

Aqua Ski Tourney Souvenir Program Will Be Published

Crater Lions club will publish a souvenir program in connection with the Western Regional championships of the American Water Ski association and has earmarked revenue from sales and advertising for the Junior Service league kindergarten for hard of hearing children.

The ski meet will be on Aug. 8, 9 and 10 at Gardener lake 15 miles northeast of Medford in the Yankee creek area. It will draw 100 or more skiers from 11 western states, including three national champions.

Descriptions and requirements of the slalom, trick riding, mixed doubles and jumping events along with scoring systems will be included in the program. It will have a schedule of the events along with other general tournament information.

Fills Vital Need

It is planned to have copies of the program on sale at a downtown location.

The benefiting kindergarten was established by the women's organization several years ago to help small children overcome some of the effects of their hard of hearing handicap and make the transition to regular school routine easier. Staffed by a full-time teacher, the kindergarten is the only facility of its kind in Oregon outside of the Portland area and fills a vital need in the Rogue Valley.

Because of the closing of the Jackson County Housing authority, it has become necessary to move the kindergarten to another building. The structure must be renovated for school use and needs painting, fencing and a new furnace.

Stearns Entered
Chuck Stearns, Bellflower, Calif., 1957 national men's overall champ, and Vicki Van Hook, last year's national junior girls overall winner, are among contestants. A number of entries already have arrived. Lions club members have reported.

The public is welcome to join the gallery of spectators at the three-day meet. Lions have emphasized.

Gardener lake, judged ideal for water skiing, is on the Victor Gardener property. It is reached by driving out Crater Lake highway and turning right onto Antelope rd., following this route to Yankee Creek rd. and then taking this road to the lake. Lions will have signs posted from the Crater Lake highway - Antelope rd. intersection to the tourney site.

Brenner Instructs
Instructor was Warren Brenner, who has been Medford High school tennis coach. He has resigned and will not be on the faculty here next fall.

Winetrot topped Jere Randolph 6-2 in the semi-finals after beating Rance Champion in the quarter-finals. Ingram drew a semi-final bye after wins of 6-0 over Chip Buffington and 6-0 over Bob Stacey. Miss Harris defeated Toni Adams 6-1 and Mary Jo Batzer 6-1 in quarter and semi-finals while Miss Hinman won from Marilyn Goldman 6-0 after having a quarter-final bye. Miss Batzer trimmed Susan Naumes 6-3 in quarters and Ellen Bauback 6-0 in semis. Miss Walch had verdicts of 6-1 over Tara Shelton and 6-0 over Linda Danies.

The Long Beach, Calif., Miss was second in junior girls' tricks last year in the national ski tourney of the ASWA. She also topped her division in tricks in the All-American tournament at Lakeland, Fla. The three-day regional session next Monday will contain slalom, tricks, mixed doubles and jumping events in pee wee, junior boys, junior girls, men's,

Giants Blank Bucs, Catch Milwaukee

Pittsburgh —UPI—Johnny Antonelli and Marv Grissom muzzled Pirate bats as the San Francisco Giants shut out Pittsburgh 1-0 Saturday. The victory lifted the Giants into a tie with the Milwaukee Braves for the National league lead.

The winners, who were blanked themselves in the two last games, ended their famine in the third inning when they scored the only run of the game. Catcher Bob Schmidt and Antonelli then singled in succession and advanced on a sacrifice by Danny O'Connell. Schmidt then scored on Willie Kirkland's sacrifice fly.

Losing pitcher Vernon Law evaded further trouble as Frank Thomas scooped Willie

Mays' grounder, bluffed a throw to first and then tagged Antonelli steaming into third.

Antonelli, picking up his 11th victory, gave way to Grissom with two out in the seventh and two runners aboard. The veteran reliever promptly saved the Giants by fanning Dick Stuart. Hank Foiles had led off with a double to left and went to third on Laws' sacrifice. O'Connell tossed out Bill Virdon, but after Antonelli walked Roberto Clemente, Grissom was summoned from the bullpen.

