

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

JOE ADAMS has gotten a lot of mileage out of the story of the wealthy man who arose at a charity dinner and announced in stentorian tones, "My name is Sam Smith and I'm the president of Dresses for the Deaf."

From Yonkers... some bottles to the druggist in Minneapolis with this note attached: "Special note to druggist. Be sure and write it plain on the bottles, which is for honor and which is for home before spring plowing."

We came home with a new-fangled dress that made her look little more than skin-and-bones. "Ho ho," chuckled her husband, "The Complete Anguar."

Grange News...

Upper Applegate Grange will be host to friends and neighbors at an open meeting in the Grange hall at 8 p.m., Friday, July 25.

Upper Applegate Grange

The program will consist of music, special numbers presented with unusual lighting effects by Roxy Ann square dancers, and colored slides of southern Oregon wild flowers. There will be refreshments, and all who are interested, are invited to attend.

Earlier in the year, Grange

Lecturer Anna Scott divided the membership into four units for a program competition. The group presenting what is judged to be the best balanced program is to be entertained with a dinner given by the losers. Sister Grace Buck's unit, which has been chosen to open the contest, will be in charge of Friday night's presentation. The regular Grange session will follow the refreshment hour.
