

Yogi Answers Critics With Bat, Strikes Key Blow Against Tigers

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Yogi Berra may look a bit sunny playing right field but there's nothing humorous to rival pitchers about the way he's swinging his bat.

inning homer—as the Yankees rallied from a 5-0 deficit to beat Jim (No Hit) Bunning and the Detroit Tigers, 10-7. The Yankees had scored four runs in the seventh to cut Detroit's margin to 5-4 and Berra's homer with Mickey Mantle on base put them ahead, 6-5.

Phoenix, Vancouver Only .001 Back of Pads in Coast Loop

By GENE BRYANT

Ryne Duren Dropped by Hurler Ball

Detroit—(UP)—Ryne Duren's father picked the wrong day to watch his son pitch for the first time since he joined the major leagues.

The near-sighted New York Yankee relief artist was felled by Paul Foytack, another fastballer, in Thursday's New York-Detroit Tiger game and x-rays showed no fracture.

The elder Duren, hearing and reading of his 6-foot, 2-inch, 195-pound son's exploits with the American league leaders—he's saved 16 victories, posted a 1.56 earned run average, struck out 63 and walked only 24 in 54 innings—journeyed to Detroit from his Cazenovia, Wis., home.

Duren had pitched two hitless innings while New York wiped out a 6-0 deficit and went ahead 6-5. He had two strikes and no balls on him with two out in the ninth when he was hit. New York went on to score four more runs and win, 10-7, Duren was winning pitcher.

"I knew it was going to be a bad pitch as soon as I let go of it," Foytack said. "I was so dumbfounded I couldn't yell at him to get out of the way."

Former Yankee shortstop Phil Rizzuto, who now helps broadcast the Yankees games, said "feeling was running high" on the Yankee bench in a night sportscast. He added that second baseman Gil McDougald had words with Tiger catcher Red Wilson, first base coach Don Lund and the plate umpire following the incident.

However, in Cleveland where the Yanks went immediately after the game, no player would accuse Foytack of throwing at Duren.

Spit Costs Williams $250 Fine
Chicago—(UP)—It's more than spitting distance from Kansas City, Mo., to Chicago but Boston Red Sox slugger Ted Williams today felt a $250 impact for a spitting incident back in Kansas City's ball park.

Ted apologized and readied a check in payment of a $250 fine levied by American league President Will Harridge, after the Boston star retaliated to boos from Kansas City fans Wednesday night with a stream of saliva.

Williams said Thursday night, he was "very sorry" over the incident which occurred during a "fit of temper."

Fans jeered Williams with a flurry of boos when he failed to run out a fourth-inning dribbler down the first base line.

Chain Saw, Parsons Keep Unblemished in Softball

M and W Chain Saw and Parsons Motors kept their records unmarred in the Jackson County Softball association with victories on the Camp White field last night.

The Chain Saw gang defeated Rogue Valley Dairy Maids 20 to 2 but the Parsons had rougher going, barely beating the Butte Falls Loggers 3 to 2.

M and W chalked up its fifth triumph and the Motorists made it four in a row. Steals Home
Barney Riggs stole home for the winning run in the bottom of the seventh inning for Parsons. Riggs doubled and went to third on a single by Cliff Lacy. Parsons had taken a 2 to 0 lead in the second inning but the Loggers tied it up in the top of the seventh on hits by Lloyd Holmes and Edwin Ellis, a fielder's option and two errors.

For M and W Willie Barnum swatted two homers, a single and a double in four times up. Dick Meister also homered and he and Jim House and Chuck Hoyt had three safeties each in four batting turns.

Miss Jameson came in with a one-under-par 73 Thursday on the 6,770-yard course, dampened by recent rains. Right behind her with a 74 was Faye Crocker, another leading money winner, from Uruguay.

Three Tied In Eastern

Baltimore—(UP)—Gary Player, a little South African in search of "the Yankee dollar," shared the lead with two other steady strikers today going into the second round of the Eastern Open Golf tournament.

Player, who has averaged better than $1,000 a week since joining the American tour, posted a four-under-par 68 in his first official tour over the Mount Pleasant course Thursday to tie Mike Fetchick and Bob Rosburg for the lead.