The Pirates collected eight hits but batted 10 runners as both Antonelli and Grissom rallied in the clutch.

A Pony league day turnout expected Pirate heroes in the ninth inning when Ted Klusewski, injected as a pinchhitter, was struck by one of Grissom's pitches. However, pinchhitter Johnny Powers bounced into a double play and Bill Virdon struck out.

Frank Thomas' 15-game hitting streak went by the boards when he went nothing for three as the Pirates' four-game winning string was snapped. He drew a walk in the first inning, flied to left in the third, forced Clemente in the fifth and struck out in the eighth.

Player Leads Other Players

Baltimore —UPI—Young Gary Player, the smooth invader from Johannesburg, South Africa, fired a par 72 over lengthy Mount Pleasant course yesterday to maintain his lead in the $20,000 Eastern Open.

The 22-year-old scrapper has a 54-hole total of 208, one stroke better than three veteran circuit riders, Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa., Jack Burke Jr., Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., and Bob Rosburg, Palo Alto, Calif.

The 72-hole event winds up tomorrow with 18 holes.

Burke shot a 69 this afternoon while Rosburg and Wall each had a 71.

Right behind these four was Sammy Sneed of White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. Putting brilliantly, Sammy stroked in six birdies on the front nine today to set a course record of 30 for the front side.

Portland —Chuck Withers, Portland State college's all-conference fullback in 1957, will coach the Viking football coaching staff this fall as a student assistant it was announced Saturday by Athletic Director Joe Holland. Withers, who will complete his studies at PSC during the coming year, will assist Head Coach Les Leggett, in his second year at the helm of the Vikes, and Assistant Coach Gene McNally, another newcomer to the PSC staff.

Bassett Is Net Finalist

Seattle, Wash. —UPI—Glenn Bassett of Los Angeles yesterday blasted his way into the finals of the Washington state tennis tournament by defeating Seattle's Gary Linden, 6-3, 6-0, 6-2. Bassett will be joined in the final round by 18-year-old Mike Crane of Berkeley who won his semi-final match yesterday.

Bassett, a smooth-stroking tennis veteran, had little trouble with Linden in posting the victory. Linden had gained the semi-final round by gaining a default win over top-seeded Bob Howe of Australia and then beating tenth-seeded Merwin Miller.

Crane's spot in the finals was earned with a victory over Seattle's Doyle Perkins Friday.

Finalists in the women's division will be Seattle's Janet Hopps and Barbara Browning of Burbank, Calif. Miss Hopps, the ninth ranked woman player in the nation, entered the finals with a 7-5, 6-1 win over Pat Yeomans of Los Angeles. Miss Browning beat Pamela Davis of Anaheim, Calif., yesterday, 6-4, 6-3 to move into the championship picture.

The finals will be held today at the Seattle Tennis club.

Yanks To Miss Duren 10 Days

Detroit —UPI—Casey Stengel and his New York Yankees will have to "rough it" for 10 days to two weeks without star reliever Ryne Duren.

Duren, beamed Thursday by Detroit's Paul Foytack, was pronounced better Friday by Dr. E. Stephen Gurdjian of Detroit. But Gurdjian said he thought it probably would be 10 days to two weeks before Duren is ready to pitch again.

Duren suffered a slight concussion.

Buck Deer Season Set October 4-26 In Final Hunt Rules

Portland —UPI—The Oregon State Game commission at a public hearing Friday reviewed and adopted hunting regulations for 1958 with little change in the original proposals.

The big game seasons were adopted as originally outlined in the tentative proposals, October 4 through October 26 for buck deer, and November 1 through November 16 for bull elk in the coast range and November 1 through November 26 in the Cascade and Eastern Oregon areas.

The deer season was set at one buck with at least forked antlers in that portion of the state west of the Cascade summit and one buck with visible antlers east of the Cascade summit.

