Polk Road Crews Reject Pay Raise

Portland — (UPI) — Leo Butts, business representative for the Oregon Public Employees Council, said today road employees in Polk county have turned down a pay increase of five cents an hour, plus three paid holidays a year.

He said employees had asked the Polk county court for an increase of 25 cents an hour, 10 paid holidays and three weeks vacation for men with 10 years or more service. Pay in Polk county now ranges from $1.75 to $2.15 an hour.

Butts said he had asked the Polk-Marion County Joint Labor council to enter the negotiations. He said if these talks did not produce agreement road workers might picket jobs.

Russian Scientists Express Concern

London — (UPI) — Moscow Radio Monday night broadcast an expression of concern over the Middle East crisis signed by 96 Russian scientists.

The statement, addressed to "the scientists of the world," said: "It is our firm conviction that all sound-minded people, capable of a sober appraisal of the situation, are as much worried as we are. We therefore appeal to all men of science to do everything possible at this crucial moment to cut short the aggression and prevent World War III from breaking out."

Market Absorbs Vast Amount of Realizing

New York — (UPI) — The stock market today absorbed a vast amount of realizing without much change overall in price. News continued favorable with a few exceptions such as the Ford Motor Co. second quarter statement showing a net loss of $17,300,000 against a profit in the first quarter. Ford lost more than a point.
