Merrifield Speaks At GOP Meeting

John Merrifield, Portland state chairman of the Republican candidates assistance committee, told local GOP candidates this week it is necessary to elect to the state legislature responsible representatives who will not be controlled by any special interest groups.

He spoke at the Medford hotel to county Republican candidates. The meeting was arranged by Don Stathos, chairman of the Jackson County Republican Central committee.

Merrifield said "This type of responsible representation is necessary if Oregon is going to have the kind of governmental services the voters will have faith in and be proud of." He emphasized that "the

Band Concert Set In Park Wednesday

A concert by members of the Medford public school band session will be held in the city park next to the library at 8 p.m. Wednesday, July 23, I. A. Mirick, band director, has announced.

The concert will include the elementary school, junior high and senior high bands, he said. About 400 youngsters are registered in the summer band and orchestra program, including a large number in baton twirling.

The beginners band class will hold its recital in the Medford High school auditorium Friday. Parents and friends have been invited.

Oregon Highway Traffic Decreases

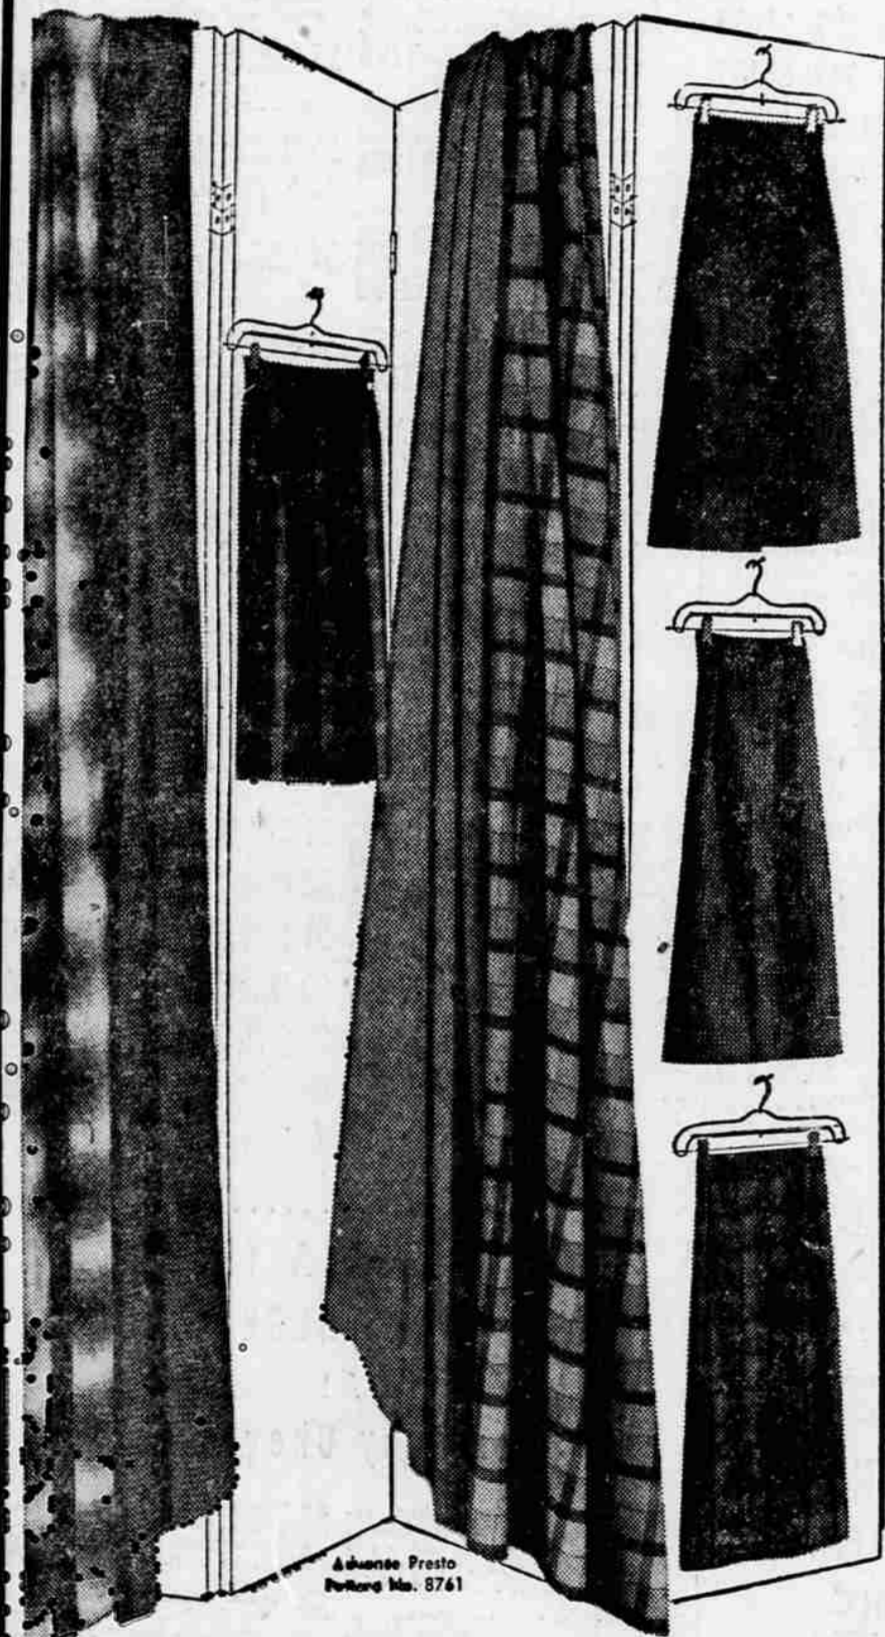

Salem — Oregon highway traffic decreased 1.3 per cent in June compared to June of last year, the State Highway Department reported Friday.

General decreases were revealed on most highway routes leading to the coast.