Bull elk taken along the north coast would have to have at least three points or more on one antler, with a minimum length of points defined as two inches in length. Bulls with antlers longer than the ears would be legal in the Cascades, northwestern Oregon, and the south coast and one elk of either sex legal in southeastern Oregon.

A new rule in taking bull elk would be in effect this year which provides that persons taking bull elk must tag and possess the scalp and eyes with antlers attached while the carcass of the animal is in possession in the field or forest or on the highways or roads in the state of Oregon.

This rule was adopted in an attempt to stop violators from disguising the sex of the animal taken.

The tentative upland bird rules were also given final approval with a change in the dove regulations which provides for 10 per day, 20 in possession. This is an increase of 10 doves in possession from the tentative proposals.

Brood counts on pheasants and quail during the past two weeks by game biologists in key areas indicated good brood survival despite heavy mowing losses of hens and brood losses caused by the wet early nesting season.

Despite the losses, brood counts indicated the pheasant population higher than a year ago, with the exception of Klamath and the Rogue river areas.

Upland Bird Seasons
The final rules called for an October 11 through November 16 pheasant season in the entire state with a bag limit of 4 cocks per day, 12 in possession. Malheur county hunters would get a bonus of one hen in the bag or in possession from November 8 through the 16th.

Other upland game seasons adopted include valley and bobwhite quail on the west side of the Cascades except Linn county, October 11 through 16; mountain quail west of the Cascades, September 27 through October 19; blue and ruffed grouse west of the Cascades, September 27 through October 19; valley quail, bobwhite quail, mountain quail, Hungarian partridge, and chukar partridge east of the Cascades, October 11 through November 16; blue and ruffed grouse east of the Cascades, August 30 through September 5.

Bag limit for mountain quail west of the Cascades would be 5 per day, 10 in possession. Bag limit on quail and partridge in eastern Oregon and for valley and bobwhite quail in western Oregon would be 10 per day, 20 in possession.

Jackson Dove Season
Sage Grouse season would be from August 30 through September 7 in Lake, Harney, and Malheur counties and that portion of Baker county south and west of highway 30. Bag limit on sage grouse was set at 2 per day, 4 in possession.

September 1 through the 28th was set for the band-tailed pigeon season. Mourning doves could be hunted from September 1 through 28 in Hood River, Jefferson, Sherman, and Wasco counties and all counties west of the Cascades except Jackson county. Jackson county and all other counties east of the Cascades would be open from September 1 through September 14.

A complete synopsis of the 1958 hunting regulations will be available for public distribution the latter part of August. Hunters wishing information on the antelope hunt and the unit and controlled deer and elk hunts should contact their license agent.

Five-Way Fight In Women's Golf
French Lick, Ind. —UPI—The battle for the Women's Open Golf title was thrown into a five-way fight yesterday when retuned Jackie Pung, who had led the field by three strokes, soared to a three-over-par 77.

Little Mlene Bauer Hage, who tips the scales at less than half Mrs. Gung's 225 pounds, fired a four - under par 70 to go into a first-place tie with the San Francisco swinger. Each had a 225 total for 54 holes in the 72-hole tourney which ends tomorrow.

Tied at 226 were Betty Jameson, San Antonio, Tex., Fay Crocker, Uruguay, and veteran Louise Suggs, Atlanta.

Miss Jameson, the only golfer with a sub-par round on opening day, moved into contention with her one-over-par 75.

Miss Suggs was one-under par for the second straight day following a disastrous 80 in the first round of play Thursday.

