. Chaplain Hubert S. Goss Jr. officiated at the early afternoon military wedding ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Markwith, formerly of Jacksonville and now residing in the Clairmont District of San Diego. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Heggs, Detroit, Mich.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of tulle and Chantilly lace over taffeta designed with fitted bodice and bouffant tiered skirt. Her finger-tip length veil was of hand-rolled imported illusion lace attached to a crown of lace and sequins.

For "something old" she wore an heirloom chain once belonging to her maternal great-grandmother, and her pearl earrings were a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and baby breath with a white Bible.

Miss Gloria Anderson, Pacific Beach, was maid-of-honor and little Susan Kaer, Medford, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

They wore ballerina length frocks of yellow lace, net trimmed headbands and yellow mitts and their bouquets were white gladiolus, lavender delphinium and baby's breath.

Stephen G. W. Beck Von Peccoz, San Diego, was best man. Ushers were James Brown, Oscar Godick and Michael Keefe.

Ronald M. Wright, San Diego, was organist. White gladiolus, ferns and candles decorated the chapel and were also used for the reception.

A patio reception held at the bride's parents home, was attended by 50 guests. Miss Otis Shepherd, Jacksonville,

Miss Gott Bride of Army Man

Miss Winifred Ra Jeanne Gott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett M. Gott, 2283 Buckshot road, became the bride of George W. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Thomas, 502 Fairview avenue, Ashland, in a ceremony held July 5 in Salinas, Calif.

The Rev. John Kemper of the Salinas United Presbyterian church officiated at the double ring ceremony held at the church at three o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride wore a white lace sheath dress with white accessories and carried white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Charles Bird, Salinas, attended the bride. She wore a pale blue dress with pink carnation corsage. Charles Bird served as best man.

The newlyweds traveled to Monterey and Carmel on their wedding trip.

The bride attended Medford High school. Mr. Thomas attended Ashland High school and is serving with the U.S. Army. At the present time he is attending an Army school at Fort Sam Houston, Texas. Following his graduation his bride will join him at his new duty station.

Newlywed Pair Makes Home Here After June Rites

Among newlywed couples now making their home in Medford are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Evers, who were married June 23 in Sterling, Colo. Mrs. Evers is the former Freida Mae Curtis, daughter of Mrs. Lola Curtis, formerly of Central Point and now of Sterling. Mr. Evers is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Evers, Sterling.

The wedding was held at the Curtis home with the Rev. Everett Cavin of Calvary Baptist church officiating at the double-ring rites. Fifty guests attended the eight o'clock evening event.

Baskets of white gladiolus decorated the home and an arch of lighted tapers formed a backdrop for the wedding party.

The bride wore a ballerina length chiffon frock of black and white design over white taffeta with black cummerbund. Her accessories were white and her corsage was of pink carnations. She was given in marriage by her brother, Ernest Curtis.

Miss Barbara Bigg was maid of honor. She wore a pink cotton frock with matching stole and a corsage of white carnations.

James Dean Evers served as best man for his brother.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Curtis wore a lavender print frock of silk jersey. Mrs. Evers wore a brown print crepe dress. Their corsages were carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held.

The couple traveled to Medford on their wedding trip. For her traveling attire the bride wore a black and white frock.

The bride attended Crater High school and is a graduate of Sterling High school. The bridegroom is a graduate of Sterling High school and is employed by Kirby Company of Medford.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John Curtis, uncle and aunt of the bride, all of Fort Morgan, Colo., and Mrs. Alvina Evers, grandmother of the bridegroom, Denver.

The newlyweds will live in Pacific Beach.

Marian Wood Is Bride of Arthur S. Paul

A wedding of interest to friends in the valley was held in the First Presbyterian church, Carson City, Nevada, recently when Mrs. Marian F. Wood, formerly of Medford, and now of Palo Alto, Calif., became the bride of Arthur S. Paul, also of that city.

The bride made her home in Medford from May 1954 until February 1957 while she was employed as a dental assistant with the Veterans' Administration at Camp White.

The Rev. Gerald Case officiated at the double ring eight o'clock evening ceremony held May 24.

The bride wore a gold and green flowered chiffon frock with white accessories and matching hat.

They are making their home at 356 Homer avenue, Palo Alto, following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe and Twain Harte. They are both employed by the Veterans Administration.

While making her home in the Rogue valley, the new Mrs. Paul was a member of Medford Business and Professional Women's club, Order of Eastern Star, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Southern Oregon Dental Assistants society. She was also a member of St. Mark's Episcopal church here.

Central Point Doll Show On Recreation Program

Central Point—A doll show was held Friday, July 18, in the Central Point park as part of the girls' recreational activities being held there.

Approximately 35 girls entered 60 dolls in the show. Each girl was allowed to enter three dolls in the seven divisions.

Winners included biggest doll, Judy Patterson, first; Linda Snider, second; and Susan England, third.

Smallest doll, Ruth Wilson, first; Pam Squire, second; Marilyn Cameron, third; and Elaine Wright, fourth. The oldest doll, 46 years old, was entered by Jolene Green. Elaine Wright placed second and Elaine Johnson third in this division.

Karen Alldridge won first and third places in the prettiest doll division, while Marilyn Cameron won second. In the best dressed doll division Pam Squire was first, Sheryl Hammel, second, and Elaine Wright, third.

The most different doll was owned by Joyce Josephson with Judy Patterson, second; and Marcie Miller, third. Joyce's doll had moveable face features. The best handmade original doll was entered by Marilyn Cameron and was her version of the "Purple-People Eater and the Witch Doctor." An African head-hunter entered by Karen Alldridge won second place. Cindy Smock placed third.

Mrs. George Johns and Mrs. John Smock were judges. The winners have also been announced of other recent contests. In the rope skipping contest Cindy Lytle was first in the eight-year-old and under group; Annette Jones, second; and Pamela Squire, third.

In the 8½ and 9-age group, Jeannene West, first; and Susan Fitzgerald, second. In the 10 and 11 age group, Tylene Evans, first; Martha Harris, second; Barbara More, third; and Elaine Wright, fourth. Of those eleven and over Jolene Green was first, and Judy Patterson, second.

In the Badminton tournament Jolene Green and Judy Patterson will play for the championship and Marilyn Cameron and Janet Pfaff will compete for third and fourth place.

Boys and girls may sign up for the ping-pong tournament which will be scheduled soon. They may register during the week of July 21 through 25 with Mrs. Don Miller at the Central Point park. They may also sign up for the Roller derby. Bicycles, tricycles, wagons, scooters, and roller skates, may also take part.

Approximately 80 boys and girls have been taking part in the swimming program.

Williams Take Canadian Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Williams have returned to their home, 1516 Wilson place, after a motor trip into Canada. The Williams left July 2 and traveled by way of McNary dam and Bonner's Ferry, Idaho, to Radium Hot Springs in Canada.

The travelers visited Mt. Eisenhower, took a snowmobile trip over the Columbia ice fields and spent some time at Banff and Lake Louise. They enjoyed a chair lift trip up the mountains, and the flower gardens at Bow River falls.

Later the Williams attended the annual Calgary Stampede, stopped at Ft. McLeod and at St. Mary's in Glacier National park after returning across the border. They also were at Sun Valley, Idaho, for a time and coming down the Salmon river at the time of the salmon run, were interested to see literally thousands of fishermen crowding the river banks.

After returning to Oregon, the Williams stopped at Diamond lake for a time. They made the trip by car, taking their trailer.