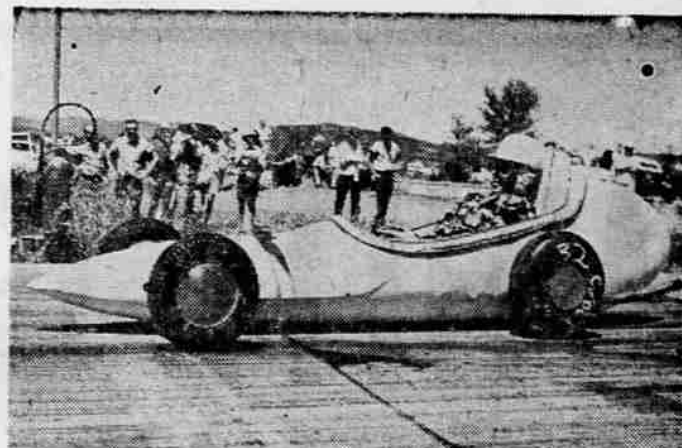

Miss Crocker joined the leaders by firing a par 74 to go with previous rounds of 74-78.

Ruth Jensen, Seattle, Wash., shot a two-under-par 72 for the second best round of the day. She was two under on the front nine and parred the final round. But her total of 164 on the first two rounds kept her well back in the field with a 236 total.

Althea Gibson Wins Tourney
Philadelphia —UPI—U.S. and Wimbledon champion Althea Gibson won the Pennsylvania Women's Tennis championship yesterday with a 7-5, 2-6, 6-4, victory over 18-year-old Sally Moore of Bakersfield, Calif., in the final round of the 59th annual tournament.

The young Californian, who holds the Wimbledon Junior title, gave Miss Gibson a determined battle in the one-hour and 19-minute match, hitting the ball with great speed and control and passing the champion on numerous volleys. Miss Moore's curved service gave trouble in the first two sets. Miss Gibson scored 90 points in the match while Miss Moore had 87.

MOUNTIES GET DYCK
Vancouver, B.C. —UPI—The Vancouver Mounties of the Pacific Coast league announced Friday they had purchased Jim Dyck, outfielder-infielder, from the Seattle Rainiers for $10,000.

MIDGET DRAGSTER—One of the featured entries in today's drag races at Camp White will be this sleek acceleration dragster owned by Jack White of Medford. Weighing less than 300 pounds, this entry is powered by a 650-cubic centimeter 40-inch 40 Triumph motorcycle engine. Built mainly by White and Pat Franzen of Grants Pass, this tiny dragster has a fiberglass body just large enough to house driver and engine. Fastest time to date has been almost 100 miles per hour and White stated yesterday that work done recently will boost this speed considerably. Deadline for entries in today's drags is 12 o'clock noon, according to officials of Southern Oregon Timing association, who sponsor the races. A large turnout is expected to provide stiff competition for entries and thrills for the spectators. Several bleacher units have been installed and a concession stand will be in operation. Speeds of over 130 miles per hour are expected from Rogue Valley entries who are favored in the faster classes.

Women's State Softball Tourney Booster Ticket Sale Conducted by Lions

Eagle Point —A booster ticket sale campaign for the women's state tournament of the Oregon State Softball association has been announced by a steering committee of the Eagle Point Lions club.

The tournament is being staged Aug. 7 through 10 at the Veterans Administration Memorial Stadium, Camp White, with the Lions club as sponsoring organizations.

Tickets are being sold in books of 10 but individual tickets also can be bought. Rogue Valley Dairy Maids, southern Oregon entrants in the tourney, and members of the Lions club have tickets for sale. Books will be placed also in a Medford business establishment.

Gifford May Rejoins Giants
Salem, Ore. —UPI—The New York Giants football team began arriving in Camp Saturday and Coach Jim Hoffer was happy because Frank Gifford, his star left halfback, probably will be with the club again this year.

Gifford has a promising movie and television career under way but said in Hollywood Friday he probably would rejoin the team next week if Howell will permit him to report a few days late. Gifford is considered the National Football league's most versatile left halfback, and was Player of the Year in 1956.

The male scarlet tanager has a bright scarlet body with black wings, but the female is a greenish color.

Program Being Printed
A book of booster tickets will go for $4. This represents considerable saving since individual ticket price is 75c.

A printed program will be given away at games.

Eight teams will vie in the tourney. First night frays at the VA stadium will match Salem against Springfield and the Dairy Maids against Hillsboro. The other games the
